Preface

By: Ustad Sayyid Muhammad Dhiyabaadi

for the First and Second Editions In His Exalted Name I have read this book with care and attention and found it a collection compiled with a motive emanated from an ardent belief in the fundamentals of Shia school, which is the only clear manifestation of Islam. The great deal of constancy and research is much appreciable, which is further espoused with truth, sincerity and openness in dealing with the doubts by way of evaluation and review. Furthermore, it rises from staunch love and affection to defend the sanctity of divinely ordained authority of Ahle Bayt of Prophet, peace be on them. Regretfully it is being witnessed that there are individuals having long been fed at the widespread table of the Prophet's Ahle Bayt who are under mandate of reason and religion to strengthen the foundation of the school of those sacred rays of divine throne. However, they have no regard to the bread they have grown upon

They have weakened, rather ruined the very pillars of Shia school disguised as if adhering to truth and defending the sanctity of Islamic unity which is only a deceptive show and a polite blow. Tabarra; that is distancing oneself from enemies of the Prophet's Ahle Bayt and despising them is one of the two keystones of religion. They have created a question mark against it. They claim that it is against Quran and tradition. Sometimes according to them, the office of Imamate is a separate entity independent from Caliphate. Sometime .in principles of belief also they have created a base and a branch

They introduce belief in Imamate as a branch, as a subsidiary thing liable to personal jurisprudence. As such, it does not constitute any obligation on the part of the person in event of his denial. Sometimes the words and deeds of Amirul Momineen Ali (a.s.), in his dealings with Caliphs is a ground to them to justify their allegation that Ali was totally in agreement with their Caliphate. It seems that they have not heard the painful cries of that oppressed Imam that used to come out of his aching heart as he says: "When Allah .took the Prophet (to himself) a group of men went back on their tracks

The ways (of misguidance) ruined them and they placed trust in deceitful intriguers, showed consideration to other than kinsmen, abandoned the kin whom they had been ordered to love and shifted the building from its strong foundation and built it in other than its (proper) place. They are the source of every shortcoming and the door of gropers in the dark. They were moving to and fro in amazement and lay intoxicated in the way of the people of the Pharaohs. They were either bent on this world and taking support on it or away from faith and removed from it." (Nahjul Balagha, Faid, Sermon 15. End of Part Two) Attention to it is a matter of absolute necessity. Research about a true religion is the most essential element of life for Islamic society. A tangible proof of its salubrity and .originality of being from divine should be brought home to people

The minds of young generation should be enlightened with regard to its principles and fundamentals as well as to defend the precincts of its sanctity. This does not mean sedition among groups or creating differences in thoughts of people. It is a matter of regret that there are individuals who refrain from discussing facts about religion and analyzing issues pertaining to beliefs and its literature. Their excuse is to preserve unity. Those who discuss and debate such matters perhaps are accused of sedition causing .disunity and creating crevices in a concrete block of unity

It seems that this fact has escaped their sight. Unity appreciated by reason and religion – and at the same time a sacred one – is unity that should be framed over the pivot of truth rotating around truth. Otherwise it will be a unity at wrong (supposing if it comes into being). It will be unholy unity resulting in nothing but loss, havoc and emptiness. It is natural first to know the truth. Then people should be invited towards unity based on truth. This needs to undergo a discussion and all-sided research in religion to find out [what is there after truth except losing the way and going astray.]۱

Now the present collection which is an output of a year-long labor of a group of learned, believer youths and committed persons; to do justice to it, one should say honestly that it has originated from faith and a staunch love towards the most sacred position of divinely authorized Guardianship (Wilayat) of Amirul Momineen Ali (a.s.) and Ahle Bayt of Prophet. Peace be upon them all. Those who are acquainted with the task of writing books know that constancy in discourses and in scattered writings of speculators is not easy. Grouping and collecting the doubted data from spoken words and writings and then their orderly arrangement and classification, then to make it coherent is not an easy job. Obvious it is as to what could be the corrupt aftermaths begotten by a doubtful belief. They have not allowed this to escape without replying. In this regard, they have made full use of books of great scholars of religion and faith. Considering all this, one should honestly .acknowledge the difficulty and labor involved in it

One cannot undergo this burden unless one is blessed with moral impetus and love to defend the true faith. Therefore all who love Shia faith, particularly the youths, will read this collection with interest in order to know how conjectures and allegations are spread which should not go without answering. In the end, I beseech the Lord to bless the author and his colleagues with prosperity in both the worlds and bestow upon him bounty of service to religion in future also. ۱-۱۰-۸۰ (۹th Shawwal ۱۴۲۲) Sayyid Muhammad Dhiyabaadi

By the Grace of the Almighty, this valuable book: A Victim Lost in Saqifah[۲] is being published for the second time, revised and with additional data on some parts of original text. After reading the additional matter, I realized that it was necessary for the original text as it completes it. I hope for continuation of such a service to religion on the part of .the author by the grace of God

Section One Allegiance of Amirul Momineen (a.s.) to Caliphs

Motive of this research

Ali's Bay'at with Abu Bakr is repeatedly mentioned in various styles and used in different ways to bring out Abu Bakr's Caliphate from its characteristic feature of usurpation that .surrounds it

:So they claim

It is said that Ali was tied by a rope round his neck and his house was destroyed. I do not know such an Ali. He was not a man of such an insult. He wisely paid allegiance and [remained firm on it indicating his satisfaction.]^۱

[This proves that Ali did not view their Caliphate illegitimate.]^۲

After he (Ali) gave Bay'at. He even mended and dressed the shortcomings in Caliphs' proceedings. This confirms the legitimacy of Caliphs.]^۳

Ali has given Bay'at to both (Abu Bakr and Umar). Of course he has done this prudently.]^۴

The behavior and conduct of Ali and his reverend sons towards Caliphs was such that it could be called an approval and pledge of allegiance.]^۵

:Those who make the claims (that Ali gave allegiance to Abu Bakr) have an aim

A) Ali's acknowledgment to Abu Bakr serves an umbrella to them, covering illegitimacy of Abu Bakr's Caliphate. Besides it supports their persistence in their design to prove Ali's consent and concurrence

B) To benefit from Ali's acknowledgment by removing from the public mind suspicion of illegitimacy of Abu Bakr's Caliphate. Besides, to pose it as a Caliphate having God's pleasure. In other words, to provide a sanctity under shade of Ali's allegiance

:Therefore we must go through these allegations thoroughly

:In the meantime we would like to scrutinize these two claims

.Claims that Ali's Bay'at tantamount to public popularity of Abu Bakr's rule (۱)

.Claims that acceptance of Abu Bakr's rule proves Ali's allegiance to Abu Bakr (۲)

Therefore in this analysis we shall evaluate the sources claiming that Ali gave allegiance to Abu Bakr. They are as follows

(Source One: Divine legitimacy (Legitimacy granted by God (Source Two: Public Popularity (Standard of public accord (Source Three: Existence (A fact/occurrence

We shall again thoroughly investigate historical documents related to these claims to find the extent of Ali's approval to Abu Bakr's rule

Because the above subject has taken for granted that Ali in fact gave allegiance to Abu Bakr.

Accordingly we can evaluate Ali's belief in legitimacy and popularity of Abu Bakr's Caliphate and thereby gauge its authenticity in the light of History

Discourse One Absence of Ali's Approval to Abu Bakr's Caliphate

Discourse One Absence of Ali's Approval to Abu Bakr's Caliphate

There is no doubt that if Abu Bakr' Caliphate had been legitimate in the view of His Eminence, Ali in any of these aspects – legitimacy, popularity, entity – he would have never refrained from paying allegiance and would have never tried to overthrow it through armed uprising. So the fact is that there was no approval at all from the side of Ali

[(a.s.).[1]

Historical documents

:Moosa bin Uqbah (d. ۱۴۱) narrates from Ibne Shuhab Zuhri

Some Muhajireen were enraged about the allegiance of Abu Bakr, among them were Ali [and Zubair...and they had weapons with them.]^[۲]

Ibne Mitham Bahrani (d. ۶۷۹) narrates from the book, Waqatus Siffeen by Nasr bin
:Muzahim Minqari (d. ۲۱۲) that Ali said

[Had I found forty men of determination I would have fought.]^[۳]

:Ibne Abil Hadeed Motazalli (d. ۶۵۶) also has narrated the same words of Ali

[Had I found forty men of determination!]^[۴]

:After quoting these words in Waqatus Siffeen he writes

[A large number of biographers have quoted this statement.]^[۵]

In the same way in his book he has quoted the text of letter Muawiyah had written to Ali
:(in which he has quoted this statement of His Eminence, Ali (a.s

[Had I forty men of determination I would have fought them.]^[۶]

The firm determination of Amirul Momineen (a.s.) to have an armed uprising was that when – due to some exigencies^[۷] – he became hopeless and confined himself to his :house he remarked as follows

If I had not feared discord among Muslims and their going back to infidelity and not worried about the destruction of the religion of Islam I would have behaved with them in [a different manner.]^[۸]

And by Allah! If there had been no risk of discord among Muslims as a result of which they would have reverted to infidelity, we would have in every possible way tried to bring [down the regime.]^[۹]

According to Shia sources the dissatisfaction of Amirul Momineen (a.s.) was to such an extent that he did not accept it for even a moment; so how can it be possible that he gave ?allegiance to Abu Bakr

:Thus he said

By God, if I had the number of supporters that Talut had or supporters the Prophet had” in battle of Badr, and they were inimical to you – I would have fought you with sword till you returned to truth. The separation among you would have suited you best and most .befitting to you

.O God judge between us with truth and You are the best of judges

The narrator says: Then he left the mosque and passed through Baseer[١٠] where around thirty sheep were there. He pointed to the sheep and said: By God, if I had men of this number of sheep, sincere and true to God and His Prophet, I would have overthrown him .from power

By nightfall, three hundred and sixty persons gathered around him and pledged their .support to him until death

Ali asked them to come the next day to Ahjaaris Zait[١١] with their heads shaved. Ali shaved his head. Among those three hundred and sixty came none except Abu Zar, .Miqdad, Huzaiifa bin Yamani, Ammar bin Yasir and Salman

:Then Ali raised his hands towards the sky and said

If a covenant had not been taken from me by the Prophet I would have drowned the opponents in the gulf of their ambitions and brought down upon their heads fatal [destructive lightning of death. Of course they will come to know soon.”[١٢

Conclusion

: (Says Ibne Maytham Bahrani (d. ۶۷۹

The event of Saqifah, occurrence of differences between companions and Ali's refusal to pay allegiance is an evident fact which can neither be denied nor concealed. It is from here that eternal differences and rivalry among them followed. The truth is that rivalry remained fixed and alive between Ali and he that seized the Caliphate in his time. The tyranny that resulted is open and clear. It remains at constancy and morally it declares [what happened.] [۱۳

: Therefore it can be said

Sayings and behavior of Ali towards Abu Bakr's Caliphate indicate his harsh and serious opposition. This open opposition they claim to be his acceptance and approval of Abu Bakr's Caliphate

Ali's strong resistance and refusal to pay allegiance to Abu Bakr finally resulted in those atrocities. The armed attack on house of Divine Revelation, then their entrance into the House, the insults on Zahra, the only daughter of the Prophet, then beatings and physical hurt committed against her, then the miscarriage of her unborn child, Mohsin – what all ?...this represents

Even when Amirul Momineen (a.s.) was disappointed of the possibility of armed uprising and possibility of overthrowing the tyrant rule of Abu Bakr, he still did not accept the validity of Abu Bakr's regime

It is natural that such denial can never be construed as his approval to Abu Bakr's Caliphate in any of the aspects we have stated above

: On the basis of this it can be said

.Amirul Momineen (a.s.) neither approved Abu Bakr's Caliphate nor he accepted it

:As a result

Abu Bakr's Caliphate, in his view, was illegal and usurped because it did not belong to him. Caliphate was his right according to Prophet's declaration in Ghadeer. It was usurpation.

.It was not only illegitimate but even short of popularity and identity

?What is the Meaning of Silence

As mentioned in first chapter of second volume of this book, Amirul Momineen (a.s.) due some exigencies, some of which we listed, changed his stance from planning an armed uprising into sitting quiet at home

In other words, he became obliged to undergo those sore and bitter conditions prevalent at that time, such as

- A) To forego the armed uprising against Abu Bakr's Caliphate and to ignore any preparations in that regard
- .B) To avoid campaigning seriously and abstain from disclosing any confidential matters
- C) To let go without opposition anything having a bearing on Abu Bakr's Caliphate, or anything in relation to it

While enduring these things was so hard that in his own words it was: "...a thorn in my [eyes and a bone in my throat...]"[۱۴

.It was bitter and painful

On the basis of this requirement of the above matter, absence of confronting the rulers which is described as silence can in no way be interpreted to be approval of Abu Bakr's Caliphate in any of its aspects: legitimacy, popularity or factuality

In the same way 'acceptance of silence and giving up of armed uprising' has no relation and necessity of his taking steps to his paying allegiance to Abu Bakr, though his silence is wrongly interpreted and it is claimed

Ali saw himself more deserving to Caliphate, but for the sake of the interests of Muslims” [he did Bay’at with Abu Bakr.”][۱۵

:Now it should be asked

.At what time, at which ground and under what conditions it took place

?Can such acceptance fulfill the necessary requirement of granting legitimacy to the ruler

Or because of difference between the meaning of silence and paying allegiance does there exist any bearing between the two? The sense and the application of the word
.“acknowledgment” or “paying allegiance” in such expressions is wrong

?What is the Meaning of Allegiance

In order to understand the meaning of Bay’at (that is the matter they claim to have occurred between Ali and Abu Bakr) and to know why the regime was so much concerned about getting the Bay’at of Amirul Momineen (a.s.) let us study the following to get a
:compendious sense and a concise description of this word

:Ibne Khaldun (d. ۸۰۸) writes in his book Muqaddima

To pay allegiance (Bay’at in Arabic) means a covenant, a fact that commits one to be” obedient to the other. One who enters into Bay’at with the other (or an Amir, a master) surrenders to his view in relation to himself and Muslims. He has no say in affairs concerning him or others. In short, one resigns to other. This is the sense of Bay’at. After accomplishment of Bay’at, he must be resigned irrespective of his willingness or .otherwise

It was customary at the time of Bay’at that one laid his hand into the hand of Amir or Lord
.as a token of his submission to him

[This is the general sense and common meaning in religion and common parlance.] [۱۶]

:In the light of this and other several similar descriptions it can be said

A) Individuals indicate obedience to one another by means of their actions and conduct.

.They show their resignation to his orders and authority which is called Bay'at

Bay'at with Caliph means acknowledgement to his being a Caliph and obedience to his orders. This indicates acceptance of his Caliphate and rule

B) Through Bay'at people leave their possibilities, properties and their social interests at the disposal of their leader or Imam or Caliph. By this means and method the leadership or Caliphate is established in society and attains a ground for its legitimacy. Those who enter into Bay'at are committed to honor the choice and opinion of the Bay'at taker

C) Through their Bay'at people are committed to be loyal and devoted to the Bay'at-taker. They also are committed to provide possibilities to strengthen the stand of government and make its foundation stronger. All these activities are reflected in their Bay'at to the Caliph

Conclusion

Bay'at is an act by which one's support, consent to obedience, commitment of loyalty and sincerity and acceptance of his (the Bay'at-taker) power or office is expressed

It is a means through which people display their approval and acknowledgement to the aforesaid items. It is a formal declaration

Reminder

A) Those who believe in Ali's Bay'at to Abu Bakr either do not speak with knowledge or use the word in its dictionary meaning to convey the above connotation

B) There is a great difference in the meaning of silence and abandoning armed uprising. It is absolutely wrong as it is not possible at all to use the word Bay'at even for the sake of reference.

In other words, the term Bay'at carries a particular sense it cannot be used in places which do not fit its sense or do not fall within its range. The word silence is interpreted in a sense of Bay'at and then the very word of Bay'at is attributed to Ali that he performed Bay'at with Abu Bakr because he had maintained a long silence.

Comparison of silence to Bay'at

:Three aspects of the topics

A) Imam Ali's (a.s.) untiring efforts to overthrow Abu Bakr's Caliphate; his belief in overthrowing the regime – even after his getting disappointed that it would be fruitful and beneficial. Though he gave up hope of armed uprising he continued his efforts.

B) Imam Ali's (a.s.) adamancy in his denial to give Bay'at to Abu Bakr until (according to Sunnis) firewood was gathered and Zahra's house was set afire.

:C) The accurate interpretation of Ali's social and political stand that is regarded as silence.

:What was forced upon Ali (a.s.) can be sketched as follows

Absence of effective efforts to have armed uprising against Abu Bakr's Caliphate and – ۱ his ignoring it. Since no necessary ground was available to him he had to accept this situation.

He had to forsake stiff opposition and tough steps because of their evil results and – ۲ unsuitable conditions.

Absence of opposition from all sides to orders of the Caliph and all acts of the regime – ۳ as a result of bad consequences and unfavorable conditions because of no general support or lack of consent of the society

So it is clear how difficult it was to undergo such conditions in spite of one's unwillingness. This is termed as silence with regard to Imam Ali's (a.s.) political and social stands. He (Ali) adopted this policy; and this policy had no bearing on his Bay'at or no relation to it that it be construed as Bay'at to Abu Bakr. This silence did not bind Ali to give Bay'at to Abu Bakr

Far before these developments,^[۱۷] His Eminence (a.s.) had occupied himself in collecting verses and chapters of Quran in his house. He had been disappointed of any possibility of bringing the downfall of illegitimate rule. The main setback was state of society, which was not yet ripe to foresee the dangers in store if the people betrayed him

It is obvious that to yield to such conditions and arrange thereon the political and social stands of his own should not create any obligation to give his acceptance and approval to Abu Bakr's Caliphate. Or that it could be used to prove that the Bay'at really took place

Mere occurrence of something cannot be a proof of its legitimacy. To prove the establishment of Abu Bakr's regime cannot be a proof that he had the allegiance of Amirul Momineen (a.s.). Neither can his silence be construed as approval

To accept a factual happening does not denote one is in agreement to it. So Ali's silence
.does not call for Bay'at

Conditions of achieving Bay'at

.Placing ones hand into that of other in Arab parlance is completion of a transaction"

But in Islam it is a sign of a covenant which means acknowledgement to one's authority or superiority. It represents obedience of Bay'at giver to Bay'at taker and his submission
.to him

The analysis of the word Bay'at in the days of the Prophet shows that it was based on
:three points

The Bay'at giver – ۱

The Bay'at taker – ۲

Commitment of obedience to rules of Bay'at – ۳

According to this order, the object of Bay'at must be clearly known and conceived
.because its performance is committed

So according to traditions of Prophet, as a token of acceptance one puts his hand into the .hand of Bay'at taker. Thus Bay'at is concluded

.So Bay'at takes to it a religious feature[۱۸] and becomes a religious term

But these days most Muslims do not know the conditions of getting Bay'at on religious :basis in Islam. Therefore it is incumbent to explain that

:In Islam Bay'at is sought when the following three conditions exist

The Bay'at giver should have fitness and eligibility of Bay'at. He must be free and – ۱
.independent

.The Bay'at taker should have fitness and eligibility to take Bay'at from him – ۲

.Bay'at must be for a legitimate object and aim – ۳

:On the basis of this

Bay'at must be concluded on the basis of willingness and inclination. Bay'at loses its authenticity and characteristic if it is obtained by force

.As such, if it is performed under coercion or tyranny it is illegitimate and invalid

Bay'at is wrong and invalid if concluded with one who is a known sinner or if Bay'at will lead to disobedience to God or to commit a sinful act. In all these cases it has no validity

.So Bay'at is an Islamic term and Islam has framed its rules and regulations

Bay'at in Arabic means giving hand into the hand of another as a token of completion of a transaction. In Islam it means that the Bay'at giver shall endeavor to perform obligations to the interest of Bay'at obtainer. If relative conditions do not exist, Islamic Bay'at cannot be accomplished

:Conditions of Bay'at are

.Bay'at of a mad or an immature is not valid – ۱

.Bay'at obtained by force and from an acknowledged sinner is not correct – ۲

.Bay'at to perform things, which go against religion, is of no value – ۳

Bay'at in the light of above is like a business deal. It takes place with mutual consent and agreement. It loses its strength if obtained by force or fraud

Likewise, Bay'at could not be performed for sin or disobedience to God. Bay'at cannot be [done with an open sinner.] [۱۹

:Imam Ali (a.s.) on this basis has said

My Bay'at to them did not constitute any right for them as they had no right to take” [Bay'at and it does not represent my willingness or consent to them.”] [۲]

.So according to the words of Ali, his Bay'at to Abu Bakr had no validity

To understand still more accurately the above words we shall scrutinize historical documents related to their demand from Ali to give Bay'at. Then we shall see the result against the conditions of obtaining Bay'at except my own family members. I feared their death. Ali always used to say particularly after the death of the Prophet: Alas, if I had forty men of determination! This is mentioned by Nasr bin Muzahim in his book Waqatus Siffeen. Most biographers too have mentioned this. It is clear in the text of Ibne Abil Hadeed that the last part of the sentence is missing.

So it is not known what Ali would have done had he got forty men of determination. This text reads in the writing of Abdul Salam Muhammad Haroon: Alas, if I had forty men ‘...
.then Ali said some other matter. So, here to the sentence is incomplete

Discourse Two Efforts to Obtain Imam Ali's (a.s.) Bay'at after the Prophet's Demise

Narrations in Sunni sources about Bay'at taken from Imam Ali (a.s.) can be classified into :three categories

First Category

Narrations under this category indicate that Ali entered into Bay'at willingly and openly
.with Abu Bakr immediately after the latter got Caliphate

Second Category

Narrations under this category indicate that Ali entered into Bay'at willingly and openly
.with Abu Bakr after six months

Third Category

Narrations under this category indicate unsuccessful attempts of supporters of Caliph to .obtain Bay'at from Imam Ali (a.s.) by force and compulsion Narrations under first and second categories are in contradiction to one another.

[Therefore they have neither credibility nor validity, hence they are discarded.]

On the basis of this there remain only narrations of third category that carry some weight and we shall investigate them thoroughly. These narrations are also mentioned in Shia
.sources hence we shall refer to them in this section

In this section with reference to the book, al-Hujoom alal Baitul Fatima by Ustad Muhaqqiq Shaykh Abduz Zahra Mahdi we shall explain how the Caliph and his associates made efforts to compel Amirul Momineen (a.s.) to give allegiance to Abu Bakr and Ali's persistent refusal to their demand to give Bay'at to Abu Bakr. So that it becomes clear
.what value this Bay'at has (Motive of Caliphate in taking Bay'at from Amirul Momineen Ali (a.s

Even though Amirul Momineen (a.s.) after trying to mobilize help for bringing down the regime retired dejected to his home the Caliphate system was not satisfied. They continued to make all efforts to extract allegiance from him at any cost. Silence of the Holy Imam (a.s.) and his disinclination to take up an armed campaign began to be .construed as his approval or rather readiness to give allegiance

So from this aspect they wanted him come to the Mosque at rate and lend legitimacy to their regime and that Bay'at may be taken from him for Abu Bakr.[۲] And in this way by accepting the silence of His Eminence (a.s.) they may show that it was customary

Perhaps they also wanted to eliminate Amirul Momineen (a.s.) under the pretext of his refusal to give Bay'at

Document No. ١٣

Some Muhajireen were enraged...Ali and Zubair were also angry and they entered" Fatima's house. Umar came to them with his men...Then Umar pulled them out and took [them forcibly to give Bay'at." [١٥

Conclusion

The most prominent conditions under which Bay'at was demanded from Amirul Momineen (a.s.) are Ali's refusal to give Bay'at to Abu Bakr and the atrocious and inhumane behavior of Umar and his men for obtaining the Bay'at. Thus all Sunni sources have highlighted these points

But the matter is that these two points have put a question mark on the validity of Abu Bakr's Bay'at due to the following

Illegitimacy of the very subject of Bay'at

.The entity of Bay'at-taker was in a position of tyrant and usurper of another's right

Unwillingness of Bay'at-giver

:Ibne Abil Hadeed (d. ۶۵۶) writes

Narrations about Saqifah are different and contradictory. But what Shias say and some" :traditionists have also narrated is as follows [Ali refused to give Bay'at till it was taken by force." [۱۶

As for Ali's refusal to Bay'at that resulted in horrible way he was pulled out is mentioned in [traditions and biographers have also recorded it.[۱۷

As for Jauhari's saying in this regard, we have already said: Jauhari is a man of tradition. He is trustworthy and of confidence. Many others (trusted and reliable people) have also .stated the incident

Most traditionists have narrated that after the happenings of Saqifah Ali endured great many atrocities as he was taken against his will to enter into Bay'at with Abu Bakr. He shouted in protest. He called for help. He lastly gestured to the Prophet's grave and said:

[Son of my mother! Surely the people reckoned me weak and had well-nigh slain me." [۱۸

:It is interesting that in spite of historical documents they still claim

Whatever happened among Muslims in the early days of Islam, particularly after passing away of Prophet between Ali and companions of Prophet, was friendly and cordial type of [dispute.”[۱۹

[Differences between companions of Prophet were internal differences but friendly...”[۲۰”

Further, it is more surprising that when contemporary historians come across these :historical documents they claim

These narrations are liable to suspicion and to more pondering. Some simple-minded people have launched these things in order to indicate that Imam Ali (a.s.) was victimized. On the other hand it is imaginable that Ali perhaps saw himself responsible towards those who were in the house. So he came out and went to Abu Bakr to avoid any danger to [them.[۲۱”! [۲۲

?Where did the efforts of Emigrants for taking forced Bay'at from Ali end

Document No. ۱

Ali bin Husain Masoodi (d. ۳۴۶) quotes a document about Ali extending his hand to Abu .Bakr

:He writes

They rushed to his house and attacked it and burned the door. They pulled him out by” .force

They crushed the sacred person of Zahra behind the door and she miscarried the unborn .child, Mohsin

.They took him (Ali) to give Bay'at but he refused

.They said: We shall kill you

.Ali said: If you kill me you would have killed a God's servant and His Prophet's brother

.They pulled his hand. His fist was closed. They tried to open his fist, but they could not

Document No. ۲

:Sayyid Abul Abbas Ahmad bin Ibrahim Hasani Zaidi (d. ۳۵۲) quotes a document as follows

.They told Ali (a.s.): Do Bay'at"

?Ali said: What if I don't

.They replied: We shall kill you – and then they pulled his hand

He closed his fingers tight and raised his head towards the sky, saying: O God! Be a !witness

[Then they touched his hand to Abu Bakr's?" [۲۴

Document No. ۳

Muhammad bin Masood Ayyashi (d. ۳۲۰) after narrating the attack on Zahra's house and
:pulling out of Ali for Bay'at of Abu Bakr [۲۵] and the threats to kill him, [۲۶] writes Abbas heard the news and he ran out shouting: Leave my nephew. I will take from him"

.Bay'at for you

Then Abbas came forward, took Ali's hand and put it over Abu Bakr's hand. Then they let [Ali (who was enraged) to go." [۲۷

On the basis of this narration, in order to save Amirul Momineen (a.s.) Abbas took the .hand of His Eminence (a.s.) and kept it on the hand of Abu Bakr

Document No. ۴

Allamah Majlisi (d. ۱۱۱۱) narrates similar to that which Tabarsi has mentioned in book [Ihtijaj]. [۲۸

.Then he said: Get up! O Ibne Abi Talib and do Bay'at"

?Ali) asked: What if I don't)

.Umar) said: If so by God, we shall kill you)

He (Ali) protested to them three times. Then he extended his hand while his fist was closed. Over his fist, Abu Bakr hit his hand. This was the Bay'at they could get from Ali but they were content at this much

:Before doing this Bay'at Ali shouted while the rope was round his neck

[Son of my mother! Surely the people reckoned me weak and had well-nigh slain me." [۲۹

:In another document, which is very much similar to the above, the text runs thus

Then he extended his hand without opening the fist. Abu Bakr hit over it by his hand."...

[Abu Bakr was content at that. Then (Ali) went home." [۳۰

Document No. ۵

:Sayyid Murtuza (d. ۴۳۶) writes

.Adi bin Hatim narrates: I was sitting with Abu Bakr when Ali was brought in"

.Abu Bakr told Ali to do Bay'at

?Ali replied: What if I don't

.Abu Bakr said to him: I will behead you

Then Ali lifted his head towards sky and said: O God! Be witness! Then he extended his [hand and gave Bay'at." [۳۱

Document No. ۶

:Shaykh Ahmad Tabarsi (۶th century) mentions a document as follows

Abu Bakr said to Qunfudh: If he (Ali) comes out, it is all right. If not, attack him. Again if he"
.refuses to give allegiance, burn the house with its occupants

Qunfudh set out with his associates as ordered, attacked the house without warning,
.entered it and put a black rope around Ali' neck

Then they took Ali to Abu Bakr. The black rope was around his neck. Umar was standing .with a naked sword. Around Abu Bakr were sitting with his companions holding swords

.Umar threatened him and said: Do Bay'at

?Ali answered: What if I didn't

.Umar answered: We shall kill you disrespectfully

Then Ali before doing Bay'at shouted:[٣٢] Son of my mother! Surely the people reckoned
.me weak and had well-nigh slain me

[Then he extended his hand and did Abu Bakr's Bay'at."][٣٣

Document No. ٧

:Tabari Imami (٤th century) writes

"A group was sent after Ali. They brought Ali with a rope around his neck"

.Then they told him to do Bay'at

?He asked: What if I don't

.They said: We shall kill you

.Ali said: Then you would have killed a servant of God and a brother of the Prophet

!They said: A servant of God, yes! But a brother of the Prophet, no

[The narrator says: On that day Ali returned without giving Bay'at."][٣٤

?How Sunnis narrate this event

Document No. ٨

[Ibne Qutaibah (d. ٢٧٤) writes under the title: Ali's denial to do Bay'at with Abu Bakr:[٣٥

Afterwards Ali was brought to Abu Bakr. He was saying: I am God's servant and brother"
.of Prophet of God. He was told: Do Bay'at with Abu Bakr

Ali said: Rather I deserve to take Bay'at. I won't do Bay'at with you. It is you that must do
.Bay'at to me

.Umar said: Unless you do Bay'at, you are not free

.Ali told Umar: By God, O Umar! I do not accept your word and nor would I give Bay'at

“Abu Bakr said to Ali: If you don't do Bay'at, I will not force you

:The writer says under the heading: How was the Bay'at of Ali with Abu Bakr

.They pulled out Ali and took him to Abu Bakr and said to him: Do Bay'at"

?Ali asked: What if I don't

.They said: By God, except Whom there is no god! We shall kill you

Abu Bakr was silent. He did not utter a word. Then Umar said Abu Bakr: Why don't you

?issue any orders to him

[Abu Bakr replied: I don't order him as long as Fatima is by his side." [۳۶

This historical document has an explanation. Fatima's house was attacked. It was set afire. Ali was pulled out by force against his will and inclination. He was taken to the mosque and threatened with death. Because of Zahra's presence in the mosque and her defense of Ali, he returned home without doing Bay'at with Abu Bakr.[۳۷] He even pretended to having done Bay'at to be free from the tyranny of the regime

In other words, according to a historical document, which is from a reliable source, acknowledged[۳۸] by Sunni sect, no hand shaking or ceremony of placing hand in the hand of Abu Bakr took place. Because of the presence of Prophet's daughter in the mosque, he (Ali) was set free

Conclusion of the Eight Documents

:Paying attention to

Ayyashi has also mentioned in the beginning of the document that we quoted from – ۱ him: The presence of Zahra in the mosque and the threat that she will curse the Caliph .and his supporters

Majlisi too before the document we related from him has referred to the above – ۲
 .(incident. It emphasizes that Ali was freed because of Hazrat Zahra (s.a

The text of the document in question reads as under: “Then she took his hand and set out
 [with him.”[۳۹

[Tabarsi has also referred to this in the document we have mentioned from him.[۴۰ – ۳

:So we conclude

There appears no contradiction between the narration of Ibne Qutaibah and other :historical documents. If reconciled with one another it leads us to conclude that

A) Abu Bakr saw Zahra entering the mosque. So he sufficed on that much military action[۴۱] against the Family of Prophet considering it a commitment on the part of Ali to .do Bay’at and to not take up arms against the system of Caliphate

B) The hand of Imam Ali (a.s.) reaches the hand of Abu Bakr while Ali’s hand was closed in a fist. It happens at a time when the attack over Zahra’s House was parallel to rushing out of Abbas, the uncle of the Prophet. As such, it is obvious that it took place against the wish
 .(and will of Imam Ali (a.s

C) The Imam Ali’s (a.s.) hand reaches the hand of Abu Bakr and Zahra too reaches the mosque. It happens simultaneously. It was a tyranny applied most wickedly on Ali. Then
 .Zahra threatened to curse the Caliph (Abu Bakr) and his supporters

Therefore Abu Bakr was content with that much and as a result of curse of Hazrat Zahra
 .((s.a.) freed His Eminence, Ali (a.s

D) Some audiences, particularly supporters of Abu Bakr, have narrated the event in a way that it reflects that Ali did Bay'at willingly without any force or pressure and that he willingly put his hand into the hand of Abu Bakr

E) Ibne Qutaibah refrains from narrating detailed facts such as attack on Zahra's house and exercising every possible atrocity and force against Ali to get his Bay'at. These events happened simultaneously with the advent of Zahra to mosque. He wants to exculpate Abu Bakr and pose him as innocent. He relates in such a way as if Abu Bakr waited for the arrival of Zahra to mosque to set Ali free. Further, he shows as if Abu Bakr was not pleased with the deeds of his colleagues

Remark

:In the end we remind

:Some Sunni historians have veiled the conduct of Caliph. They use mild words like [Abu Bakr did not want Ali to do Bay'at. He did not force him.] [۴۲] [۴۳] [۴۴]

Historical documents openly prove the attack, setting fire to the house, calling for firewood, pulling out of Ali and all the things with their minute details. [۴۵]

Final conclusion about attack on Zahra's house and efforts for taking Bay'at from Amirul Momineen Ali(a.s)

:Paying attention to

The strict and strong denial of Ali to do Bay'at is recorded in history and narrated by all – ۱ historians

This denial itself is a proof of Ali's dissatisfaction and invalidity of Caliphate. It rescinds – ۲ credibility of Abu Bakr's Caliphate

:Illegitimacy of Caliphate entails two consequences – ۳

A) Abu Bakr in spite of his incompetence had become a Caliph

B) The issue of Bay'at is also illegal and out of order

The pressure at such a level over Imam Ali (a.s.), then the atrocities and tyrannies – ۴ exercised against him themselves prove that the person from whom Bay'at was obtained by trick was not willing to pay it. Had he been willing he would not have had to face this .force and threats? All historical documents clearly establish this fact

:On the whole it can be said

:The story refusal of Ali to do Bay'at with Abu Bakr represents

.That he (Ali) regarded Abu Bakr's Caliphate illegitimate and invalid

Therefore Abu Bakr comes in a man incompetent for the office. Neither suitability .adjusted, nor competence concurred, nor the eligibility determined the office for him

On the other hand efforts of his associates of Caliphate in taking Bay'at from Amirul Momineen (a.s.) by force failed and thus the Bay'at of Abu Bakr had no validity because it .fails to fulfill the necessary conditions

:From this aspect, it can be said

To prove Bay'at of Abu Bakr is impossible. A show of it or a feigned Bay'at is in vain – "inefficacious and of no effect. In obtaining Bay'at, supporters of Abu Bakr applied force, threats and atrocities against Ali. The Bay'at was taken when the conditions were not .favorable. As such, the Bay'at loses its validity

On the basis of this the only thing that can be proved is that it was a forced Bay'at and
 .hence it was no Bay'at at all

Final Conclusion

The most important result that comes out of these historical documents is Ali's
 .displeasure with Abu Bakr's Caliphate and his denial to it

Ali's displeasure can be detected in his efforts to overthrow Abu Bakr's rule by means of an armed uprising. Further, his continued denial to do Bay'at is also another proof of his
 .unacceptance

.Abu Bakr's Caliphate was always shown by Ali as not rightful

In the same way by paying close attention to documents and sources that have recorded the attack on Fatima's house clearly proves that the atmosphere that reigned at the time of demanding Bay'at from His Eminence (a.s.) was laced with forceful actions, threats and .unwillingness

.So it is impossible to prove completion of Bay'at of Abu Bakr by this

:Therefore it is possible to conclude that

It is not possible to prove the completion of Bay'at of Abu Bakr and its mere pretension
 .has no effect

This writing was published with the support of Dr. Sayyid Ja'far Shahidi and Dr. Sadiq [۲۲] Ainawand. It is a good analysis yet short of scientific worth. In some way or other it is avoiding to acknowledge the ill treatment of Caliphs towards Ali. But the writer openly denies the tyrannical conduct against Imam Ali. On the contrary he paints a picture showing peaceful environment in which Ali's was invited to give Bayyat. In order to hide similar behavior towards Zahra, he writes thus

p: ۳۴

On the other hand the Caliph and his supporters could not behave with Zahra as they did against the opposition and stubbornness of Ali

We must ask the writer of this text: whether you accept the inimical conduct of Caliphs towards Ali that now it can be expected from you to acknowledge the tyrannies and ?atrocities committed towards Zahra

It were better had the writer benefited from the analysis of Ali's political stand in the book

Discourse Three Lack of Public Satisfaction from Abu Bakr's Caliphate

Historical Documents

:(Ibne Abil Hadeed Motazalli (d. ٤٥٤) narrates from Abu Bakr Jauhari (d. ٣٢٣

When the refusal of Ali to do Bay'at with Abu Bakr became a topic of public discussion" and Abu Bakr and Umar became harsher on Ali (a.s.) Umme Mossattah bin Athatha came out to the grave of the Prophet and recited the following verses

;Unpleasant, dreadful things have occurred

.Had you witnessed, little you would have uttered

,We miss you as the earth is of rain deprived

[See your Ummah in confusion, alas, if you had lived." [١]

Amirul Momineen (a.s.), in order to prove the lack of people's approval for Abu Bakr's Caliphate and their lack of satisfaction from that rule says as follows

If you have taken their (people's) affairs in hand on the basis of consultation, then how it" [is that the very consultants themselves are absent." [٢]

The norm of general popularity is that the approval of people should precede the takeover of affairs

But even though in Saqifah, only a few had accepted.[٣] the government was announced formally and took on legitimacy. After that others were forced to give Bay'at

When one is at power, to get Bay'at from people or any particular person becomes easier. The conditions of Bay'at are freedom, liberty and choice. If these elements are absent the Bay'at is worthless. Bay'at must be the right of masses – to accord. Bay'at is .not the right of rulership to be obtained from the people by force

The fundamental discussions regarding Saqifah are about identification of opponents of Abu Bakr. The most important result of it is that the claim of consensus disappears and loses its worth

Names of opponents are not recorded in history. Generally, names of reputed personalities are paid attention to. Prominent personalities come to mind. The common ones glide into oblivion. Those personalities have a following to whom opinion of their role models is acceptable

Some have been mentioned in groups. For instance, in the early stage Bani Hashim [refrained from Bay'at.]

In fact, Kinda tribe refused to pay the Zakat. They did so because they opposed Abu Bakr's becoming Caliph

So opponents of Abu Bakr's selection are many in number. A multitude of them cannot be mentioned here

Most opponents of Abu Bakr later were either killed or bribed or promised future gains, so their number diminished. They later did the required Bay'at. It needs a separate chapter to discuss this

[We could gather the names of following fifty opponents:...] [٥]

.After that he has listed these names in alphabetical order

Another look at Historical Documents about Public Allegiance to Abu Bakr

Document No. ١

In Sahih Bukhari, which is the most reliable source of Sunni sect, it is mentioned from Ayesha that people were threatened to give Bay'at to Abu Bakr

This document is most important testimony that establishes incredibility and worthlessness of peoples' Bay'at to Abu Bakr. When Bay'at is wrong and of no worth it overruns peoples' acceptance or their acknowledgment of Abu Bakr's Caliphate

:Ayesha narrated after narrating developments of Saqifah

[Umar had threatened the people.”][٤”

Document No. ٢

On authority of Abu Bakr Jauhari (d. ٣٢٣) Ibne Abil Hadeed (d. ٤٥٤) narrates: Umar behaved
:with those who had taken refuge in Fatima’s house as follows

Then he said: I swear by God in Whose hands lies my life that I will take you to perform” Bay’at. If not, I will burn this house over you. Then he pulled them out by ropes around [their necks. He dragged them by force until they gave Bay’at to Abu Bakr.”][٥

Document No. ٣

In the same way he writes about his (Umar’s) roughness and atrocities to strengthen Abu
:Bakr’s Caliphate

It was Umar who established Bay’at of Abu Bakr. He suppressed all those who opposed” Bay’at, he broke the sword of Zubair when Zubair pulled it out. He hit at the chest of Miqdad. He, in Saqifah plotted against Saad bin Ubadah and shouted: Kill Saad. May God kill Saad. He defeated Bani Habbab Mundhir. He threatened and pulled out those from
.Bani Hashim who had taken refuge in Zahra’s House

[And if there was not Umar, Abu Bakr’s rule would have never established.”][٦

Document No. ٤

On this matter, historical sources, proofs and documents are so numerous that Shaykh
:Mufeed (d. ٤١٣) writes

The incidents of forcing people to do Bay’at with Abu Bakr and taking them to Abu Bakr” against their will and pleasure are so numerous that this book would fall short of pages if [we were to mention all of them.”][٧

Document No. ٥

:For instance, Shaykh Ahmad Tabarsi (٩th century) narrates

Umar belted his waist tightly and started roaming the streets of Medina. He was shouting: Beware! Abu Bakr has been acknowledged as Caliph. So hurry up to do Bay'at with him

.People rushed and crowded at and in the mosque to do Bay'at with Abu Bakr

Umar knew that some remained in their houses to avoid Bay'at. He attacked them by [surprise and brought them by force to the mosque to give Bay'at.] [١٠]

His support was an armed gang, blacks and nomads from Bani Aslam tribe, who by the admission of Umar himself had a very important role in the success of Saqifah party

Document No. ٦

Tabari narrates that after their arrival in Medina they gathered in the streets in such large numbers that the streets were jammed and Umar said: When I saw Bani Aslam [tribe I became certain of victory.] [١١]

Document No. ٧

:Ibne Athir has mentioned in the book Kamil

Bani Aslam tribe arrived and its members did Bay'at. Then Abu Bakr became strong and [at that time people gave Bay'at to Abu Bakr.] [١٢]

Document No. ٨

More eloquent than these two is Shaykh Mufeed in the book of Jamal. His quotes from Abu Mikhnaf that: A group of nomad Arabs came to Medina to buy rations. People did not attend to them because on that day the Prophet of God had passed away

They also did Bay'at with the new Caliph and accepted his rulership. Then Umar called them and said

Whatever rations you need, will be given to you free provided you go into the lanes and streets of the town, gather the people and take them to Abu Bakr to do Bay'at with him.

.You are free to break head or nose of anyone who resists

The narrator says: I saw those rough Arabs all of a sudden tightening their waists and then without any warning they started hitting people with canes and forced them to do

[Bay'at].[١٣]

That is why afterwards many tried to justify these atrocities to exempt them from shame .of desert dwelling and being nomads

Ayesha by way of thanks for their beneficial service to her father fabricated a saying of Prophet in praise of these Arabs. But the falsehood of this tradition can well be [understood by the readers].[١٤]”[١٥]

Document No. ٩

:In the same way Masoodi says in Athbaat al-Wisaya, page ١١٤

Umar paid allegiance to Abu Bakr. That is he did by hitting by his hand over that of Abu” Bakr. Then the desert Arabs who were at that time in Medina did Bay'at with Abu Bakr. Then non-Muslims who were in Medina under protection of Muslims enjoying their hospitality and kind treatment and consideration also performed Bay'at to show their gratitude and to please them. They saw themselves indebted to Muslims for their favors. So they thought it was a proper time and befitting opportunity to return their thanks. After “.them others did Bay'at

Document No. ١٠

:Ibne Abil Hadeed (d. ٤٥٤) has also narrated from Baraa bin Azib that

p: ٤١

I saw Abu Bakr with Umar and Abu Ubadah and a group of Saqifah associates coming” forward. They had tied their waists tight. Whomever they came across, they beat up and [forced to give Bay’at to Abu Bakr. It did not matter to them whether he liked it or not.”[١٦

Document No. ١١

Zubair bin Bukkar in his book Mawafaqiaat has quoted from Sharh Nahjul Balagha of Ibne :Abil Hadeed, Vol. ٤ Pg. ٢٨٧ that

Abu Bakr became strong with the Bay’at of Bani Aslam. But it is not known when Bani” [Aslam turned their backs at him.”[١٧

More interesting is that ignoring all these historical testimonies regarding the attitude of :Amirul Momineen (a.s.) they still claim

[The reason of this Bay’at was to honor public opinion.”![١٨”

When the majority of people concentrate on someone else, it becomes necessary to” [preserve unity in society by Bay’at.”![١٩

:In the end, it is pointed out

The thought of selecting a Caliph through general consensus is like searching for causes” after something has already happened. It is creation of fanciful elements of history and not a justification applicable to the event that has already occurred. Sunni scholars also .do not claim thus. They do not think it is necessary for Imamate

Sometimes a social phenomena appears or takes to itself existence in a way or other, occasionally the base of monitoring movements is geared by a handful of conjectures. It is justified only for the sake of justification. But the very spirit that brought the .phenomena into being is ignored

Justification of the Caliph's rule by means of public opinion or its being a government of majority over minority is a formula that obviously serves the ground with regard to Caliphs. The issue of public opinion was never applied, nor ever occurred to them

In order to decorate Caliphate of Caliphs with an outer show of its being with the people or having had come from the people, some writers have tried to justify it. It exists only in the imaginations of those who justify Caliphs. Reality is something else. It is among those [causes that come into being after the happening of a thing.] [٢٠]

:Even though it is claimed [Imam Ali (a.s.) did Bay'at after a period to guard unity among Muslims.] [٢١]"

Discourse Four Efforts to prove the Bay'at was of free choice after Zahra's martyrdom

A suspicion

Sunni sources mention that Bay'at with Abu Bakr took place in a free atmosphere with a

:free choice. Ibne Abil Hadeed Motazalli (d. ۶۵۶) has this to say in this aspect

p: ۴۴

This is what a group of narrators say and reputed persons of prominence among them” too say. He (Ali) did not do Bay’at with Abu Bakr for six months. He remained in his house. [He did not do Bay’at until the death of Fatima. When she died he did Bay’at voluntarily.”[۱]

Cause of Zahra's wrath against Abu Bakr

Cause of Zahra's wrath against Abu Bakr

Readers by now must have become aware of the claim Sunni sources allege that Ali !!performed Bay’at with Abu Bakr by his own will and wish, after Zahra’s martyrdom

As if the only hindrance of his willing Bay’at was remaining alive of the daughter of the Prophet. And if there was delay in this for some months it was only because of this !!hindrance and there was no other reason

Such claims convey that Ali did not see any wrong in doing Bay’at in addition to his having recognized the legitimacy of Abu Bakr’s Caliphate. The handicap was the daughter of the .Prophet whom he revered and respected

Therefore as soon as she passed away he hurried over to Abu Bakr and paid allegiance to !!him

It is nothing but a clever ploy to gain legitimacy of the Caliphate of Abu Bakr and to cast doubts on the sacredness of the anger of Hazrat Zahra (s.a.) on Abu Bakr and make it as [insignificant as female emotion.[۲]

Analysis and criticism about allegation that Bay’at with Abu Bakr took place with his (Ali’s) :free choice becomes important

Because Sahih Bukhari[٣] and Muslim[٤] mention that it entailed wrath of Zahra against Abu Bakr

:In fact, the text runs thus

Likes of Muhammad bin Ismail Bukhari and Muslim bin Hajjaj Nishapuri have used words like: "So Fatima, daughter of Prophet of God, got enraged at Abu Bakr and left him [(deserted). She boycotted him till her death." [٥]

[and Fatima got angry at Abu Bakr. So she left him and did not talk to him till she died." [٦]

They have mentioned these points in their books. Indeed, it had been their efforts to invalidate or discredit these narrations. So they took to vague claims such as Bay'at
".willingly after the martyrdom Zahra

They have cast suspicion on anger of God in the person of Zahra – Siddiqa Tahera – on Abu Bakr and her most elevated station

First the allegation that Bay'at was by Ali's desire should undergo a thorough scrutiny then alone would it enable us to rely on narrations regarding anger and discontent of Zahra against Abu Bakr. Criticism is necessary to bring out the treasury of history where its gleam and glitter will dazzle and astonish the fact-finding sights and blind the [prejudiced eyes. [٧]

On the basis of this to establish the falsehood of claim that Bay'at was of free choice goes parallel to defend Zahra's anger against Abu Bakr. Exposing this matter will enable one to draw a line between wrong and right after the passing away of the Messenger of Allah (s.a.w.s.) especially regarding the discussion of Imamate and Caliphate

Motive of Sunnis in proving the occurrence of this Bay'at

With reference to suspicion surrounding the correctness of Bay'at of Imam Ali (a.s.) with Abu Bakr during the early stage of the usurpation of Ali's Caliphate, defenders of Caliph have preferred to pave the way for another Bay'at free from all these troubles which the first Bay'at carried. They thought this would be advantageous to wipe out stigmas of .shame, which the preceding events brought to them

:To get more familiar with the above refer to following sources

Ibne Hazm: Al-Fasl Fil Milal Wan Nihal, Vol. ٤, Pg. ٢٣٥

Ibne Athir: Al-Kamil Fit Tarikh, Vol. ٢, Pg. ١٠

Abil Fida: Al-Mukhtasar, Vol. ١, Pg. ١٤٥

Ibne Jauzi: Tadhkiratul Khawaas, Pgs. ٤٠-٤١

Ibne Athim Kufi: Al-Futuh, Pg. ٨

It is interesting that some have come under the influence of these writings of Sunni .Sources and they say

Some say that Ali never did Bay'at with Abu Bakr. This is against historical reality. Such" [sayings are outcome of bigotry which conceals historical facts." [٨

And more interesting is that other defenders of School of Caliphate allege that Imam Ali (a.s.) did Bay'at in the very early days of Abu Bakr's Caliphate, and he did it with all his .pleasure and willingness

Some have inserted thoughts, which are their own created lies between the lines of their :writings

Ibne Abde Rabb: Al-Iqd al-Fareed, Vol. ٤, Pg. ٢٤٧

Tabari: Tarikh al-Umam wal Mulook, Vol. ٣, Pg. ٢٠٧

Ibne Katheer: Al-Sirah al-Nabawia, Vol. ۴, Pg. ۴۹۵

Nuwairi: Nihayat al-Arab, Vol. ۴, Pg. ۳۷

It should be mentioned here that the allegation is in open contrast with all historical documents. Further, it clearly contradicts the view of Sunni scholars, which says that Ali [did not do Bay'at with Abu Bakr as long as Zahra was alive.]۹

?In how many ways Sunnis narrate this incident

:These narrations can be divided into three categories

(Type One) Issue of Murtad (apostasy Type Two) Issue of the letter of Ali Type Three) Special meeting of Ali with Abu Bakr

It must be mentioned that some have tried to establish legality of Abu Bakr's Caliphate by means of these very narrations, which to them serve as a foundation. They go on and :make claims like

After passing away of Prophet, Ali did not enter into Bay'at with Abu Bakr for a period." [Then afterwards he agreed and did Bay'at with Abu Bakr.]۱۰ Ali refrained from Bay'at for a short period. But his high moral and generous nature" [impelled him to agree to Bay'at.]۱۱

Ali and a group of elder companions of Prophet refrained from Bay'at with Caliph whom" they themselves had selected. But after a period they saw that their refusal to do Bay'at would result in undue repercussions in Islamic world. So later they paid allegiance. Secondly, they saw that one who had occupied the seat of Caliph is a man who would make every possible effort to strengthen Islam. This was the final aim and aspiration of [Ali from Caliphate. So he did Bay'at."]۱۲

Criticism of Three Standards in Narrations of Sunni Sources Concerning willing Bay'at

First standard: Scrutiny into allegation of becoming Murtad of some Arabs

:Balazari (d. ٢٧٩) writes

:When the issue of apostasy arose Uthman came to Ali and said”

Cousin, as long as you do not give Bay'at no one will go out to fight these enemies. And he “insisted on this so much that Ali came to Abu Bakr with Uthman and pledged allegiance

After Ali's Bay'at to Abu Bakr Muslims became glad. They prepared to fight the Murtads [and from every side people went to the battle.”! [١٣]

In view of the above document the issue of this Bay'at can be divided into three original
:pivots, which are as follows

.Apostasy of Arabs and its danger to Islam and Muslims – ١

The allegation of Uthman that no one was willing to join the campaign to crush the – ٢
.movement as long as Ali refrains from Bay'at

.A vast army set out to crush the apostates as a proof of completion of this Bay'at – ٣

Allegation of Sunni Sect concerning the Bay'at having had taken place because of Murtads cannot be considered reliable

A) Investigation on reliability of this narration

The real pivot of this Bay'at is Arabs becoming Murtad in the time of Abu Bakr's Caliphate.
.Now we must see whether there is any or a little truth in it and to what extent

Biographies in Sunni historical sources show a vast canvas of ‘Denial of Faith after accepting it’ (which in Arabic is Irtitaad – the noun of the Adjective Murtad) during Abu Bakr's Caliphate. This creates a probability of imminent danger that could change into a .terrible attack on Medina

Tabari from Saif and he from Sahl bin Yusuf narrates that: the various tribes of Thalaba bin Saad and other tribes who had associated with them under a pact like the tribe of Murra and Abas in a place called Abraaq, which was in the territory of Rabaza. Another group from Bani Kinana too had joined this confederation. They became a large multitude, which this location fell short to house them all

Being short of accommodation, they divided into two groups. One group remained in that same location, Abraaq. The second group moved to another location named Zilqissa. Tolaiha Asadi who had claimed himself to be a Prophet sent help and forces to his brother, Jibal, who was the chief there

Among these tribes, the tribes of Diyil and Laith and Madhij too were present. Auf, son of Falan bin Sanin, administered the Marra tribe in Abraaq. The leadership of the tribe of Thalaba and Abas was responsibility of Harith bin Falan. Harith was one of the folk of the tribe of Bani Saba

.So their number went on increasing and their multitude widened

These tribes delegated a number of their men to Medina as their representative. The representative of the Murtad groups that returned from Medina reported to their respective tribes the weakness and paucity of men in Medina. What they had witnessed in Medina they reported to their chiefs concerned. The weakness among Muslims, the little number of Muslims created greed in the minds of the chiefs of the various tribes gathered in Abraaq. Their strength and extraordinary manpower encouraged them to attack Muslims and they got ready for it

After three days, a large number Murtads started the most calculated attack on Medina [by night.] [١٤]

These events are related as a preliminary ground for the battle of Abraq. This is the first battle of Murtad by the soldiers of Abu Bakr. Historians have stated these events in various versions but the point of apostasy is same. The danger inherent in it is reflected in .the narration of Balazari

In the course of Tabari's narration of these developments and events, we come across preliminary events that preceded the Abraq battle. We give hereunder extract from
:Tabari

Abu Bakr got the intelligence of the attack designed by Murtads. He appointed Ali, Talha, ” [Zubair and Ibne Masood at the entrance points of Medina.] [١٥]

In view of this allegation the Bay'at (of Ali) was concluded in those early days, that is when the Murtads delegated their representatives to Medina and Abu Bakr became aware of .their plan

Therefore Abu Bakr was able to provide the people of Medina with necessary elements of defense. According to the claims he (Abu Bakr) made Ali the commander of the army
.stationed at the entrance point to Medina

There is a close link between the narration of Balazari about Bay'at and credibility of events related to the battle of Abraq. This link enhances credibility of Balazari and makes .the events believable

.In spite of this, the events are surrounded by surmise and suspicion

Investigation of correctness and occurrence of the Battle of Abraq and events following it

Allamah Askari in Volume Two of Abdullah bin Saba and other historical stories has dwelled much on the analysis of battles and victories during Abu Bakr's Caliphate. In his analysis he has exposed the fabrications and lies of Saif bin Umar

Regarding the reliability of report about Abraq battle and events ensued therefrom, which we have mentioned, he writes

:Through serious research it should be said with certainty"

Things narrated with so many details about Abraq battle and story of Zilqissa[١٦] – all are fabricated and created by Saif. No historian except Saif has narrated them. So it is nothing but a lie and imagination of Saif

Neither is true apostasy of most of these tribes whom Saif has accused of being Murtads. There was no gathering of Murtad in Abraq and Zilqissa. There is no basis of sending representatives of Murtad to Medina. Likewise, the choice of Abu Bakr has no base. There is no truth in it. Again, he posted soldiers at entry points of Medina. He sent army to fight them. All this is again wrong. Nothing of it is correct. The four battles[١٧] which Saif has [attributed to Abu Bakr are also without ground." [١٨

The following extracts from Rijal books sufficiently prove that Saif bin Umar was a liar

:Yahya bin Moin (d. ٢٣٣) says about him – ١"

.His sayings are weak and feeble

:Nasai, author of Sahih (d. ٣٠٣) says – ٢

Many have avoided him. They do not quote from him because of his not being honest or reliable

:Abu Dawood (d. ۲۷۵) says – ۳

!He is worthless. A great liar

:Ibne Abi Hatim (d. ۳۲۷) says – ۴

.They have ignored his narrations

(Ibne al-Sakan (d. ۳۵۳ – ۵

.He is weak

(Ibne Hibban (d. ۳۵۴ – ۶

He used to invent traditions and narrate them attributing to some reliable source. He is .accused of being an atheist. Saif is accused of creating false traditions

:Darqutni (d. ۳۸۵) says – ۷

.He is weak. His narrations are avoided

:Hakim (d. ۴۰۵) says – ۸

.His traditions are avoided because he is said to be an atheist

:Firozabadi (d. ۸۱۷) compiler of Qamoos says – ۹

.He is weak

:Ibne Hajar (d. ۸۲۵) says – ۱۰

.He is weak

:Suyuti (d. ۹۱۱) says – ۱۱

.He is very weak

:Safiuddin (d. ۹۲۳) says – ۱۲

[He is considered weak.] [۱۹

Result

Most narrations regarding Bay'at quoted by Sunni writers are from Saif. Similar is the issue of Murtad and battle of Abraq. Hence it loses credit and does not carry any historical .credibility

B) Analysis of proof of this narration

The issue of Bay'at is related to the issue of Murtad and battle of Abraq. Its correctness .too is related to the above

In Sunni books, like Tarikh Tabari, the issue of Murtad and story of attack of Medina by Murtads commences from the battle of Abraq and ends at Umme Zamal becoming a .Murtad

Continuation of scrutiny about authenticity of Abraq battle and events following it

According to Sunni sources, Murtads after their defeat in Abraq battle invited the Tai tribes to co-operate with them and another battle took place in Zilqissa at Buzakha. They confronted eleven divisions of Abu Bakr's army but were again defeated.

These people who were defeated for the second time gathered around a woman who had become Murtad. Her name was Umme Zamal. Again they posed danger to Islam. This movement too was crushed by forces of Caliph.

On the basis of this authenticity of Bay'at, narrator of which is Balazari, is related to authenticity of the four battles

.Battle of Abraq – ۱

.Campaign at Zilqissa and battle at Buzakha – ۲

.Apostasy of Tai tribe – ۳

.Apostasy of Umme Zamal – ۴

The interesting point is that some researchers consider all narrations relating to above events as fabricated. They give credibility only to developments that occurred at Zilqissa – and that too not totally. We quote some texts

Usamah along with his army returned to Medina from the battle of Syria. It was the time" Abu Bakr was preparing for confrontation with Murtad. With a group of Muslims he left Medina and reached Zilqissa, which is twelve miles from Medina on route to Najd. He camped here and his army also remained alert

Khalid bin Waleed was sent to Murtad tribes. Abu Bakr vested the command Ansaar to Thabit bin Qays and made Khalid commander-in-chief. Abu Bakr ordered Khalid to move towards Tolaiha and Oyinat bin Hisn who were stationed in the vicinity of Bani Asad tribe at a place called Buzakha

In the meantime Abu Bakr told Khalid: Good will shortly ensue from this meeting of yours with my army at Khaiber. Of course Abu Bakr's words were based on policy and were a trick. His idea was that the enemy would come to know; and this would create a dread in their hearts. It is concluded thus because Abu Bakr had already sent all his warriors with Khalid towards the enemy. There remained no one with Abu Bakr to be sent to the [support of Khalid either to Buzakha or Khaiber.]^[٢١]

Yaqubi too has mentioned in his history the incident in which Abu Bakr moved towards Zilqissa and appointment of Khalid as Commander. Yaqubi adds that the appointment of Thabit as leader of Ansaar was after Ansaar objected to Abu Bakr why he did not appoint [anyone of them as the commander.]^[٢٢]

When we compare the narrations of Saif regarding Abraq battle and story of Zilqissa" with narrations of other historians it obviously shows the imaginative mind of Saif. Because all other historians are unanimous in saying that Abu Bakr left Medina for battle only once. After the return of Usamah from Muta^[٢٣] he moved towards Zilqissa. There he provided a well-ordered army and vested Khalid with command of this army. He made Thabit chief of Ansaar under supervision of Khalid. Then Abu Bakr ordered them to move towards Buzakha to crush Tolaiha and those from tribes of Asad and Fuzara who had [gathered around him.]^[٢٤]

Other historians write regarding this that from groups living on outskirts of Medina only" two tribes rose against Islam. One was Asad, the tribe of Tolaiha himself and the other was Fuzara a branch of Ghatfan and Ghatfan itself was a sub tribe of Qays Eylan. Except [these two, no other tribe is seen aiding Tolaiha or fighting against Muslims.]^[٢٥]

In the army of Tolaiha there were a few persons from Asad tribe, which was his own” tribe and a few other from Fuzara tribe under the supervision of their chief Uyanna bin [Hisn.”[٢٩

Some historians again write that soldiers of Tolaiha assembled in Buzakha a populated” place of Asad tribe. Khalid bin Waleed came from Zilqissa with two thousand seven hundred men from Fuzara and confronted them. A severe battle took place between [them.”[٢٧

More interesting is the point that the issue of Bay’at of free choice is related to the issue :of apostasy of Tai tribe while the fact is that

Tai is the same tribe, which was not Tolaiha’s supporter, but they took the stand against” – Tolaiha. Whenever an army confronted Tolaiha, they too joined them against Tolaiha. They used to say: Abu Bakr must fight you so hard that you will name him Abul Fahal. [Besides, he (Khalid) sought help from them in the battle against Tolaiha.”[٢٨

:For the first time issue of Murtad was shown as a great danger

Usamah’s army had returned from Muta so Abu Bakr had no shortage from military – ١ .aspect

Therefore there was no need for him to demand Ali’s allegiance in order to call for .volunteers

Tolaiha and his associates were not in considerable number and the issue of apostasy – ٢ .was not so widespread that it needed a huge army to be crushed

As a matter of fact, the issue of Murtads was not a serious danger to threaten a town like .Medina that it should have required demanding Ali to give Bay’at to Abu Bakr

Result

The issue of Bay'at of free will of Imam Ali (a.s.) for the sake of crushing the revolt of Murtads is a thing added to historical documents. The propaganda disseminated on the wings of falsehood was so high that the issue of Murtads gained a ground

Another look at the case of Apostasy of Arabs

The researchers have acknowledged the Murtad Arabs were few in number. In his research into the history of battles against Murtad, Allamah Askari has concluded that it was not such a serious matter

The issue of apostasy was such that researchers have very simply passed by without pursuing it like Allamah Askari.[۲۹] So the lies written by Tabari in this respect remained unchallenged. But when historical records and documents mentioned in Sunni books are scrutinized it proves that

The vastness of Arabian Peninsula caused the historians to believe that apostasy was" also so widespread. While the limited number of inhabitants who accepted Islam during [Prophet's lifetime remained adherents of Islam." [۳۰

Most historians have exaggerated the matter. They imagined the length and breadth of" Arabian Peninsula and fancied that the issue of Murtads [۳۱] was also as widespread. So they wrote: The Arabs became Murtads – a superlative expression reflecting a wrong idea that all the population apostised while in fact it was not so. They exempted three towns: Medina, Mecca and Taif from being Murtad. But research shows a different picture. Many tribes were loyal to Islam and government at Medina. If was quite likely .they even helped the central government in crushing Murtads

Through historical testimonies and sources we shall prove that most of these tribes and ...people adhered to their faith in Islam and the exaggeration in this issue is uncalled for

There are many reports that indicate people's loyalty to Islam and their scorn of :apostasy. A few instances are as under

Most historians are unanimous that there was no apostasy in Mecca, Medina and – ١ Thaqif and they even came out to help in crushing the apostates of Asad, Zibyan and [Ghatfan.[٣٢

Loyalty of tribes living between Mecca, Medina and Taif like Muzina, Ghiffar, Johaina, .٢
[Balla and...to Islam.[٣٣

After the Prophet's passing away some of these tribes paid Zakat to Abu Bakr. The Caliph [sought their help in his coming battle of Ridda.[٣٤

There are indications that some individuals of Amir and Hawazin also remained loyal to Islam. As mentioned in the report of Fujaat that Amir and Hawazin used to support all the [Muslims of Sulaym tribe.[٣٥

A group among the tribe of Bani Kalb under leadership of Imrul Qays bin al-Asbagh and similarly a group from Bani al-Qain under leadership of Umar bin al-Hakam who was an [agent of the Prophet, remained Muslims until the last.[٣٦

Besides these there are many in Yemen such as Nakha, Jofi, Murad and Madhij who ...separated themselves from Aswad Ansi and protected themselves from apostasy

A large number of tribes from Bani Tameem also remained Muslims and they remained firm against the claim of prophethood of Sajjah. On the basis of this it can be said that among the Bani Tameem the number of those who remained Muslims was more than .those who had doubts about Islam or those who had apostised

Maqdasi has absolved many from Nakha'a and Kinda from being Murtads in addition to [Bahrain, Mecca and Medina.]۳۷

The fact is that to give such vastness to the issue of apostasy is a mistake. So the right thing is that some claimants of prophethood and their followers and some others who attacked the central government of Medina may be called apostates. Even the claimants of prophethood cannot be called apostates because they had not accepted Islam in the .first place that they could turn away from it

Perhaps the fact that apostates were scattered in a large area caused the historians to .believe that they were in such a large number

In Tarikh Ridda while listing apostate tribes the following are absolved from being Murtads: Abas, some from Ashja, Ghiffar, Juhaina, Muzina, Kaab, Thaqif, Tai, Huzail, people of Sarrah, Bajila, Khathama, Hawazin, Nasr, Jusham, Saad bin Bakr, Abdul Qays, [Doos, Shajeeb, Hamadan and Anba in Sanaa.]۳۸

the result is that the issue of apostasy was not so widespread in Arabian Peninsula as... historians have made it out to be and most of them remained Muslims and were loyal to [Islam.]۳۹

Conclusion

Conclusion

As you saw the magnitude of apostasy described by Waqidi and Tabari is not having any truth as shown in analysis of Allamah Askari. But researchers have not followed the line of
.Allamah Askari and thus apostasy remains in the same exaggerated condition

On the basis of this from every angle you look at the issue of apostasy you will conclude :that

.The apostasy of Arabs was neither so widespread nor such a serious danger to Islam Therefore its suppression has no connection with the Bay'at of Imam Ali (a.s.) to Abu [Bakr].[۴۰

Three main outcomes of scrutiny of the issue of Apostasy of Arabs

Conclusion ۱ – The scrutiny can be summed up in one sentence: The issue of apostasy of .Arabs was a fabricated case. Bay'at of Imam Ali (a.s.) had no bearing on it as Sunnis claim

Conclusion ۲ – Even if for the sake of argument we even accept the issue of apostasy of Arabs in the magnitude as is claimed, yet we do not see any Bay'at taking place. In narration of Balazari the words (so he gave Bay'at) are fabricated and a presumption of .narrator himself

Conclusion ۳ – Even if for the sake of argument we accept the narration of Balazari it does not exercise any influence on historical realities as the Bay'at itself was a forced one. It .was only a show

.In other words, the Bay'at which occurred as a show was basically invalid

On the margins of analysis of issue of apostasy of Arabs

If for the sake of argument we suppose that the matter of Bay'at is correct we must pursue the concealed motives and aims of Caliphate about the Bay'at and make a fresh [analysis of circumstances surrounding its occurrence].[۴۱

Because in this issue there is likelihood of preparation of background to a psychological
.war in Medina as Uthman's meetings with Ali shows

This idea arises because the name of Tai has crept in the case of Tolaiha and battle of Buzakha while according to historical records they were not apostates but among [supporters of Abu Bakr].[۴۲

Therefore there is probability that from the very base, the matter narrated by Tabari on the authority of Saif[۴۳] –was not a lie but the tribe of Tai demonstrated Irtitaad to the benefit and advantage of Abu Bakr. It can be said to be a pre-prepared game with mutual understanding. An emergency atmosphere is created in Medina. And they send .representatives to put awe in the people which evidently served to benefit the Caliph

Upon the martyrdom of Hazrat Zahra (s.a.) all the attention of the system of Caliphate [concentrated in subduing the opponents living outside Medina].[۴۴

In the meantime, that which was a source of anxiety to the Caliph was effort of Amirul Momineen (a.s.) to overthrow his regime. That also at a time when he wanted to send all .available troops out of Medina and his own departure from Medina to Zilqissa

Therefore they had to find a way that this time they had to without any ceremony and show off and also without any display of threats and enmity take assurance from Amirul .Momineen (a.s.) that he will assume silence and abstain from an armed uprising

.In these circumstances they initiated a systematic propaganda

.So first of all they spread the terror of attack of apostates on Medina

Then Uthman pressurized Ali to give Bay'at so that the regime can mobilize people for suppressing the apostates and that there was no other way to defend Islam and Muslim

Because of this propaganda it seemed that if Ali still refused allegiance it would at least tarnish his character in the view of people and put a question mark on his righteousness

From this aspect Bay'at to the Caliphs was under the pressure of public opinion and widespread propaganda of government machinery against His Eminence (a.s

:In the analysis of this issue Allamah Askari writes

The correct Bay'at is that which must be given at pleasure and with willingness, otherwise it is not Bay'at. It is only a handshake, or at the most a show of Bay'at

So Bay'at of Amirul Momineen (a.s.) after six months took place under pressure and for preservation of Islam. So in fact, it was a Bay'at without any willingness and just a show [and a handshake.”[۴۵

Last Reminder

More interesting is the point that some narrations regarding the issue of apostasy do not mention anything about the occurrence of Bay'at of Ali, they only repeat the matter of silence

These documents clearly prove that the phrase ‘so he did Bay'at’ in the narration of Balazari is an interpolation by the narrator and there is no truth in it

:(Tabari Imami (۹th century) narrates from Waqidi (d. ۲۰۷

When Arabs turned Murtad, Uthman came to Ali and said: O, cousin of Prophet! As long as you do not do Bay'at with Abu Bakr, no one goes to fight the enemy. You yourself are better aware of things. Your viewpoint is correct. But I fear this present issue could develop into a great trouble and might bring havoc to all of us

Uthman kept on insisting on Ali and his pleadings bore fruit. Finally he brought Ali to Abu
.Bakr

Muslims became happy with this development. From every side the horse riders came .out. People became desirous to fight. They got ready for the battle

His attitude that he will neither undertake a movement not an armed uprising alone acted as a deterrent. Because swords of mischief were pulled out and flames of havoc were leaping high. The lances were directed against Islam and Muslims. So he gave up demand [of restoration of his rights.[۴۶]”[۴۷]

Second standard: Scrutiny into narrations regarding the letter of Ali

Another document used to prove willing Bay’at is Imam’s letter to his companions. On the :basis of it they claim

Ali refrained from Bay’at for a certain period. The hypocrites started their activities. Then” the issue of Murtad arose. These two issues posed an eminent danger to Islam and [Muslims. Therefore for sake of Islam Ali did Bay’at with Abu Bakr at his free will.”! [۴۸]

A) A look at this letter

:The letter in Al-Imamah was-Siyasah is as follows – ۱

I withheld my hand even though I considered no one more deserving than myself for the” successorship of Prophet. So I remained patient on destiny till I saw a group departing .from Islam calling others to give up the religion of Muhammad and Ibrahim

So I feared that if I do not help Islam and Muslims the havoc will be far greater than that [of giving up succession to the Prophet. So I went to Abu Bakr and did Bay’at.”! [۴۹]

[In Ansaab al-Ashraaf the letter is referred to without its contents.] [٥٠ – ٢

:In Al-Gharaat the contents of this letter are – ٣

I withheld my hand even though I considered no one more deserving than myself for the” successorship of Prophet. So I remained patient on destiny till I saw a group departing .from Islam calling others to give up the religion of Muhammad and Ibrahim

So I feared that if I do not help Islam and Muslims the havoc will be far greater than that [of giving up succession to the Prophet. So I went to Abu Bakr and did Bay’at.”] [٥١

A – ١) Remark about Al-Gharaat

Although the writer of this book is Ibrahim bin Muhammad Thaqafi Kufi (d. ٢٨٣) an Imamiyah scholar but the first copy of Al-Gharaat has come down to us only through a [Sunni channel so we treat it as a Sunni source.] [٥٢

A – ٢) Common points in Narrations of Ibne Qutaibah and Thaqafi

A close attention to the above will bring to light two basic pivots common in both

Pivot A

People going Murtad in the period of occurrence of this Bay’at as proved from the words:
“I saw people returning from Islam

Pivot B

Going of Imam Ali (a.s.) to Abu Bakr and doing Bay’at with him as mentioned in the words:
“Then I went to Abu Bakr and did Bay’at

B) A glance at the incident mentioned in this letter

:Ibne Qutaibah writes about the reason of writing this letter – ١

Hujr bin Adi, Amr bin Hamaq and Abdullah bin Wahab Rasibi visited Ali to inquire Imam's” [opinion about Abu Bakr and Umar...”[٥٣

:Balazari writes – ٢

Hujr bin Adi Kindi, Amr bin Hamaq Khuzai, Habba bin Juwin Bajili Urani, Abdullah bin” [Wahab Hamadani and Ou bin Saba came to Ali...”[٥٤

:Thaqafi Kufi writes – ٣

Amr bin Hamaq, Hujr bin Adi, Habba Urani, Harith Awar and Abdullah bin Saba visited” [Ali...”[٥٥

B – ١) Outcome

As you must have noted in the documents of this letter appear some personalities such as Abdullah Ibne Wahab Rasabi Hamadani Sabayee. Balazari calls him Ibne Saba. Thaqafi calls him Abdullah bin Saba as one of the questioners, which is a point worth [contemplation.[٥٦

Abdullah bin Wahab Rasabi Hamadani was among the Khawarij and was the commander
.of Khawarij in the battle Nahrawan

Shia and Sunni, both sects, regard Abdullah bin Saba as a perverted and deviated person. According to research of Allamah Askari, he (Abdullah) is a creation of Saif bin Umar and .was a design to distort historical facts

On the other hand Tabari Imami, the elder,[٥٧] (٩th century) has mentioned this letter in his book, Al Mustarshid Fil Imamah[٥٨] from Shoba (Amir bin Saraheel Abu Umar Kufi) who [is only considered reliable by Sunni sect and the Shias have opposed him.[٥٩

C) Investigation of credibility of sources mentioned in this letter

As you must have noted the text of this letter is mentioned in two ancient sources: Al-
.Imamah was-Siyasah by Ibne Qutaibah Dinawari and Al-Gharaat by Thaqafi Kufi

Since only Thaqafi Kufi was of Shia faith and Ibne Qutaibah was a follower of the School of Caliphate his quotation in this particular case cannot be trusted

In the coming pages you will see that Ibne Qutaibah is very much inclined to represent Ali firstly, in good terms with Abu Bakr; and secondly to do Bay'at with him on his own willingness and desire

Therefore Ibne Qutaibah in quoting the matter about the willing Bay'at of Amirul Momineen (a.s.) to Abu Bakr blames the associates of the Caliph and therefore assumes an external position; so in this pursuit he has dared to confirm fabricated documents in [which the signs of fabrication and deviation are very much prominent].[۶۰

Therefore there is likelihood that the letter might have been distorted by Ibne Qutaibah and since he has quoted it regarding willing Bay'at it becomes unreliable

:As for Al-Gharaat the most genuine and reputed source of this letter it must be said

[This book Al-Gharaat has reached to us through Sunni sources only.[۶۱ – ۱

The writer of Al-Gharaat has written it in Isfahan. In those times in Isfahan – ۲

[lived staunch anti-Shia people. Most were opposed to Imam Ali (a.s.).[۶۲

Muhaddith Armavi in preface to this Al-Gharaat gives the reason why Thaqafi lived in Isfahan. According to him

Thaqafi was originally from Kufa, later he migrated to Isfahan because in Kufa he had”... written a book on the virtues of the Purified Ahle Bayt (a.s.) and the defects of their enemies which the people of Kufa admired and appreciated very much. But they advised him not to publish it as it was time to be in dissimulation. Thaqafi asked them of a place where Shias were less or it is far from Shias. They told him such a town was Isfahan. So Ibrahim swore that he would not publish the book but in Isfahan

So he migrated from Kufa to Isfahan and published the book which was against [dissimulation there.”[63

Hence there is very strong likelihood that the copy makers of Isfahan who were of the Sunni School mixed and interpolated the material of the book with their own prejudice against Ahle Bayt of Prophet

C – 1) Evidences that show deviation in Al-Gharaat

Evidence 1 – In the printed copy of Al-Gharaat we read the instructions of ablution in line with Sunni sect. the instructions direct to wash the face instead of passing of palm over [them. This is Sunni practice which contradicts Shia method.[64

Such interpolation is also found in the letter of Imam Ali (a.s.) addressed to Muhammad
.bin Abu Bakr in Egypt

The signs of interpolation in Evidence 1

Shaykh Mufeed has copied this letter in Amali. He has taken it from Al-Gharaat. Some :among its contents are like this [Then pass your palm over your head and feet.”[65

The interesting thing is that Ibne Al-Hadeed Motazalli has also not mentioned it in Sharh [Nahjul Balagha.[66

:Therefore it can be said

This interpolation was done by those who duplicated Al-Gharaat. It served their purpose
.(to insert their belief within the words of Imam Ali (a.s

Muhaddith Armavi has mentioned in the footnote in Al-Gharaat quoting from Muhaddith
:Noori

It is clearly known that contents of Al-Gharaat have been distorted by Sunnis; because” [they narrate from it.”[67

Evidence 2 – The printed copy of Al-Gharaat contains many virtues and superior qualities of Caliphs. While the irrefutable fact is that all qualities attributed to Caliphs are false on the basis of the attitude of Imam Ali (a.s.) in the six-persons Shura committee formed to appoint a Caliph. Abdur Rahman bin Auf laid a condition that the new Caliph must follow the path of Abu Bakr and Umar. The reply of Ali was so severe and harsh[۶۸] that it leaves .no room to doubt that the text concerning Caliphs is nothing but a fabrication

The fabrication that has taken place concerns two letters of Imam Ali (a.s.). One was addressed to Qays bin Saad bin Ubadah in Egypt and the other to his (Ali's) own companions.

Signs of forgery in Evidence ۲

Evidence ۲ – Letter One

:The text of this letter[۶۹] is as follows in Al-Gharaat

After the Prophet Muslims chose from among themselves two virtuous men as their Caliphs and leaders who acted on the book of God and administered the affairs in the best possible way. They did not go beyond the tradition of Prophet. Then God captured [their souls. May God have mercy on them.”! [۷۰

In this concern, Allamah Mirza Habeebullah Hashimi Khoei writes in his commentary of Nahjul Balagha

They could have been such as a show off to the people. Although it is also possible that [these interpolations were made by the opponents of Shias and inserted into the text.” [۷۱

:That which proves the veracity of Allamah Hashimi Khoei is that

What has come in the statements of Amirul Momineen (a.s.) is actually the people's view about the two Caliphs. There is another letter of Ali addressed to Huzaifa bin Yaman in the [town of Madayn. The letter reads as follows:[۷۲

After passing away of Prophet some Muslims raised two men to Caliphate. They were [pleased with the behavior and the conduct of those two.” [۷۳

The difference in the words of Ali is another proof of deviation in the text. The difference in the wording is clear comparing the printed copy of Al-Gharaat with the narration of Sayyid Ali Khan Madani

He (Sayyid Ali Khan Madani) has copied the letter in his book Al-Darjaat ar-Rafiya from Al-Gharaat. The text concerning Caliphs runs as follows

After the Prophet, Muslims brought among themselves two men into succession as their chiefs who acted in the best way till their death.”

The difference in the text with that of the printed copy of Al-Gharaat shows that Al-Gharaat gradually underwent deviations by several hands. There does not exist any copy which may tally with another. However little or trifle, but there is a deviation in each. One differs from another. This is an open proof of it not being original

Evidence ۲ – Letter Two

:This letter in Al-Gharaat reads thus Umar took over the charge of affairs. He administered the things in the best way. He had a blessed soul.”

Muhaddith Armavi writes in footnote of the text of this letter from Allamah Muhammad Baqir

It seems it was such in the eyes of the people. He has mentioned about Abu Bakr in the same manner. Of course dissimulation too is obvious in the speech. It is also quite likely that deviation should have taken place by opponents

Allamah Majlisi too writes that the contents of the letter reflect the view of the people about the Second Caliph. It is not that of Imam Ali (a.s.) himself. If cannot be. There is narration regarding the letter, which we refer to Tabari Imami, the elder (۴th century) is among those who have mentioned the contents of the second letter. In his book Al-Mustarshid fil Imamah the contents pertaining to the Second Caliph are

[And he (Umar) was among the people of good character and a blessed soul.”[۷۷”

Difference in the text with that of Al-Gharaat indicates deviation and shows hand-to-hand circulation of the copy

C – ۲) Results of the investigation of above evidences

As such, the copy of Al-Gharaat is short of credibility as that of Imamate and Siyasat regarding the Bay’at at a free will

D) A look towards inadvertency of Balazari to the contents of the letter of Ali

Once again, if we divert our attention to the reasons common between narrations of this letter (Point A-۲) and place it by the side of Balazari’s narration we will find that the narration of Balazari is in line with the contents of Imam Ali’s (a.s.) letter telling the same thing

In the contents of the letter inserted in the book Al-Mustarshid, difference is recorded. This makes complete the application of the letter with the narration of Balazari. The text in the book Al-Mustarshid reads thus

And I saw people not moving against them (the enemies of God) because of my isolation” [and non-participation.”[۷۸

:With reference to the above points following questions arise

Balazari himself is one of the narrators of Arabs turning Murtads and the Bay’at of () Imam Ali (a.s.) with Abu Bakr at his free will. He has refrained from mentioning the contents of the letter. He only mentions the primary ground that cause the writing of the [letter. Why?[۷۹

What justification could be there for Balazari for ignoring to mention the text of this () letter

The copy of the letter which was in possession of Balazari whether it did not indicate occurrence of such a Bay'at? All present copies of the letter mention that a Bay'at of Ali with Abu Bakr did take place at his own choice and willingness. This is quite in line with the religious inclinations of Balazari and his taste of writing history

Reply

The answer of these questions can be found in the narration of Muhammad bin Jurair bin Rustom Tabari (۴th century). In his narration, there is no mention of Bay'at. So such a letter does not meet any of the aims of Balazari

:The text of the letter according to Al-Mustarshid is as follows

I withheld my hand though I saw myself more deserving for the place of Muhammad among the people as one who denies his self

So I endured what God had desired. Then I saw among the people their return from Islam openly. They invited the people to give up God's religion and change the Ummah of Muhammad

So I feared that if I do not support Islam and sit idle I will have to see ruin and destruction therein. Its havoc upon me will be greater than losing Caliphate

And I saw people not inclined to fight the enemy of God because of my isolation and lack of participation

So I went to Abu Bakr and co-operated with him. Had I not done this, Islam would have [been destroyed.]

Reminder

p: ۷۱

The words of Imam Ali (a.s.): Had I not done this, Islam would have been destroyed .convey the meaning of ceasefire and that is all

Three prime results of scrutiny of Ali's letter

The false story of Arabs going Murtad, which Tabari has created and publicized to make it doubtless, is used as a tool to draw benefit from this letter. With the help of this letter, deviations are made according to their desire. Misunderstandings and advantages are .drawn to support the claims of Sunnis

It is important to note that we should not necessarily go to the Arabs Murtad when the subject matter happens to be any Murtad. Muhaddith Armavi writes in the footnote of Al-Gharaat in explanation of 'Return of the people' on the authority of Allamah Majlisi

It is likely that he should have meant the hypocrites who had gathered around Abu Bakr" and were always seeking an opportunity to create mischief or an element to provide [them with an excuse to become Murtad.]^[۸]

This idea is supported by Imam Ali's (a.s.) wordings. He refers to the time after the incident of Saqifah and the early Caliphate. A little attention is enough to reach to the said conclusion. Hypocrites are meant here not Murtads. It corresponds to the time when Ali .had not isolated himself. He was after an armed uprising to take his usurped right

It was exactly when Ali sensed the danger of people turning their back upon Islam. He felt the danger of Islam's annihilation. It is the same meaning in which Allamah Majlisi has said that the Imam assumed silence. And the words: "I saw ruin and destruction of Islam ".more terrible than losing authority over your affairs

:Therefore

So the Bay'at which is the theme of this letter on the ground of Arabs Murtad is fabricated.

Sunni historians have a very strong inclination to pose the Bay'at of free choice as linked to the issue of Murtad which is false and lacking veracity and this has led to interpolation in the letter to their advantage.

:The alterations were as follows

Supposition A) The words: "So I went to Abu Bakr and did Bay'at with him" are added in the original letter to so that it will support the false narrations of Ahle Sunnat in this matter.

Supposition B) The words: "I saw that as I had not given Bay'at people refrained from campaign, so I went to Abu Bakr" are added to the original letter so that people may begin to think on the lines of a Bay'at done willingly and accept the claims of historians like Balazari.

These additions in the contents can give three dimensions to the sense of "I co-operated with him." This phrase exists in the narration of Tabari Imami in a sense of 'ceasefire'. It was later changed to Bay'at. There are several possibilities in it.

The ups and downs of the letter do not carry any reference to incidents of Arabs becoming Murtad or Bay'at at free choice which is the subject of Sunni claim. It seems to be of the early days of usurpation of Caliphate from Ali. In those days, Ali went into isolation. Those days were very hard and difficult for Ali.

Result ۲

Supposing this letter was at the time of Murtad issue, the phrase: “I did Bay’at” is conjecture of the narrator^[۸۲] or it was added later

Result ۳

If we suppose the correctness of the whole text of this letter and the correctness of the phrase: “So I gave Bay’at to him”, the phrase of “So I feared that if I do not help Islam...” which is common^[۸۳] in all narrations, will makes it ‘a Bay’at for show, which is invalid’; still they claim

[His Eminence (a.s.) did Bay’at at his free will.”^[۸۴]

(.On the margin of scrutiny of the letter of Amirul Momineen (a.s

If we treat this letter in accordance with the narration of Balazari, the analysis previously done becomes applicable here too. As a result

The Bay’at mentioned in this letter is of show without reality. It is nothing more than a handshake, so it is devoid of any effect or reliability.^[۸۵]

In fact with reference to this letter the event that ensued should be named as “Show of Bay’at which is basically invalid

Narration No. ۱

It is mentioned in Tarikh Tabari^[۸۶] that a man told Zuhri: Is it not that Ali did not do Bay’at” with Abu Bakr until six months? Zuhri said: Not only Ali, but no one among Bani Hashim did Bay’at until Ali did. Because when Ali saw that people were not inclined to have him as their Caliph he was compelled to compromise with Abu Bakr. Therefore he sent a messenger to Abu Bakr and invited him to come for talks, but alone. Ali did not like Umar to accompany him. He knew the roughness of Umar and the extent of his impoliteness. Umar told Abu Bakr not to go alone but Abu Bakr replied: No, by God, I’ll go alone to him. What do you think they will do? Abu Bakr visited Ali all alone. He saw all the members of

Bani Hashim were around Ali. Ali got up; received Abu Bakr. First, he (Ali) thanked and praised god. Then said: O, Abu Bakr! Your virtues we do not deny, nor does it stand on way to do Bay'at with you. I do not envy with what God has directed to your side. But in our view in this affair we too have a share. You have laid hand over it. You have withheld it from us. After this, Ali recalled his relation and close link with the Prophet of God. Then Ali dealt in detail on things that relate him with the Prophet. Abu Bakr was so influenced that he wept. Ali became silent. Then Abu Bakr spoke after thanking and praising God: I swear by God, kinship with the Prophet of God is the dearest thing to me. I do not give preference to my own relations and kinship to that of Prophet of God. I again swear by God that the properties that are between you and me I have not laid possession thereon but for the sake of good and for benefit of all. I have heard from the Prophet of God: We do not leave anything for inheritance. What we leave is charity. The progeny of Muhammad too feeds thereon. I take refuge of God. I do not recall anything that the Prophet had done. I too shall do it. Then Imam Ali (a.s.) said: Our rendezvous is afternoon for Bay'at. Abu Bakr after finishing prayers faced the people and narrated the conversation between him and Ali. Then Ali got up. He spoke to the people about the greatness of Abu Bakr and his right. Then he went towards Abu Bakr and did Bay'at with .him

Then people gathered around Ali and appreciated him for what he had done. This [narration is quoted by Tabari on the authority of Ayesha.”! [٨٧

Narration No. ٢

Ibne Qutaibah Dinawari in his book, Al-Imamah was-Siyasah has given another version .of the special meeting of Amirul Momineen (a.s.) with Abu Bakr

Then Abu Bakr went to the Prophet’s mosque and faced the people then he excused Ali” .for not giving Bay’at to him

After that Ali got up and praised his station and extolled his greatness and precedence. After this he went to Abu Bakr and did the Bay’at. People approached Ali and said: You did a good thing. After the matter of Abu Bakr’s Bay’at ended he used to tell the people for ?three days: I left you free for my Bay’at. Is anyone you displeased with it

Ali stood up before the people and said: By God! We have not appointed you as our leader and chief. It is the Prophet of God who has preferred you over all of us so that our religion [remains safe. Now who could drag you behind for the sake of our world?”! [٨٨

Each points of this event is astonishing and indicates the falsehood of these two narrations

!A) Excuse for compromise with Abu Bakr

The Arabic word used means ‘made himself little’ or ‘vilified himself’. This means Ali .accepted to vilify himself to compromise with Abu Bakr

In the two books of Bukhari and Muslim the words are: ‘he implored to compromise with [Abu Bakr and do Bay’at.’ In a sense it is near to the above meaning.[٨٩

!B) Testimony to the superiority of Abu Bakr

The sentence: ‘It does not restrict us to do Bay’at with you, Abu Bakr nor is it a denial of your virtues.’ is a vain allegation in open contradiction with Sunni view of ‘Elected Caliphate

It is surprising why Abu Bakr in chaos of Saqifah while disputing with Ansaar did not refer to his virtues or superior qualities

!C) Caliphate was a bounty that God gave to Abu Bakr

It cannot be believed that Ali (a.s.) said: ‘Caliphate was a bounty God directed towards you [Abu Bakr].’[٩٠

!D) Accepting that inheritance of Prophet was Sadaqah

It is meant by the words: ‘I have heard from the Prophet of God: We do not leave anything for inheritance. What we leave is charity

!E) The Prophet preferred Abu Bakr to others

‘As mentioned in the statement: ‘...Who can detain you for the sake of our world

Deviated Consequences of Forged Narrations

Interpreting and replacing the divinely ordained Caliphate of Amirul Momineen (a.s.) – ١ with precedence and replacing the Imamate that is divinely ordained into that of Imamate by selection

Deviation in the meaning of rightfulness of Amirul Momineen (a.s.) and change in the – ٢ meaning of protests of His Eminence, Ali (a.s.) in this regard

Separation of position of Imamate from the position of Caliphate and separation of the – ٣ holders of these offices

.They not only believe but even persist on Caliphate being at the choice of people – ٤

A wrong interpretation of Ali's refraining from Bay'at with Abu Bakr and distortion in – ۵
.the analysis of his aims in not doing Bay'at with Abu Bakr

.Finally Ali's willingness to do Bay'at with Abu Bakr without any compulsion – ۶

no. ۳۳۰۴

.Giving legitimacy to Abu Bakr's Caliphate and bringing it out of the circle of usurpation – ۷

.Excusing Abu Bakr for his perversion from religious course – ۸

.Showing as though Islamic regulations were practiced in Abu Bakr's rule – ۹

Showing as though Abu Bakr had committed himself to follow the conduct of the – ۱۰ Prophet

Showing as though Ali had a belief in fitness of Abu Bakr to the office he had – ۱۱ [usurped.] [۹۱]

.Showing as though Ali participated in the administration of the government – ۱۲

.Showing as though Ali compensated the shortcomings of Abu Bakr – ۱۳

Showing as though there lasted good relations based on good terms with Ahle Bayt – ۱۴ (a.s.) of the Prophet from the side of Abu Bakr

Showing as though there lasted goodwill, peace, affection and friendship from the – ۱۵ side of Ali towards Abu Bakr

:Thus they say

Imam Ali (a.s.) had another point in his view. He feared the things would spoil and a chaos" might take place if the administration falls in incompetent hands. So he hesitated to do Bay'at for some period. He was very much concerned that no corruption creeps in religion or belief of people. But later Imam Ali (a.s.) saw Abu Bakr handled the matters prudently. He was particular to keep within bounds of religion and also particular to carry out the penalties, decrees and other religious commitments. This satisfied Ali. At this point, he did [not allow himself to prolong his hesitation. So he finally did Bay'at."! [۹۲]

Ali in spite of his position did Bay'at with Abu Bakr without any coercion. First he pointed out his mistakes then drew Abu Bakr's attention to failings in administration. He gave legitimacy to Abu Bakr's Caliphate. When all the loopholes were filled, he saw no reason to not enter into Bay'at with Abu Bakr. Later he co-operated with Abu Bakr in running the [government."! [93

This shows how elevated the position of Ali was. In fact, Ali occupied the highest rank. His position was greater than Caliphate. He invited Abu Bakr to his house. Abu Bakr repeatedly acknowledged the superiority of Ali and verbally and practically extolled the :greatness of Ali. Ali too frankly said

We are not rivals to you in your Caliphate. We do not envy you. Bay'at was withheld for” this reason that Imam Ali (a.s.) because of his position as Imam and a guardian should .have been consulted

But when Abu Bakr swore that he endears the link with the Prophet more than his own relatives and kinship and commits himself to follow the footsteps of Prophet, Ali said to [him: Tomorrow for Bay'at our rendezvous is the mosque."! [94

There is no crime greater than that there be accord between the Imam and Caliph but” [discord among the people."! [95

?What does history say

We need not go after a proof or testimony. The falsehoods are obvious and evident in both the narrations of Tabari and Ibne Qutaibah. We suffice only with the statement of .the Second Caliph to Ali and Abbas, the Prophet's uncle

It is a confession of Umar in the presence of Uthman, Abdur Rahman bin Auf, Zubair and .Saad bin Abi Waqqas.[۹۶] The falsehood of above narrations is proved at once

Document No. ۱

This document is recorded and mentioned in Sahih Muslim one of the most reputed and :reliable sources among Sunni sect. In this document Umar bin Khattab says

The Prophet passed away. Abu Bakr said: I am the (wali) successor[۹۷] of the Messenger” .of Allah (s.a.w.s.) in your leadership

You two (Abbas and Ali) came to demand your inheritance. You (Abbas) demanded .inheritance of your nephew and you (Ali) inheritance of your wife from her father

Then Abu Bakr said: The Messenger of Allah (s.a.w.s.) said: We are not inherited. What we .leave is charity

[But you accused him to be a liar, a sinner, a cheater and a betrayer.”[۹۸

Even if Imam Ali (a.s.) had accepted one of these things for Abu Bakr was it proper for him ?to praise him before the people

Document No. ۲

Indeed even if claims of Bukhari, Tabari and Ibne Qutaibah regarding the issue of Bay’at of free choice and the conversation of Ali with Abu Bakr and his words – all this were also true, why did Ali in the six-person committee openly reject the condition put forward by Ibne Auf that made it compulsory to follow the conduct of two Caliphs? Ali openly refused to follow the footsteps of Abu Bakr and Umar and put to question the legality of their

[Caliphate.[۹۹

Similarly, there are other historical documents that Imam Ali (a.s.) did not do Bay'at with :Abu Bakr after Zahra's martyrdom. Because as it is said

The term Bay'at carries a distinct sense in Islam. It makes some matters necessary for .one who enters into Bay'at

On the basis of this foresight of Umar bin Khattab and Amr Aas about the reactions of Amirul Momineen (a.s.) that it would be at least a ceasefire between His Eminence (a.s.) [and Abu Bakr and Amirul Momineen (a.s.) will only give up his dispute with Abu Bakr.[۱۰۰

:Abu Bakr says to Umar in consultation

I plan to send Ali to the battle against Kinda and Hadhramaut (in Yemen) as I am aware” of his courage, bravery and virtues. He is a man of Justice. So a majority of people would .be pleased with him

Umar agreed and confirmed the qualities, which Abu Bakr attributed to Ali but said: I am afraid Ali would not agree[۱۰۱] and if he refused no one would show any inclination to go [to war except by force.[۱۰۲

Therefore I suggest that Ali remains in Medina and the Caliph benefits from his .consultation while Akrama bin Abi Jahl can go to fight

Abu Bakr agreed to Umar's proposal.”[۱۰۳] “Ali did not go to fight their battles since neither he considered their Caliphate illegitimate not the Kinda people apostates but the Caliph [and his advisors feared in this matter and delegated Akrama to the battle.”[۱۰۴

Document No. ۴

Abu Bakr summoned Amr Aas and asked his opinion how to utilize the services of Ali in suppressing Tolaiha [Amr said: Ali will not obey your order.”[۱۰۵”

:In conclusion, it can be said

These two documents clearly indicate that Bay'at which took place was not at a free choice nor it was done willingly and nor it was in relation to Murtad Arabs otherwise Ali (a.s.) would have accepted the command of the Caliph's army and obeyed his orders

Final conclusion about Bay'at by choice as Sunnis claim

A) From all investigations in this regard it can be concluded that except for the attack on Zahra's house no other efforts were made by the Caliph to take allegiance from Ali (a.s.).
:Still with every leniency we can say

Ali performed something similar to Bay'at.[۱۰۶] This also he did to save Islam within a limited framework

:Imam Ali (a.s.) about his attitude says

People did Bay'at with Abu Bakr while (by Allah) I was more superior to him and deserving of it.[۱۰۷] So I too obeyed[۱۰۸] fearing the people would return to infidelity. Some would cut throat of some by sword. After Abu Bakr Bay'at was given to Umar [and he was made Caliph] while (by God) I was more deserving[۱۰۹] than he to it. But I feared people ([might become infidels.”([۱۱۰])([۱۱۱])

B) All narrations, which take root from various and several sources, are dubious and not certain. They are rife with signs of falsehood and deviation. In such a way that it can be said

p: ۸۱

The aim of spreading these narrations is to veil the shameful deeds and attack on Zahra's house to take Bay'at from His Eminence (a.s.) in the initial period of the usurped Caliphate of Abu Bakr

C) If we pay attention to the conditions under which Bay'at of Ali was, it would be clear that it was invalid from religious viewpoint

D) Analysis of events after passing away of Prophet rescinds the use of the word Bay'at even if it were concomitant with its conditions. The sense by terms of such 'silence' or 'not campaigning by sword' do not convey the meaning of Bay'at. Therefore it would be better to use them instead of Bay'at

E) In the analysis of events after the martyrdom of Hazrat Zahra (s.a.) – supposedly accepting the historical documents – it could only be called a Bay'at of show and hence invalid from the legal point of view

(Ibid. Vol. ۲, Pg. ۳۲; quoting from: Tarikh Tabari, Vol. ۱, Pgs. ۱۸۸۰-۱۸۸۵)

Then he continues. The followers of Tolaiha remained in Abraaq – Rabaza. The army (of Abu Bakr) chased them upto Zilqissa. Tolaiha sent a message to Gidila and Ghouse. They were two branches of Tai tribe and invited them to help him. Some at once marched

When Abu Bakr saw such developments, he was encouraged and moved towards the Section Two Influence of Deviation on Shia Belief of Imamate (Discourse One

:Ahle Sunnat believe that

.Imamate and Caliphate means rulership

:Ibne Khaldun writes about the Sunni view of Imamate and Caliphate

First Description

Imamate concerns common and general interests, which in their true sense relate to” Ummah. And the Ummah can choose or appoint any person as Imam. And that person becomes responsible to administer the general affairs and common interests of the [Ummah concerned.”! [۱]

Second Description

Caliphate is seating a person in place of the Prophet to protect religion and worldly” [affairs.”! [۲]

According to the first description, general and common interests of Ummah constitute the real meaning of Imamate and Caliphate. The second description embraces these two :elements by way of meaning

(A) Administration of religious affairs (guarding faith

(B) Administration of worldly affairs (policies of world

On the basis of descriptions that Sunni sect presents, it emerges to be administration of apparent rules of Islam in a society. Isfahani Ashari in his Sharh Tajreed describes :Imamate as follows

Succession of the Prophet by a person from the Ummah to establish the rules of” !“.religion

As a result: The meaning of Imamate and Caliphate among Sunni sect is only supervising
.the political and social affairs of Ummah

:Other testimonies that testify the above are Evidence ۱) The Sunni sect argues the need of Ummah to have a Caliph and Imam[۳] as

:says Taftazani

Ummah must have an Imam to keep faith alive and to keep the tradition (of the Prophet)”
[in practice. An Imam must attend to the oppressed and restore the rights of people.”! [۴

The Prophet has commanded to carry out the decrees of God, to protect the frontiers,” prepare the armies for holy war and several other things for guarding the system and supporting Islam (particularly the essence). All this cannot be achieved except by an [Imam.”! [۵

Evidence ۲) The Sunni sect has a list of duties and responsibilities incumbent on Imam and
:Caliph alike. They are as follows according to Baqilani

He (an Imam) must be in knowledge so as to qualify him to be a judge of Muslims. He” must be with a sight that could enable him to see into affairs of war and manage armies and concomitant things and could be able to protect frontiers and save Islam; save the Ummah. He must be daring enough to take revenge from tyrants and preserve the rights [of oppressed.”! [۶

According to this description Imamate and Caliphate in Sunni concept tantamount to :rulership. Ibne Taimmiyah comments

[Imamate and Caliphate is same as rulership or sultanate.”[۷][۸”

:Sunnis believe that

!Imamate and Caliphate is through selection

The Prophet has not appointed anyone as a Caliph or Imam, but left it to the choice of [people. Therefore anyone can be Imam or Caliph of Islam if he is chosen by people.[۹

It shows that in Sunni thought Imamate and Caliphate depends on choice of people and
.not divine appointment

:So Ibne Khaldun in his description of Imamate and Caliphate says

Imamate (= rulership) is among the general and common matters that is delegated to the” [Ummah, so anyone that the Ummah chooses will be Caliph and Imam.”[۱۰]

In the same way Shahrastani mentions the outlook of Abul Hasan Ashari about this Sunni
:belief

It is permissible that there should be Nass (Ayat or hadith) for a person that he is Imam,” [but if there is no Nass about that person[۱۱] the Ummah is free to have its own choice.”[۱۲]

Therefore the office of Imamate and Caliphate is a matter of choice not to be appointed
.by God. It is left to the Ummah

Conclusion

As you must have noted the meaning of Sunni concept of Imamate and Caliphate stands at the level of administration of social justice by means of judiciary and general security by means of executing Islamic punishment and guarding the country by means of providing an army. Furthermore, it is also expected to give expansion to Islam by means of conquering (foreign) territories or countries. All the above items are more or less of common interests of a Ummah in its worldly and religious affairs. In one word – all this is .called a government

On the other hand this government is a chosen one not an appointed body or institution.

[In Sunni belief,[۱۳] God has not fixed a particular person to head this institution.[۱۴]

Therefore according to Sunni outlook Imamate and Caliphate is a social position^[۱۵] and a popular rank.^[۱۶] Under the shadow of this selected or chosen government, the common interests of Ummah are looked after and provided. The needs of people are attended to.

[To gain power and authority is enough to form Caliphate.^[۱۷]

:Sunni Believe

!Obtaining Power and Dominance is Sufficient for Formation of Caliphate

In the trend of Sunni thought, the prime aim by framing Imamate and Caliphate is to lay hand upon common and general interests of the Ummah

In between this the choice of Ummah is a necessity to achieve the aim referred above.

The contagion of this thought has stricken even some among Shia youths. Well, if it is the choice of people^[۱۹] why the Ummah by all its individuals did not participate in selecting a Caliph?

If Caliphate comes into being by means of choice why the choice of each individual was not sought. In fact, committee of consultation and Bay'at is a means to give shape to Caliphate.

Their stressing on choice of people is only to form a government to serve popular needs. It is only to reach power and gain rule over society. It is the only ground for Sunni Sect by chosen Caliphate to achieve the aim, which is control over society and domination over it. And to give it legitimacy^[۲۰] they consider it sufficient^[۲۱] as Ibne Taimmiah has explained:

By Imamate and Caliphate, it is not necessary to go beyond the conditions of gaining control of society. The nature of Caliphate is included in a government

:Ibne Taimmiyah further comments

:Leaders of Sunni Sect have said"

Whoever gains power and control [۲۴] can gain the Guardianship to which obedience (becomes compulsory according to God's command."!) ([۲۵])([۲۶

From Sunni outlook one who possesses power and authority has a right to rule and run a government. Power is the base in Sunni thought for ground of Imamate and Caliphate. The belief of Sunni Sect is to attain power first to establish Caliphate. A Caliph must be obeyed from a Sunni view because he holds a government. In Sunni thought the whole process is made simple and easy. If one attains power and control over society by any means or method, the aim of Caliphate is achieved, which is security of popular interests

Then at this stage responsibility of choosing a Caliphate is relieved from individuals of society. Once a Caliph is made known, others have no responsibility in this regard

:Qadi Abdul Jabbar says

When those who tie and untie [۲۷] appoint one as Imam, the incumbency of choosing an" [Imam gets relieved from the people. The sufficiency [۲۸] is achieved."!] [۲۹

:Sunnis believe that

Caliphate is achieved through whatever means [۳۰] and methods it might have been

Installment of Imamate and Caliphate and achievement of its aim is based on principle of obtaining power and control over affairs of society. The means and methods here do not matter. That which matters is that one individual in the Ummah must attain power over society. If it is attained, it means a Caliphate is established; and through Caliphate a government is established. [۳۱] Such is in line with the Caliphs that existed in Sunni school

.It does not mean that all people must participate in choosing a Caliph

If one person or few persons performed the appointment of Caliph it is enough. It relieves responsibility from others. To establish a chosen government does not call for whole population to participate. As goes Caliphate so goes the government

:Juwaini has this to comment

Do know that consensus is not a condition in establishing Imamate and Caliphate.” Imamate will be established if there had not had been any consensus at all. So it became clear that consensus is not a condition to bring Caliphate into existence. Consensus has no bearing on Caliphate. Consensus has nothing to do with Caliphate. There is neither limit [nor specified number].[۳۲] Imamate comes into being only by those who tie and untie.”! [۳۳]

:Qadi Abdul Jabbar comments

If some among those who tie and untie choose one to be Imam, he becomes Imam. If no” one among Muslims does Bay’at with him, it does not affect him. He is the acknowledged [Imam because the people who tie and untie have chosen him to be Imam.”! [۳۴]

So this shows that in Sunni Sect even force and tyranny can be used as means to obtain .Caliphate

:Taftazani has this to say

Imamate can be achieved by several means. The third way is force and domination. So” when an Imam dies, another man having conditions of Imamate can become Imam without people doing Bay’at with him nor it is necessary that he should have been nominated by his predecessor. He can become Imam by means of force or taking the [initiative to occupy the seat. by this way he can even become a successor to Prophet.”! [۳۵]

:Abu Yali comments

One who gains upper hand over people by means of sword becomes a Caliph and is” called Ameer al-Momineen. Then it is not allowed to anyone who believes in God and Day [of Judgment to pass the night without acknowledging him as an Imam.”! [۳۶

:Sunnis believe that

!Imam and Caliph can be a Tyrant, a Sinner or Profligate

The preceding pages clearly show that the only condition required in a person to qualify him as a caliph is competency to administer affairs of the country. Competency is not a .thing that could not be applied on several persons at a time

Therefore according to above it does not become necessary that a Caliph must excel others in all qualities such as religious knowledge, common information, moral, conduct, .human virtues and superiority of behavior

It is not demanded for him to be the Caliph that he must be superior to all. He is an .administrator, a manager or a director and that’s all

Without superiority in him, he can secure the common interests, which are required of .him

:Qalqashandi says

Even if a man who gains power and domination on others is a sinner or ignorant; his” ([Imamate is achieved and established.”! ([۳۷])([۳۸

:Taftazani says

It is not necessary that an Imam must be a Hashimite or an infallible and superior to all.” An Imam when installed or chosen cannot be dismissed or removed because of his “!sinfulness

:Taftazani proceeds further and adds

[Caliphate is vested and assigned to him although he be ignorant or sinner.”[۳۹”

:Nawawi says

The Sunni Sect has unanimously agreed that a Caliph cannot be deposed from office due” [to his sins and profligacy.”[۴۰

:Baqilani says

An Imam cannot be dismissed because of his sins and oppression on people.[۴۱] And” [uprising and rebellion against him is not allowed.[۴۲]”[۴۳

:Sunnis believe that

!Imamate and Caliphate is a branch of Religion

In the system of Sunni thought the formation of government is the duty of Ummah. So all discussions concerning Imamate and Caliphate in a way relate to actions of adults and
.rules and regulations of their obligations

In other words according to outlook of Sunni Sect the subject of Imamate is among branches of jurisprudence. It supervises the actions of adults on whom apply religious .duties. Imamate and Caliphate has no bearing on belief of religion of Islam (۵۶۳)

:Eji says

Imamate and Caliphate is not a pillar of faith as Shias believe.[۴۴] It is not a principle of” [religion.[۴۵

This subject has nothing to do with religion. It is – in our view – a branch that concerns [actions of adults. To install an Imam is incumbent on Ummah.”[۴۶

:Taftazani says

The regulations of Imamate are in branches of religion. Imamate is not a principle. There”
.is no dispute about the suitability of this subject to constitute the branch of religion

On the whole this branch relates to the worldly interests and interests of religion. The .society cannot be administered without this branch

The aim of the Prophet was that these affairs be attained by general people and not by each individual.

It is obvious that Imamate is a practical side of commands. It is not matter of belief. It is in [our books of jurisprudence.]^[۴۷]

:Sunnis believe that

!Imamate and Caliphate are branches of no importance

The Sunni Sect does not regard the subject of Imamate and Caliphate among basic pillars of faith nor among principles of belief. They even do not provide a room to this subject among issues of jurisprudence. In short, they regard this subject as superfluous or of no importance.

:Abu Hamid Ghazzali says

Do know that it is not so important to research about Imamate or conduct a study into it."

[It is also not among intellectual sciences; it is among issues of jurisprudence.]^[۴۸]

:Saifuddin Amadi says

Know that it is not a religious principle to discuss about Imamate. It is excusable if there"

[be no way to refrain from discussion or no way to get rid of ignorance about it.]^[۴۹]^[۵۰]

From this aspect in the system of thoughts of Ahle Sunnat the legitimacy of Caliphate is [۹] based on selection of the Ummah and the one who is selected by the Ummah also becomes the divinely selected one

Ibne Khaldun: Muqaddimah, Pg. ۱۹۶ [۱۰]

[.This claim of Sunnis is opposed to the Shia belief in divine Imamate] [۱۱]

.The meaning of selection of Ummah is insistence on this claim only [۱۴]

.That is the post of Imamate is limited to rulership and administration of society [۱۵]

.That is the Almighty Allah does not specify the holders of these posts [۱۶]

According to Ahle Sunnat during the period of the Caliphs the explanation of Islamic [۱۷] law was on the Caliphs to some extent but it was not restricted to them only

It can be said that Sunni sect insists upon Ummah’s choice even to the extent of [۱۸] denying existence of Divine text (Nass) in this respect. Since Divine verse exists in case of Ali and which was read by the Prophet on the occasion of Ghadeer they are obliged to deny it or to take refuge in a misrepresentation of it

.Selected Caliphate means that which the Ummah is obliged to establish [۱۹]

From the point of view of Ahle Sunnat the right of rulership is for one who is capable of [۲۰] domination

Ibne Taimmiyah: Minhaj as-Sunnah, Vol. ۱, Pg. ۱۴۱ [۲۲]

Ahle Sunnat believe that the legitimacy of occurrence of Caliphate is obtained by [۲۳]

From the point of view of Ahle Sunnat the basic condition of Caliphate is that a person [۲۴]

Regarding ‘Those who tie and untie’ we should explain that there is no specific or [۲۷] are brokers of power. They perform the task of creating caliphs, (king-makers). They have influence in society and steer the course of thought in it. They have agents and subagents. They know how to elevate the desired one into public opinion and how to bring down one in public estimation. So they are called ‘who tie and untie’ which means they tie

Discourse Two Sunni–inclined interpretations of Imamate and Wilayat

Discourse Two Sunni–inclined interpretations of Imamate and Wilayat

:According to the belief of seekers of revision in Shia Faith

!Imamate and Wilayat is in the meaning of rulership

Those who are after revision in Shia beliefs[۱] are easily entrapped in deviated beliefs. It could be due to their inclination to discussions related to Islamic government. They are .prey of this perverted belief of chosen Caliphate

The first particularity of the system of ‘chosen Caliphate’ has enchanted[۲] these open-minded ones or seekers of revision in belief. They have fallen prey to consider the subject .of Imamate and Wilayat unimportant in relation to rulership

According to this all traditions, Quranic verses and signs related to the subject of Imamate and Wilayat have become an object of moral deviation and perversion, which is, .of course detrimental and very much harmful. It has a direct bearing on government

:Thus it is claimed

In the pristine faith of Islam the subject of Imamate concerns only government affairs”
[and administration of political and social affairs and issues of Ummah.”! [۳] [Imamate means leadership and to run the political affairs of Islamic Ummah.”! [۴]

[The executive of Islamic orders applies to Waliul Amr (possessor of affairs).”! [۵]

If an Islamic ruler carries out an Islamic order or commandment he is called Waliul” [Amr.”! [۶]

“!In Quran Waliul Amr is mentioned which gains meaning in the domain of government”

In Islamic literature, the word Imam is mentioned repeatedly. It is used in a sense of” [chief of government. His duties have been discussed repeatedly.”! [۷]

[The dispute between Shia and Sunni since centuries is on the issue of government.”! [۸]

:According to the belief of seekers of revision in Shia Faith

Wilayat and Imamate is rulership and an elected post

These advocates of revision in beliefs of Shia are strongly inclined that Ummah must be present in field of Islamic government, which is the second deviation of this group

:Thus it is claimed

Wilayat and rulership that is surrendered by people to an administrator if it carries” Islamic conditions, it will be a divine government and it will be called an Islamic [government as well as a popular one...”! [۹]

Their superficial understanding about elected Caliphate and elected nature of government is the real cause of their deviation

As said in preceding pages the theory of selection goes beyond the issue of Imamate and [Caliphate and becomes a common field without any divine sanction. [۱۰]

Choice is a deceptive word used only to avoid or overshadow its being a divine office. This term is utilized in the issue of Caliphate and Imamate to attract the attention of revision-seekers or the so-called modern open minded youths. Then it can be easily claimed

The choice of government after the Prophet does not lie in the hands of Prophet. But it” [lies in hands of people to choose whomever they like.” [۱۱]

[To choose or to select an Imam is only the right of Ummah.” [۱۲]

[Chief Executive of Muslims is a chosen one.” [۱۳]

To choose a Waliul Amr is a determined certainty of all Muslims which is” [unchangeable.” [۱۴]

The responsibility of installing the government of Quran is an obligation on all Muslims.”

[The ruler of Muslims is chosen from among the masses themselves.”[۱۵

[The issue of Caliphate, Imamate and appointment of a chief is in the hands of people.”[۱۶”

It is the people who give Wilayat to whoever they desire in an open environment of freedom. It is the people who give entity and reality to his rule. These are powers of the [masses which furnish reality to Wilayat and authority of Imam.”[۱۷

[Islam has vested rulership and authority to the masses themselves.”[۱۹”

:According to the belief of seekers of revision in Shia Faith

Only ways of installing Imamate and Wilayat (Rulership) are consultation and Bay’at

The view that consultation and Bay’at are correct ways has exercised great influence on minds of seekers of revision in Shia beliefs. To think so is a particularity of the system of
.the thought of ‘chosen Caliphate

In the preceding discussion, it was indicated that in the system of conjecture of ‘chosen Caliphate’ in reality consultation and Bay’at have a very narrow and tight domain. But the simple-minded people do not detect this and are easily dominated by false allegations
.and window-dressing, because there are several other ways to install a Caliphate

In other words, those who have laid the foundation of ‘chosen Caliphate’ do not treat Bay’at and consultation as the only way to establish Caliphate. Furthermore, they do not consider it necessary for each and every individual of Ummah to have a say in choosing the Caliph. The founders of chosen Caliphate have made the job for themselves easy. Since the beginning they were particular to clear the way and avoid setbacks and .hindrances

The close inclination to Bay'at and consultation has caused this group of revision-seekers to persist on this principle as the only way to establish Imamate and Wilayat. They want to purge the beliefs of founders of theory of chosen Caliphate, although it is an attraction to them. Yet they criticize the system of Sunni thought[۲۰] that why they go after other .ways and means and leave aside the way of consultation

:They have the following claim

The Sunni Sect has gone against Divine commands and traditions of the Prophet with regard to Caliphate and Caliph. They do not follow the conditions which exist in own books including the reputed Sahih Bukhari and Sahih of Muslim. The qualities of Caliph are [stated therein. But in practice they did not exercise these conditions.”[۲۱]

If they refer to their own books and traditions, they could see what is required in the” [personality of the Caliph. But the thing is they have overlooked these facts.”[۲۲]

Almost all Islamic sects have gone astray with regard to issue of Caliphate. The Quranic” verse of Ulil Amr was forgotten from the first day. It was rightful to have these two verses of Ulil Amr as touchstones after the Prophet’s passing away. Each one of companions was an object of this verse and was suitable to be a Caliph. Such a practice would have lasted [until the Days of Judgment. Caliphate would have been a Quranic one.”[۲۳]

Rulership of Muslims is selection according to the command of Quran! One whose qualities are specified by Quran...Muslims must choose as their Executive since it is .enjoined by Quran

So since the era of Muawiyah upto now all leaders of Islam were chosen against Quranic [standards.”[۲۴

It is misunderstanding the meaning of chosen Caliphate that impelled revision-seekers to purge the beliefs of Sunni outlook on this issue. And they limited their criticism to Sunnis .only to this subject

While what they criticize is coherent with the thought of chosen Caliphate. Contrary to their imagination, the Sunni Sect is not lacking anything in the issue of Imamate and .Caliphate. They do their job without Bay’at and consultation

:On the whole, it can be said

Wrong conclusions about conjecture of chosen Caliphate have resulted in a belief that there is no way other than Bay’at and consultation to appoint a Caliph. Therefore they :say

The real issue of Caliphate according to traditions and Quran is based on consultation” [and choice.”[۲۵

[The matter of rulership in Islam is through consultation and selection.”[۲۶”

While the system of Imamate and Caliphate (rulership) is so designed that no criticism .applies thereon because the thought in Sunni conjecture is based on choice

The revision-seekers regard Bay’at and consultation as the only way to fix Imamate and .Wilayat. They emphasize on it too much

This group in the end justifies all other ways of forming Caliphate (rulership) and they :further say

Domination over masses by means of force or succession or Bay’at by only a few people” is not ground of governorship. If it does not secure the satisfaction of all, it would be short [of validity. If it is supported by agreement of all it is a valid choice.”[۲۷

:According to the belief of seekers of revision in Shia Faith

Consultation and Bay'at is source of legitimacy of Imamate and Wilayat Misunderstanding of this group regarding view of chosen Caliphate is the cause for considering Bay'at and consultation to be the only ways to form Caliphate and Islamic government. But they have gone even farther. They think that Bay'at and consultation is .the means to give legitimacy to the chosen Caliphate

:Thus it is said

Discussion is how to establish the system of Wilayat and Imamate. It would not attain" [popularity through means of Bay'at and consultation." [۲۸

A head of government must be chosen through consultation and public opinion. The Holy" Quran refers to this as a legitimate way. It further lays stress on the necessity of its [practice in absence of the Prophet." [۲۹

The principle of consultation in Islam is an absolute principle. If the government happens" [to lack this principle, it will not be legitimate." [۳۰

If people choose a man of their choice by consultation with Imam or a guardian to" [administer affairs of Islamic government it will please God." [۳۱ Bay'at is a right of leader on the masses. This gives legitimacy to government. A" governor or a ruler has no command on the people and people too have no obligation to [obey him." [۳۲

As long as people have not done Bay'at with him they are not obliged to obey him. But as" soon as they do Bay'at with him his rule becomes legitimate and obedience becomes a [religious duty on them." [۳۳ Rightfulness of Islamic government comes to light when the people have entered into” [Bay’at with it.”][۳۴

All this is borrowed from belief of Sunni Sect about the issue of Imamate of selection. As a matter of fact, the chosen Caliphate on the basis of Bay’at and consultation has quite a different dimension with Sunnis. But revision-seekers are unaware of it

:To explain further

Founders of ‘chosen Caliphate’ believe in its substitute or transferring it to another. This is against Quranic verse and Divine appointment as is the belief of Shia Imamiyah Sect.
:Sunni belief is briefed in this

God has allotted a right to people to choose an Imam for themselves to administer their .affairs and govern the society

To prove their belief that God has sanctioned them to choose an Imam they follow several ways. One of the important ways is Bay’at and consultation. According to them it .has an important place in Islam

In other words, founders of chosen Caliphate believe its legitimacy lies in substitution of authority. Therefore they lay much stress on consultation and Bay’at because they think
.it a correct one

Therefore these two elements, consultation and Bay’at are to them one of several ways to appoint Caliphate. They bring it forward as the origin of legitimacy. This is the only
.proof with them towards correctness of theory of transferring the authority

In other words they regard consultation and Bay’at as the only important sign, which gives them the right of choosing a Caliph for the Ummah. They think this is the route through which they can obtain legitimacy for Caliphate. Caliphate to them is not a divine appointment. After all this dispute and argument, they do not bind themselves to any :particular method because they think they have established legitimacy to it. They argue

The nature and characteristic of system of chosen Imamate and Caliphate lose”
.importance of its means when the government is established

Revision-seekers think consultation and Bay’at to be the only means to frame Imamate
.and Wilayat

The above perverted outlook is a reason why revision-seekers exert their efforts to find ways and means to carry out Bay’at and consultation towards establishment of government. To set aside the difficulties and setbacks that hinder execution of this design
.they should borrow the services of those who tie and untie as is the system in Sunni Sect

It is neither practicable nor possible for each individual of the Ummah to participate in choosing an Imam. The revision-seekers cannot conceal every age and every occasion in .history

:The situation of some endeavors is as follows

The first stage

It is natural that all individuals can participate directly in the first stage and choose a ruler” for their society, which is most necessary and important. Or to seek their opinion
.individually too is not possible

What is possible and practicable is that a few among the Ummah choose a person.
Masses too agree with the choice. Then the masses do Bay’at with him. So a government [is formed.”! [۳۵

Between consultation and Bay’at, there is a difference in meaning. Imam and” administrator of Islamic society must be a reputed person in addition to his being popular and most popular among majority of people. Bay’at does not mean that all people know [the candidate. Consultation has a direct bearing on those who distinguish the people.” [۳۶

In the system of consultation the experts, the scholars and persons in charge, who themselves are representatives and confederates of people; choose a man having ability and competency for the job. They select him for Guardianship (Wilayat Amr) of society. Then the masses (in case of acceptance) do Bay'at with him. This is the same system of majority. This system through two stages provides popularity and legitimacy to the [Islamic government.]! [۳۷]

The second stage

Some have stressed that those who tie and untie should fix a head of the government of Muslims. This right does not apply to all Muslims. Here this much could be debated. First, if the body of those who tie and untie is chosen by Muslims masses then all people share in political matters. The only difference is that the ruler is appointed in two stages instead of one.

Secondly, the appointment of the ruler by those who tie and untie is an ephemeral job not a permanent one. As there is no way for presence of masses to choose a ruler the persons who tie and untie should give importance to this job. This is applied only when it is [not possible to collect popular opinion.]! [۳۸]

Perverted Repercussions of this Conjecture on the subject of Alawi Government

First wrong result

The sense of Bay'at is changed into a vote of confidence and legitimacy to one with whom Bay'at is done

:Thus it is said

Bay'at is in the sense of opinion of trust, selection and formalization of someone as a [leader to whom Bay'at has been given.]! [۳۹]

:It can be said

Such a sense originated from a wrong outlook that Bay'at is the source of legitimacy and .legality of Imamate and Wilayat

:As a result

The text of Quran and Bay'at become parallel to each other. They become two pillars of (.equal worth and importance. Both have a part in exercising the right of Imam Ali (a.s

:So they say

[One chosen by people has a right to govern them." [۴۰]

Second wrong result

When Bay'at is changed to a vote of confidence and a choosing right, and becomes equal to Verse of Quran in forming a right to frame the Alawi government, the sense of the verse of Ghadeer too is changed from Divine support to that of priority of Ali towards .forming a government

:As a result

In addition to this Imamate is set outside the boundary of Divine appointment. It becomes a sort of a chosen post. Imam Ali (a.s.) too becomes the most befitting person
:whom God chooses to this job. They also say

Although after passing away of Prophet, Muslims had the right to frame a consulting" committee to appoint a Caliph but it was better to act on the will of the Prophet also about the consulting committee. Was Shura formed according to God's command more befitting and suitable than the Prophet? The will is a finishing touch to the consulting body and the [completing element to it." [۴۱]

When the Prophet has cleared a matter or recommended a thing the job of consulting" body becomes simple and easy. The Prophet had wanted to lay the religion on a foundation that it could exist and last to the last day of the world. So the Prophet introduced to Muslims a man most prefect, most brave, most knowledgeable and consummate one in every tribute and in each aspect. He was Ali. The Prophet presented him to the Ummah as a model to be his successor. The Prophet even reminded to Ummah .a few of Ali's virtues and qualities

Finally, at Ghadeer he finished the job. He raised Ali on his hands and declared him as the [Imam and Caliph and his successor after him.] [۴۲]

Third wrong result

When Bay'at changes to the meaning of a vote of confidence and goes parallel to the Holy text of Quran and helps in creating a right to govern in Alawi manner, the sense of legitimacy also gets changed. It becomes the eligibility of a ruler which rests with the [people to decide.] [۴۳]

:So it is said

A leader or ruler in Islam should have legitimacy as well as acceptance. His legitimacy is" [judged on the standards of a serious school.] [۴۴]

Caliphate is a common right of all. It should be vested on the basis of consultation to a" [competent person.] [۴۵]

God's and Islam's command is to choose a more suitable man for Imamate, Wilayat and" government. People must choose as a leader one who is more suitable than all and has [moral values.] [۴۶]

Reminder

Explaining the position of Bay'at in the system of divinely appointed Imamate Bay'at neither has a religious aspect nor worth in the matter of Wilayat, obedience and" holy war. It cannot be a source of legitimacy. According to this theory, the value of Bay'at goes as far as to oblige a Bay'at doer to obey the ruler whose Guardianship is laid upon .Muslims. The obedience too goes as far as Divine commands go, and no further

According to this theory Bay'at does not constitute any superiority or Guardianship of .others. According to my belief, this is the highest angle of jurisprudence in this respect

The Prophet enjoined the people at four stations to do Bay'at with him. First at Aqaba One, then Aqaba Two, third at the Bay'at of Rizwan and fourth on Ghadeer Day

The first Bay'at was an invitation. The second and the last one for his governorship and successorship and the third for holy war. According to this, three kinds of Bayyats took place in the time of the Prophet. In these Bayyats, there is no jurisprudential decree to make it incumbent. But reason makes it incumbent to pay allegiance because it is demanded by the Prophet

.Obedience to Prophet is incumbent in peace and war. It is a religious duty

The issue of Bay'at in Imamate and Wilayat has no jurisprudence value. It does not give legitimacy. It is only a connection and link between Ummah and its leader. It strengthens [ties between the two.]^[۴۷]
