قال الله تعالى:

(إِنَّمَا يُرِيدُ اللَّهُ لِيُذْهِبَ عَنْكُمُ الرِّجْسَ أَهْلَ الْبَيْتِ وَيُطَهِّرَكُمْ تَطْهِيرًا)

Indeed Allah desires to repel all impurity from you, O People of the Household, and (purify you with a thorough purification. (Sūrat al-Aḥzāb ٣٣:٣٣)

Prophetic traditions mentioned in both in Sunnī and Shī‘ah authoritative reference books of ḥadīth and tafsīr (exegesis of the Qur’an) have confirmed that this holy verse was revealed to exclusively refer to the People of the Cloak [ahl al-kisā’], viz. Muḥammad, ‘Alī, Fāṭimah, al-Ḥasan, and al-Ḥusayn (‘a) as the Ahl al-Bayt (People of the Household).

p: ۱۲

At the outset, it seems necessary to explain the meaning of the title of this book, i.e. The General System of the Virtuous Community. In order to bring to fruition the goals to which we have referred in the first book of this series, we must mention that the Holy Imams of the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) took much interest in setting forth a set of practical systems and guidelines, both general and detailed, fixed and dynamic, which were aimed to achieve the following purposes

.Maintain the character, identity, and unity of the virtuous community (١)

Enable this community to meet its requirements and carry out its duties and responsibilities (٢)

.Regulate its various internal and external relations (٣)

.Guide this community towards growth and perfection (٤)

.Protect it from internal and external dangers, suppression and aggression (٥)

:In this respect the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) undertook two steps

First: They set forth a general conception of the system of the virtuous community, which consists of the following aspects

The general framework of the system of the virtuous community along with the (١)
.general responsibilities and duties necessary to meet the needs of the community

.The identity, role and features of the virtuous community (٢)

The nature of relations between the religiously commissioned leader (i.e. Imam) (٣) and the individuals of the virtuous community, the nature of internal relations within .the community and external relations with other communities

The groundwork and fixed political and social guidelines that the virtuous (٤)
.community must abide by in its movement towards perfection

.econd: They presented detailed rules and principles in various fields

In this section, we will thrash out the first step along with its aforementioned four aspects within seven chapters. The second step will be discussed in future volumes of .this series

From the beginning, the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) understood that this general system must be capable of functioning within an Islamic system of government in the Muslim .community in general, adjusting to the common surroundings

The structure of the system is based on the concept of Imamate in which the individuals of this community believe. This conception entails that the overall guardianship and leadership of Muslims must be held by one of the Twelve Imams from the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) after the Holy Prophet (s).<sup>(1)</sup> It also entails that Imamate is an extension of the mission of the Prophets and Messengers. This extension can be represented in the following points of similarity between prophethood and Imamate

The positions of prophethood and Imamate are both (1)

The Twelve Imams from the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) are namely: 1) ‘Ali ibn Abi-Talib 2) – 3) hasan ibn ‘Ali 4) husayn ibn ‘Ali—(2) and (3) are the grandsons of the Holy Prophet (s) and sons of Imam ‘Ali (‘a) 4) ‘Ali ibn al-husayn Zayn al-‘Abidin 5) Muhammad ibn ‘Ali al-Baqir 6) Ja‘far ibn Muhammad al-Sadiq 7) Musa ibn Ja‘far al-Kazim 8) ‘Ali ibn Musa al-Riza 9) Muhammad ibn ‘Ali al-Jawad 10) ‘Ali ibn Muhammad al-Hadi 11) hasan ibn ‘Ali al-‘Askari 12) Muhammad Mahdi, (the rightly-guided) son of hasan, the hujjah (Proof of Allah), namesake of the Holy Prophet (s)—his grandfather—as foretold by the Prophet (s) himself. I have discussed the concept of Imamate, along with explanation of this concept, necessity for Imamate and related proof in the first book of this series under the title ‘Imamate.’ Similarly, many Imamiyyah scholars have dealt with this topic in detail in many books, citing numerous proofs on its accuracy identified to be divinely ordained offices that are prescribed through direct designation by Almighty Allah, like in the case of the Prophets and Messengers, or through indirect designation, such as the case of the Holy Imams and other prophets' successors. For instance, the Holy Prophet (s), by the command of Almighty Allah, designated Imam `Ali to be the next Imam (i.e. leader). The other Holy Imams (a) .were specified in the same way by the preceding Imam

The particularities and qualifications of the person designated as Prophet or Imam (۲) are the same. Both are, as a stipulation, required to have the highest degree of .(perfection, which is called infallibility ( `ismah

Both a Prophet and an Imam undertake the same responsibilities, duties, and (۳) rights towards the masses and have the same rights, the observance of which is obligatory upon the masses. Like a Prophet, an Imam must be obeyed by the public, enjoy general authority over them, be regarded as having a greater claim over the believers than they have on themselves, undertake the mission of conveying the divine message, edify, educate, teach the public the Book and Wisdom, tend to their :affairs, and live at the same level as them. In this respect, the Holy Qur'an states

هُوَ الَّذِي بَعَثَ فِي الْأُمِّيِّينَ رَسُولًا مِنْهُمْ يَتْلُو عَلَيْهِمْ آيَاتِهِ وَيُزَكِّيهِمْ وَيُعَلِّمُهُمُ الْكِتَابَ وَالْحِكْمَةَ وَإِنْ كَانُوا مِنْ قَبْلُ لَفِي ضَلَالٍ مُبِينٍ

He it is Who raised among the inhabitants of Mecca a Messenger from ,among themselves, who recites to them His communications and purifies them and teaches them the Book and the Wisdom, although they were before certainly

(in clear error. (۶۲:۲

The system that the Ahl al-Bayt (a) set forth for managing the affairs of the virtuous community is based on the aforementioned concept of Imamate. Even if an Imam is circumstantially deprived of authority and power to rule, he must still possess all the particularities and qualifications to undertake all the responsibilities and carry out all the duties divinely entrusted upon him. The public, on the other hand, must obey the Imam. All such responsibilities and duties must be compatible with the circumstances as well as the virtuous community that is being managed. The ability or inability to perform such responsibilities and duties would depend upon the circumstances.

In the age of the absence of the Imam, the well-qualified mujtahid, in his capacity as the natural heir of the Prophets and the Imams, must undertake this mission. The Prophets have in fact not left gold or silver coins as their legacies, but rather great knowledge and wisdom. In this respect, the Holy Prophet (s) is reported to have said

الْعُلَمَاءُ مَصَابِيحُ الْأَرْضِ،
وَأَخْلَفَاءُ الْأَنْبِيَاءِ، وَوَرَثَتِي، وَوَرَثَةُ الْأَنْبِيَاءِ.

The scholars are the lanterns of the earth, the representatives of prophets, my heirs and the heirs of the (1). prophets.

Imam al-Sadiq (a) is reported to have said

إِنَّ
الْعُلَمَاءَ وَرَثَةُ الْأَنْبِيَاءِ، وَذَاكَ أَنَّ الْأَنْبِيَاءَ لَمْ
يُورَثُوا دِرْهَمًا وَلَا دِينَارًا؛ وَإِنَّمَا أُوْرَثُوا أَحَادِيثَ مِنْ
أَحَادِيثِهِمْ. فَمَنْ أَخَذَ بِشَيْءٍ مِنْهَا فَقَدْ أَخَذَ حِطًّا وَافِرًا.
فَانظُرُوا عِلْمَكُمْ عَمَّنْ تَأْخُذُونَهُ، فَإِنَّ فِيْنَا أَهْلَ الْبَيْتِ
فِي كُلِّ خَلْفٍ عُدُولًا يَنْفُونَ عَنْهُ تَحْرِيفَ الْعَالِيْنَ،
وَأَتْتَحَالَ الْمُبْطِلِينَ، وَتَأْوِيلَ الْجَاهِلِينَ.

Verily, scholars are the heirs of the prophets. The prophets have not left behind them Dirhams or Dinars; rather, the treasure they have left behind is their discourses. So whoever applies some of these discourses acquires a great share of the fortune. You must consider the source from which you take your knowledge. Verily, in each generation, there are some decent people belonging to us, the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a), who cleanse this religion from the distortions of the exaggerators, the forgery of the misguided, and the interpretation of the ignorant ones.

p: ١٩

Muhammad al-Rayshahri, Mizan al-hikmah ٤:٤٥٧ as quoted from al-Muttaqi al-Hindi, Kanz al-Ummal, H. ٢٨٤٧٧.
Shaykh al-Kulayni, Usul al-Kafi ١:٣٢ H. ٢ – ٢

The previously mentioned natural sequence (i.e. extension) in the divine position and representation of the Prophets has been clearly mentioned in the following verse of the Holy Qur'an

إِنَّا أَنْزَلْنَا التَّوْرَةَ فِيهَا هُدًى وَنُورٌ يَحْكُمُ بِهَا النَّبِيُّونَ الَّذِينَ أَسْلَمُوا لِلَّذِينَ هَادُوا وَالرَّبَّاتُّونَ وَالْأَحْبَارُ بِمَا اسْتُحْفِظُوا مِنْ كِتَابِ اللَّهِ وَكَانُوا عَلَيْهِ شُهَدَاءَ فَلَا تَخْشَوُا النَّاسَ وَاخْشَوْنِي وَلَا تَشْتَرُوا بِآيَاتِي ثَمَنًا قَلِيلًا وَمَنْ لَمْ يَحْكَمْ بِمَا أَنْزَلَ اللَّهُ فَأُولَئِكَ هُمُ الْكَافِرُونَ

Surely, We revealed the Torah in which was guidance and light. With it, the prophets who submitted themselves to Allah judged matters for those who were Jews, masters of divine knowledge and doctors, because they were required to guard part of the Book of Allah, and they were witnesses thereof; therefore, fear not the people and fear Me, and do not take a small price for My communications. And whoever did (not judge by what Allah revealed, those are the unbelievers. (٥:٤٤)

:Abu-` Amr al-Zubayri has reported Imam al-Sadiq (a) as saying

إِنَّ مِمَّا اسْتُحِقَّتْ بِهِ

الإِمَامَةُ التَّطَهِيرُ وَالطَّهَارَةُ مِنَ الذُّنُوبِ وَالْمَعَاصِي

الْمُؤَبَّقَةِ الَّتِي تُوجِبُ النَّارَ، ثُمَّ الْعِلْمَ الْمَكْتُونِ بِجَمِيعِ

مَا يَحْتَاجُ إِلَيْهِ الْأَمْرُ مِنْ حَالَئِهَا وَحَرَامِهَا، وَالْعِلْمَ بِهِ

خَاصَّةً وَعَامَّةً، وَالْمُحْكَمِ وَالْمُتَشَابِهِ وَدَقَائِقِ عِلْمِهِ

وَعَرَائِبِ تَأْوِيلِهِ وَنَاسِخِهِ وَمَنْسُوخِهِ.

Among the matters by which one is deservingly designated for Imamate are purification and purity from sins and destructive acts of disobedience (to Almighty Allah)—which have an inevitable punishment in Hellfire—and acquaintance with unseen knowledge of everything the position (of Imamate) requires, such as, the lawful and unlawful and full awareness of specific and general matters of law, including knowledge of decisive and allegorical issues, the minutest details of the law, the most precise points

.of interpretation and currently valid and abrogated matters

The reporter asked, “What is the evidence that proves that an Imam must have full

”?knowledge of the things you have just mentioned

:The Imam (‘a) answered

قَوْلُ

اللَّهِ فِي مَنْ أَدَانَ اللَّهُ لَهُمْ بِالْحُكْمِ وَجَعَلَهُمْ أَهْلَهَا: {إِنَّا أَنْزَلْنَا التَّوْرَةَ فِيهَا هُدًى وَنُورٌ يَحْكُمُ بِهَا النَّبِيُّونَ الَّذِينَ أَسْلَمُوا لِلَّذِينَ هَادُوا

وَالرَّبَّائِيُونَ وَالْأَحْبَارُ} فَهَذِهِ الْأَيْمَةُ دُونَ

الأنبياء الذين يرثون الناس بعلمهم، وأما الأحبار

فَهُمُ الْعُلَمَاءُ دُونَ الرِّبَّائِيِّنَ.

ثُمَّ أَخْبَرَ فَقَالَ:

{بِمَا اسْتُحْفِظُوا مِنْ كِتَابِ اللَّهِ وَكَانُوا عَلَيْهِ شُهَدَاءَ} وَلَمْ

يَقُلْ بِمَا حُمِّلُوا مِنْهُ.

The proof is Almighty Allah's statement about those whom He has permitted to hold the position of government and those whom He has stated to be the actual men of authority. He says, 'Surely, We revealed the Torah in which was guidance and light; with it the prophets who submitted themselves to Allah judged matters for those who were Jews and the masters of Divine knowledge and the doctors. (٥:٤٤)' These are Imams not Prophets who inherit the authority over people due to their knowledge. The doctors are the .scholars whose rank is less than that of the masters of divine knowledge After that, Almighty Allah continues to say, 'Because they were required to guard part of the Book of Allah, and they were witnesses thereof.' Notice \(1\) that He has not said, 'because they were required to convey it.' \(1\)

haykh al-huwayzi, Tafsir Nur al-Thaqalayn ١:٤٣٤, H. ٢٠٦, as quoted from Tafsir al- - -١
'Ayyashi

A mujtahid who represents ‘the doctors’ in the aforementioned holy verse must be characterized by the required qualifications that are held by the Imams—who represent ‘the masters of divine knowledge’—in the amount that is compatible with him (the mujtahid), his responsibilities, and rights. These qualifications are

Full acquaintance with religious laws (١)

Utmost decency (٢)

Other personal qualifications to include (٣)

a) Awareness of political and social conditions)

b) Personal experience of the advantages and disadvantages linked to the movement and perfection of the virtuous community

c) Courage to implement difficult, yet required, decisions)

d) Ability to take responsibility and lead the movement)

e) Maintenance of equality among the believers)

f) Presenting an exceptional example of conduct)

Similarly, a mujtahid must enjoy the same rights and duties of the Holy Imams, yet again, in the amount that is

.compatible with his level of leadership

This understanding and view of the general system of the virtuous society is an important issue because many responsibilities, relationships, policies, systems, courses, and situations that are compatible with the theoretical comprehension of the Prophets' movements and their roles in the history of humanity as well as the norms .that have affected history, branch out from this understanding

The System of Religious Referential Authority

Based on this theoretical foundation, the Holy Imams (‘a) established the system of religious referential authority or the position of the well-qualified jurisprudential authority (wilayat al-faqih). In brief, this system can be defined as designating a mujtahid(۱) from the scholars of the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) School, who fully meets all the previously cited qualifications and requirements, as a referential authority (marji` ) for their followers with the aim of undertaking the basic tasks of Imamate, which are as follows

Authority (wilayah) over the affairs of the Muslims (۱)

Issuance of verdicts (ifta') in order to explicate the concepts of the Divine Message, (۲) define the boundaries of religion and convey good tidings to those who commit themselves to them and warn people to refrain from acting outside those confines

Mujtahid can be defined as a person who possesses the faculty of inferring a – ۱ religious law or analyzing practical examples of an issue by means of drawing on religiously acceptable proofs and criteria that have been decided or approved for this purpose specifically by the Holy Legislator with the aim of arriving at religious facts, .laws, and examples of an issue

Reaching decisions on judgments in cases of litigation, allegations, and disputes (۲)

A review of the history of the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) shows that while they practiced their roles as Imams in a limited way within the milieu of the virtuous community, they began establishing this system (religious referential authority) with the growth of the virtuous community. As a result, the circle of the virtuous community’s works, activities, and existence extended to such an extent that this system became the .(basic and general system in the ages after the Holy Imams (‘a

As will be discussed in further detail, the Holy Imams (‘a) themselves established this system for the virtuous community by managing some of the affairs among the masses so that this would play a pertinent role in building the virtuous community and become an effective, reliable and sufficient system after the occultation of Imam al-Mahdi—may Allah hasten his advent

It can be said that the most important and basic role of the Imams al-Jawad, al-Hadi, and al-`Askari, was to firm up and consolidate the posts of the system of religious \(referential authority. \(۱

In order to depict the religious referential authority completely and clearly, we should have a lengthier discussion about the qualifications that must be met by a marji` , the tasks that must be undertaken by him, and the steps that the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) took in \(the field of organizing the virtuous community. \(۲

This fact will manifest itself more evidently when the special roles of each of the – –۱
Holy Imams (‘a) is displayed individually

This topic will be discussed in greater detail in the coming thesis about the – –۲
.virtuous referential authority in a later volume of this series

Qualifications and Requirements

In addition to the basic requirements for the position of the religious referential authority—such as reason, freedom, and faith—the chief qualifications that a marji` is required to meet are as follows

A. Ijtihad: Ijtihad, as a condition for holding religious authority, means that a marji` is required to have familiarity with religious laws, including the lawful and unlawful, and Islamic concepts to such an extent that he has the ability to recognize these laws and concepts from the religiously acceptable proofs—the Holy Qur'an and the Sunnah that is authentically reported from the Holy Prophet (s) and the Imams (a) as well as other proofs—and to use the rules and practical principles that have been determined by the Holy Legislator in order to identify the practical, religion-based circumstances of an issue

This qualification has been cited by the previously mentioned verse in general, and in the following section of the verse in particular

بِمَا اسْتُحْفِظُوا مِنْ كِتَابِ اللَّهِ وَكَانُوا عَلَيْهِ شُهَدَاءَ

Because they were...

required to guard part of the Book of Allah, and they were witnesses thereof

Confirmation of such knowledge has been made in many traditions that are reported from the Holy Imams (a), including the following which is authentically reported from Imam al-Sadiq (a) and is recorded under the title of choosing an arbitrator to judge between disputants

يَنْظُرَانِ مَنْ كَانَ

مِنْكُمْ مِمَّنْ رَوَى حَدِيثَنَا وَنَظَرَ فِي حَالِنَا وَحَرَامِنَا

وَعَرَفَ أَحْكَامَنَا، فَلْيَرْضُوا بِهِ حَكْمًا.

They (i.e. the disputant parties) must seek out one of you (i.e. the Shi`ah) who has reported our discourses, has acquaintance with what has been deemed lawful and what has been deemed unlawful by us, and has familiarity with our laws; then, they \(1\) must accept him as arbitrator.

On the authority of Imam `Ali (‘a), Imam Muhammad al-Baqir (‘a) reported the Holy Prophet (s) to have repeated the following supplicatory prayer three times اللَّهُمَّ إِرْحَمْ خُلَفَائِي.

O Allah, (please) have mercy upon my representatives

:When he was asked to define his representatives, the Holy Prophet (s) answered

الَّذِينَ يَأْتُونَ بَعْدِي،

يَزُودُونَ حَدِيثِي وَسُنَّتِي.

My representatives are those, among the coming generations, who will report my \(2\) sayings and traditions.

The following instruction has been mentioned in the famous document signed by :Imam al-Mahdi—the Patron of the Age

وَأَمَّا الْحَوَادِثُ الْوَاقِعَةُ

فَارْجِعُوا فِيهَا إِلَى رِوَاةِ حَدِيثِنَا، فَإِنَّهُمْ حُجَّتِي عَلَيْكُمْ،

وَأَنَا حُجَّةُ اللَّهِ.

As for the events that will take place in the future, you must refer them to the reporters of our traditions, for they are my proof on you and I am the Proof of Almighty

.Allah

In addition, there are other traditions—some of which will be cited later—confirming that the ordinary followers of the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) must refer to the well-versed and well-qualified scholars of their sect with respect to the religious laws. There are also other traditions that order the well-versed scholars to issue verdicts

B. Decency: According to jurists, decency can be defined as uprightness in following Islamic laws and avoidance of deviation. In other words, a decent person is one who never commits any act of disobedience to Almighty Allah, such as negligence of an obligatory act or commitment of a forbidden act unless there is a religiously justifiable reason. In this respect, there is no difference between minor or major sins.<sup>(1)</sup>

Decency is a disposition involving integrity in following Islam such that neither a major nor a minor sin is committed.<sup>(2)</sup>

Decency can be also defined as the faculty that habitually prevents one from performing acts of disobedience for which Almighty Allah has threatened Hellfire. This is not the same as regret that is felt after lust or anger vanishes because in regret the person experiences degeneration caused by such an act of disobedience.<sup>(3)</sup>

Imam al-Khumayni has mentioned a similar definition of

Sayyid al-hakim seems to consider the decency that must be enjoyed by a marji` , as understood by religious believers (i.e. mutasharri` ah), to be such a supreme rank that it is neither compelled nor overcome by lust or anger in such a way that neither repentance nor regret will be necessary. "To be fair," Sayyid al-hakim adds, "it is extremely difficult for a general referential authority to persevere with decency in the issuance of verdicts—and this may take place in any age for a single or a group of scholars—unless such decency is of a powerful and supreme rank and is always monitored and managed. If such a rank of decency is lacking, this will definitely cause one's feet to slip and expose great men to hazards. Only from Almighty Allah can we seek protection against such dangers." (2)

Because traditions have highlighted the existence of decency among the qualities of witnesses that testify, leaders of congregational prayers, and leaders of holy wars in particular in addition to leaders of general affairs as well as other persons, religious scholars have concluded that decency must be one of the qualifications for a general referential authority. The scholars have unanimously agreed on this condition

Moreover, the rationally approvable line of conduct (i.e. al-Sirah al-` uqala'iyah) that is assented by the Holy Legislator also confirms this condition, as is maintained by both Sunni and Shi` ite scholars. (3)

3. Refer to the words of the scholars in this connection; Shaykh al-Muntazari: Wilayat al-Faqih, ١:٢٤١–٢٧٣

In this respect, a tradition that is reported from Imam Muhammad al-Baqir (‘a) states that the Holy Prophet (s) has said

لَا

تَصْلُحُ الْإِمَامَةُ إِلَّا لِرَجُلٍ فِيهِ ثَلَاثُ خِصَالٍ: وَرَعٌ يَحْجُزُهُ
عَنْ مَعَاصِي اللَّهِ، وَحِلْمٌ يَمْلِكُ بِهِ غَضَبَهُ، وَحُسْنُ الْوِلَايَةِ
عَلَى مَنْ يَلِي حَتَّى يَكُونَ لَهُمْ كَالْوَالِدِ الرَّحِيمِ.

Imamate is unsuitable for anyone except a man who enjoys the following three qualities: (١) piety that prevents him from committing acts of disobedience to Almighty Allah, (٢) self-possession that makes him control himself in situations of rage, and (٣) affectionate authority over those who are under his authority to the degree that he acts as their tender father. (١)

Shaykh al-Kulayni has also reported through an authentic chain of authority on the authority of Muhammad ibn Muslim that Imam al-Baqir (‘a) said to him

وَاللَّهِ،

يَا مُحَمَّدُ، مَنْ أَصْبَحَ مِنْ هَذِهِ الْأُمَّةِ لَا إِمَامَ لَهُ مِنْ
اللَّهِ عَزَّ وَجَلَّ ظَاهِرٌ عَادِلٌ، أَصْبَحَ ضَالًّا تَائِهًا، وَإِنْ مَاتَ
عَلَى هَذِهِ الْحَالِهِ مَاتَ مَيِّتَةً كُفْرٍ وَنِفَاقٍ. وَاعْلَمْ، يَا
مُحَمَّدُ، أَنَّ أَيْمَةَ الْجَوْرِ وَأَتْبَاعَهُمْ لَمَعْرُوْلُونَ عَنِ
دِينِ اللَّهِ، قَدْ ضَلُّوا وَأَضَلُّوا.

O Muhammad, I swear by Allah that if any one of this nation begins his day without having a leader (i.e. Imam) characterized by directness and decency, who is designated by Almighty Allah, he is then certainly misled and lost. If he dies in such a state, he will have then died the death of unbelief and hypocrisy. Be it known to you, Muhammad, that leaders of injustice and their followers are detached from the religion of Allah, for they have strayed from the right path and misled others.\(۲\)

C. Competence: Competence stands for aptitude, capability, and power to manage affairs. It thus includes proficient reasoning, excellent management, courage, fair policy, supervision, and guardianship along with other personal qualities upon which competence relies.

In their verdicts, scholars have highlighted competence as a term specified to be among the qualities of a religious referential authority. For instance, in his book of Tadhkirat al-Fuqaha', `Allamah al-hilli has referred to the term of competence as being one of the indisputable conditions that is unanimously agreed upon by all jurists. He thus says

Among the conditions that must be met by an Imam is that...he must be courageous, have a judicious view and be competent. In addition, his hearing, sight, and pronunciation must be sound. Finally, he must be the most virtuous of his contemporaries.<sup>(1)</sup>

This condition has also been confirmed in many traditions. Imam `Ali Amir al-Mu'minin (a) is reported to have said

أَيُّهَا النَّاسُ، إِنَّ أَحَقَّ
النَّاسِ بِهَذَا الْأَمْرِ أَقْوَاهُمْ عَلَيْهِ وَأَعْلَمُهُمْ بِأَمْرِ اللَّهِ
فِيهِ. فَإِنْ شَغِبَ شَاغِبٌ اسْتُعْتَبَ، فَإِنْ أَبِي قُوتِلَ.

O people, the most rightful of all persons to hold this office (leadership) is the one who is most competent among them to maintain it and who knows best Almighty Allah's commands about it. If any mischief is created by a mischief-monger, he will be called upon to repent. If he refuses, he will be fought.<sup>(2)</sup>

.Tadhkirat al-Fuqaha', ١٠:٤٥٢

:Imam `Ali ('a) is also reported as saying

وَالثَّانِي أَنْ يَكُونَ أَعْلَمَ

النَّاسِ بِحَلَالِ اللَّهِ وَحَرَامِهِ وَضُرُوبِهِ وَأَحْكَامِهِ وَأَمْرِهِ

وَنَهْيِهِ وَجَمِيعِ مَا يَحْتَاجُ إِلَيْهِ النَّاسُ، فَيَحْتَاجُ إِلَيْهِ

النَّاسُ وَيَسْتَعِينُ عَنْهُمْ.

The second quality (of one who must have the leadership of the Muslim nation) is that he must be the most knowledgeable among all people of what Almighty Allah has deemed lawful and unlawful as well as all the laws, commands, prohibitions and whatever is needed by people, as decided by Almighty Allah. So, people will need such \(1\) a person but that person does not need them.

In his authentic report, al-`Ays ibn al-Qasim has reported Imam al-Sadiq ('a) to have said:

وَانظُرُوا لِأَنْفُسِكُمْ؛

فَوَاللَّهِ، إِنَّ الرَّجُلَ لَيَكُونُ لَهُ الْغَنَمُ فِيهَا الرَّاعِي، فَإِذَا

وَجَدَ رَجُلًا أَعْلَمَ بِغَنَمِهِ مِنَ الَّذِي هُوَ فِيهَا يَمْجُجُهُ

وَيَجِيءُ بِذَلِكَ الرَّجُلِ الَّذِي هُوَ أَعْلَمُ بِغَنَمِهِ مِنَ الَّذِي

كَانَ فِيهَا.

Choose for yourselves; I swear by Allah, an owner of a flock of sheep who has hired... a shepherd must certainly dismiss his shepherd and appoint another if he finds that \(2\) the latter is more skilled in shepherding his sheep than the earlier.

In a previous tradition, the Holy Prophet (s) has mentioned ‘nice authority’ as one of the conditions of an Imam. This

.Al-Majlisi, Bihar al-Anwar, ٩٣:٦٤, as quoted from al-Nu`mani, Kitab al-Ghaybah --١

.Al-hurr al-`Amili, Wasa'il al-Shi`ah, ١١:٣٥, H. ١ --٢

.quality corresponds with competence

:Describing an Imam, Imam al-Riza (‘a) has said

وَالْإِمَامُ عَالِمٌ لَا يَجْهَلُ

وَرَاعٍ لَا يَنْكَلُ... نَامِي الْعِلْمِ، كَامِلُ الْحِلْمِ، مُضْطَلَعٌ

بِالْإِمَامَةِ، عَالِمٌ بِالسِّيَاسَةِ، مَفْرُوضُ الطَّاعَةِ، قَائِمٌ بِأَمْرِ

اللَّهِ، نَاصِحٌ لِعِبَادِ اللَّهِ، حَافِظٌ لِدِينِ اللَّهِ.

An Imam is so knowledgeable that he ignores nothing, so watchful that he never tires...He is of ever-growing knowledge and perfect self-possession. He is well-versed in (the affairs of) Imamate, is knowledgeable of politics, is obeyed as an obligation, undertakes his tasks by Almighty Allah’s command, is a well-wisher of Allah’s servants, and \(safeguards the religion of Allah...\)

Tasks and Responsibilities

The tasks and responsibilities of the system of the religious referential authority of the virtuous community can be summed up in the following three fields

Issuance of verdicts (١)

Judgment (٢)

Authority (٣)

Generally, these three areas of responsibility correspond with the responsibilities of Imamate, especially when we understand issuance of verdicts in its expansive meaning, which is to elucidate and propagate the Islamic code of religious law, along with its rules, concepts, doctrines, and views about the universe, life, history, norms, and ethics

Point

In order to systematize the process of issuing verdicts for elucidating features of the religion and propagating Islam the Holy Imams (‘a) took the following steps

Education (1)

The Holy Imams (‘a) worked towards educating well-versed jurists, scholars, and reporters of their traditions by means of conferring upon them special attention that they (i.e. the Holy Imams) used to give certain persons who had extraordinary interest in seeking knowledge, had actual competence to receive knowledge, and possessed the required scientific aptitude. These persons then became distinguished in scientific and moral fields. In addition to these persons, the Holy Imams (‘a) educated a large number of students in jurisprudence and other fields of religious sciences and capable learners of the Holy Qur'an who lived in various regions of the virtuous community, especially the regions where their followers were considerable in number.

Such education can be evidently noticed in personalities like Aban ibn Taghlib, Zurarah ibn A`yun, Abu-Basir, Muhammad ibn Muslim, Burayd al-`Ujali, Yunus ibn `Abd al-Rahman, `Uthman ibn Sa`id and his son Muhammad, and many others.

Abu'l-`Abbas al-Fazl ibn `Abd al-Malik has reported that he heard Imam al-Sadiq (‘a) saying:

أَحَبُّ النَّاسِ إِلَيَّ أَحْيَاءٌ

وَأَمْوَاتًا أَرْبَعَةٌ: بَرِيْدُ بْنُ مُعَاوِيَةَ الْعَجَلِيُّ، وَزُرَّارَةُ،

وَمُحَمَّدُ بْنُ مُسْلِمٍ، وَالْأَحْوَلُ. وَهُمْ أَحَبُّ النَّاسِ إِلَيَّ

أَحْيَاءٌ وَأَمْوَاتًا.

The most beloved persons to me, from among both the dead and the alive, are four:

(١) Burayd ibn Mu`awiyah al-`Ujali, (٢) Zurarah, (٣) Muhammad ibn Muslim, and (٤) al-Ahwal. These are positively the most beloved persons to me from among all the dead \(and the alive.\)

Undertaking the Mission of Issuing Verdicts (۲)

The Holy Imams (‘a) specially directed the best among their companions and those distinguished by knowledge and virtue to undertake the mission of issuing verdicts and reporting their traditions to the next generations of the virtuous community. Sometimes, the Holy Imams (‘a) would direct these elite companions to give legal opinions to the Muslims of other sects according to each individual’s sect so that these personalities would take their natural role in the Muslim community and, at the same time, maintain

.the virtuous community and its particularities as a favor

In this respect, Imam al-Sadiq (‘a) is reported to have said to Mu`adh ibn Muslim al-Nahawi (the grammarian), “I have been informed that you sit in the mosque and give
”legal opinions to people

Yes, I do,” Mu`adh answered, “and I wanted to ask you about this before I left you.“
As I sit in the mosque, people come to ask me questions. When I know that the asker is an opponent of you, I answer him according to the other sects’ opinion. When I know that the asker is a follower of you, I answer him according to what you have said about his question. However, it happens that a man whose sect I cannot recognize comes to me, so I answer by saying that so-and-so scholar says this, and so-and-so scholar says that. Hence, I include your sayings along with the others’
”opinions

(The Imam (‘a) answered, “Good, continue in this way, because I myself do it.”(1)

:Imam al-Sadiq (‘a) is also reported to have said

إِعْرَفُوا

مَنَازِلَ شِيعَتِنَا بِقَدْرِ مَا يُحْسِنُونَ مِنْ رِوَايَاتِهِمْ عَنَّا.

The Imam (‘a) was asked, “Is it possible that a faithful believer receives from the angels directly?”

Asking people to refer to well-versed scholars (۳)

The Holy Imams (‘a) used to draw the attention of the masses towards referring to the elite companions and distinguished scholars in questions of religion in general and religious laws in particular so that the structure of the virtuous community could be accomplished in their lives. In this way, when the next generations of the virtuous community would refer to the well-versed scholars in religious issues, this significant feature would be automatically entrenched in the milieu of the virtuous community

Ahmad ibn Ishaq has reported that he asked Imam Abu’l-hasan al-Riza (‘a), “With whom should I deal? From whom should I take (answers to my religious questions)?”

”?Whose word should I accept as true

:The Imam (‘a) answered

When the reporter put the same question before Imam Abu-Muhammad (‘a), he answered:

فَمَا أَدْيَا عَنِّي فَعَنِّي يُؤَدِّيَانِ، وَمَا قَالَ لَكَ فَعَنِّي

The reporter once asked al-`Umari a certain question and al-`Umari answered

Judgment, in the sense of deciding judicially which party of two disputants is rightful and which is not, is considered one of the most important issues in the organization of the Muslim community in general and the virtuous community in particular. It is, moreover, one of the basic topics for which the Divine Books were revealed and the Divine Messages were given to Prophets and Messengers of Almighty Allah. This is because judgment is correlated with matters of disputation and contention among people—an issue that coexisted with the first brick in the human structure of life. Throughout the various ages of human progression, this issue has always had such a special significance that it gave man the idea that the issues of government and establishment of states are originally and inseparably connected with the issue of judgment with which the state develops into a social system

Being connected to issues of contention and disputation, judgment seems complicated to some extent. In some cases, both parties of litigation believe that they are right. Moreover, the result of judgment can sometimes be opposite to the factual right causing more complication, since the owner of the right may be judicially forced to abandon his right and keep silent because of a judgment made by a judge

In view of all this, the Holy Qur'an connects faith with surrender to the judgment that

فَلَا وَرَبِّكَ لَا يُؤْمِنُونَ حَتَّىٰ يُحَكِّمُوكَ فِيمَا شَجَرَ بَيْنَهُمْ ثُمَّ لَا يَجِدُوا

فِي أَنفُسِهِمْ حَرَجًا مِّمَّا قَضَيْتَ وَيُسَلِّمُوا تَسْلِيمًا

But no! By your Lord! They do not truly believe until they make you a judge of that which has become a matter of disagreement among them, and then do not find any resistance in their hearts as to what you have decided and submit with entire submission

The Holy Prophet (s), who is divinely infallible and connected with divine revelation, took precautions for himself and for his authority among Muslims, saying

إِنَّمَا أَقْضِي بَيْنَكُمْ
بِالْبَيِّنَاتِ وَالْأَيْمَانِ، وَبَعْضُكُمْ أَلْحَنُ بِحُجَّتِهِ مِنْ بَعْضٍ،
فَأَيُّمَا رَجُلٍ قَطَعْتُ لَهُ مِنْ مَالِ أَخِيهِ شَيْئًا فَإِنَّمَا قَطَعْتُ
لَهُ بِهِ قِطْعَةً مِنْ نَارٍ.

I can only judge between you on the bases of evidence and oaths, and some of you may provide their evidence more convincingly than others. So, if I deem a portion of the property of someone to be for another, this will mean that I have decided a piece of Hellfire for him.<sup>(1)</sup>

Judgment, in the aforesaid tradition, does not include decisions made based on Unseen Divine Knowledge (al-ghayb al-ilahi). Judgments based on presented evidence may sometimes be contrary to actual fact, such as in cases when a plaintiff cannot find evidence to prove his claim, when a defendant swears falsely to gain the decision, or when a defendant refers taking an oath to the plaintiff who refrains from taking it out of fear of Almighty Allah and thus relinquishes his right so that the case is won by the defendant. The defendant might also provide false witnesses who apparently seem righteous and thus the judge may accept their testimony and issue a judgment contrary to reality.

The Holy Imams of the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) encountered a real problem in the milieu of the virtuous community when they attempted to fill this crucial gap in the general system

.of the virtuous community. Therefore, they found a veritable and practical solution

The problem of flawless judgment has various aspects some of which are related to the ruling authority since the position of a judge is an official position that requires permission determined and given by the ruling authority. This is the point of difference between judicature, being a governmental position, and issuance of verdicts, which was practiced by any well-versed scholar, traditionist, or student of jurisprudence without need for permission

Other aspects are related to the executive and procedural power. A judge may settle a dispute by a sentence that he issues, but the actual executor of this sentence is the executive power, such as the police and other governmental agencies that use power to put that sentence into action when a party of the lawsuit refrains from submitting to the judge's sentence. As for the Holy Imams of the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a), they did not .have such executive power

Other aspects are related to the community itself, be it a reluctance of qualified persons to assume this precise and sensitive job or be it the masses' response and .(commitment to the decisions issued by the Holy Imams (‘a

Despite all these impediments, the Holy Imams (‘a) succeeded in creating an active and functioning system of judicature during the span of their actual lifetimes which continued to survive during other ages. To achieve this goal, the Holy Imams (‘a) provided an exceptional form of judgment that is characterized by exactitude, .flexibility, and lucidity. This form can be found in their traditions about judgment

Let us refer to some aspects and steps that the Holy Imams (‘a) developed in order to establish their exceptional form of judgment

A. The Holy Imams (‘a) severely condemned individuals who presented their lawsuits before unjust judges that had been appointed by tyrannical and unjust ruling authorities. Such condemnation was not only based on the probability that such inexperienced judges would issue flawed judgments with regard to the religious law of Islam, but also based on two other important issues

First: The position of a judge is a divinely designated office that none has the right to hold except those well-qualified. Without such qualification, which is both spiritual and practical, judgeship is invalid even where a judge has judged according to that which is true. Hence, unqualified judges are unsuitable for holding this divine position

In this respect, Sulayman ibn Khalid has reported Imam al-Sadiq (‘a) as saying

إِتَّقُوا الْحُكُومَةَ؛ فَإِنَّ

الْحُكُومَةَ إِنَّمَا هِيَ لِلْإِمَامِ الْعَالِمِ بِالْقَضَاءِ الْعَادِلِ فِي

الْمُسْلِمِينَ، كَنَبِيِّ أَوْ وَصِيِّ نَبِيِّ.

Avoid holding the position of judgeship, because this position must be exclusively held by a leader who is well-versed in judgment and who treats Muslims justly, such as a Prophet

(or a Prophet’s successor (i.e. wasi)).<sup>(1)</sup>

Imam al-Sadiq (‘a) is also reported as saying

p: ٤٧

الْقَضَاءُ أَرْبَعَةٌ؛

ثَلَاثَةٌ فِي النَّارِ وَوَاحِدٌ فِي الْجَنَّةِ: رَجُلٌ قَضَى بِجَوْرِ وَهُوَ

يَعْلَمُ، فَهُوَ فِي النَّارِ. وَرَجُلٌ قَضَى بِجَوْرِ وَهُوَ لَا يَعْلَمُ،

فَهُوَ فِي النَّارِ. وَرَجُلٌ قَضَى بِالْحَقِّ وَهُوَ لَا يَعْلَمُ، فَهُوَ

فِي النَّارِ. وَرَجُلٌ قَضَى بِالْحَقِّ وَهُوَ يَعْلَمُ، فَهُوَ فِي

الْجَنَّةِ.

There are four categories of judges—three will be in Hellfire and only one in

;Paradise: (١) a judge that intentionally rules unjustly will be in Hellfire

a judge that rules unjustly because he does not know will also be in (٢)

Hellfire; (٣) a judge that rules according to that which is true but he does not know will also be in Hellfire; and (٤) a judge that rules according to that which is true and knows (that he is ruling according to the truth) will (١) be in Paradise.

Abu-Basir has reported that he, once, said to Imam al-Sadiq (‘a), “It happens that I have to decide about an issue that I have found neither in the Book of Allah nor in the Sunnah. Should we use our view about such issues

:The Imam (‘a) answered

لَا، أَمَا إِنَّكَ إِذَا أَصَبْتَ

لَمْ تُؤْجَرْ، وَإِنْ أَخْطَأْتَ كَذَبْتَ عَلَى اللَّهِ.

No! If you do so and hit on the correct ruling, you will not be rewarded and if you do and fail to make an accurate ruling, you will have fabricated a forgery against Almighty

(Allah.)

Second: Referring to such false judges is a submission and surrender to the governments of tyrannical and unjust ruling authorities who appoint such unqualified persons as judges. As a result, reference to such judges is regarded as “summoning one another to the judgment of Satan” about which the Holy Qur'an says

Abu-Basir has quoted Imam al-Sadiq (‘a) regarding a man who had a dispute with one of his brethren-in-faith about a property. When the latter asked him to accept a third person of their faith as arbiter, the former refused and insisted on summoning his brother-in-faith to the official court of the unjust ruling authorities

Umar ibn hanzalah has reported that he asked Imam al-Sadiq (‘a), “Two of our acquaintances disputed about a debt or an issue of inheritance. They sued one another before the ruling authority and their judges. Is this acceptable

B. On various occasions, the Holy Imams (‘a) laid great stress on this issue so as to achieve a practical goal and create a strong personal deterrent that replaces the executive power of official judges of the unjust ruling authorities. As a step in this way, the Holy Imams (‘a) advised the virtuous community to strongly condemn the corruption, deviation and aggression that the offices of the ruling authorities in general and the system of judicature in particular used against the rights of people

C. In the designation of a judge, the Holy Imams (‘a) followed a method characterized by flexibility on the one hand and by proportional power of execution on the other

p: ۵۰

.Al-hurr al-`Amili, Wasa'il al-Shi`ah, ۱۸:۴, H. ۴ -- ۱

They used to ask the disputant parties to choose for themselves an arbitrator and reach an agreement on selecting a judge, as is mentioned in the accepted tradition (i.e. maqbulah)<sup>(1)</sup> of `Umar ibn hanzalah and the authenticated tradition (i.e. muwaththaqah) of Abu-Basir

Some scholars believe that such traditions do not denote a judge in the ordinary meaning, but give explanations of the qualities of the arbitrators of judgment and conciliation, because they specify as condition the consent of the two parties.<sup>(2)</sup> However, the last statement in the tradition involved apparently shows that it denotes the designation of judges

D. The Holy Imams (‘a) gave general, simplified, and clear-cut qualifications that must be held by a judge whose words are taken as final judgment in the case that many judges disagree about a question (i.e. a chief-judge

Umar ibn hanzalah has reported that he asked Imam al-Sadiq (‘a), “Two of our acquaintances disputed about a debt or an issue of inheritance. They sued one another before the ruling authority and their judges. Is this acceptable

Third Responsibility: Authority

Without doubt, authority (wilayah) and Imamate is the most important divinely designated position in the Islamic system as is openly stated by the Holy Qur'an and the traditions that are authentically reported from the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a), some of which .have been previously cited in this book under different titles

It is also possible to insert the first responsibility (issuance of verdicts or propagation and elucidation of religious issues) and the second responsibility (judgment) within .this very important divinely designated position

The greatness and holiness of this position and the numerousness of tyrants, oppressors and leaders of injustice that have claimed this position might be two reasons that caused the Holy Imams of the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) to condemn the others who claimed this holy position on the one hand and confirm that the position was .designated to them alone on the other

This may be a convincing explanation for the scarcity of traditions about a decent and well-versed mujtahid having the right of general authority after the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a). The Holy Imams (‘a) confirmed that the general authority was originally their exclusive right in which nobody else shared in order to block any possible psychological or mental gap that might have aroused the idea that others who claim having this authority might have the like of this right or that their right of authority .might be parallel to the divinely designated right of authority of the Holy Imams

It is also noteworthy that all the traditions about the qualities of judges restrict the right of judgeship to the Holy Imams (‘a) except for some reported texts indicating them to be restricted to the arbitrators of conciliation and

Based on such interpretations, a group of jurists are of the opinion that there is no definite text (authentically reported from the Holy Imams (‘a)) involving the designation of the mujtahid for this divine position. Such jurists, however, admit that it is not feasible to leave this divine position unoccupied and lacking a responsible person among the Muslim community, who possesses the essential qualifications (al-qadr al-mutayaqqan) to undertake the responsibility of this position must be a well-qualified mujtahid. These jurists also agree that the well-qualified mujtahid is the most suitable person to occupy this divine position from another type of evidence which is called dalil al-hisbah, meaning evidence that is (derived from necessity).

In any case, some texts that are reported from the Holy Imams (‘a) refer to or can be understood, suggestively or openly, as referring to the general authority of the well-qualified jurist. Apart from exhaustive discussions on each of these texts, we can, in the main, extract this conceptual trend in the Ahl al-Bayt’s building of the system

In the search for general authority, jurists have dealt with this topic. In – –\ sum, some of them have concluded that the general authority of the jurist (wilayat al-faqih) is proven by clear texts reported from the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a), while others have concluded that this position is proven by the reason-based necessity for occupation of this important position by the most qualified person, as well as by other proofs. Thoughtfully but simply, I have discussed this topic in my book entitled al-hukm al-islami bayna al-nazariyyah wa’l-tatbiq (Islamic Government: Theory and Application). Here, I prefer to discuss this topic from the angle of the universal and .conceptual basis rather than other angles of the virtuous community—entailing that the well-qualified and well-versed .(jurisprudent must undertake the affairs of the general authority (wilayah

More precisely, the position of the general authority is a fact firmly established in the milieu of the Ahl al-Bayt's followers as it has been practiced by the mujtahids and supported by the scholars, irrespective of the evidence proving its transfer to the .well-qualified jurists

However, the most obvious divine text that can be used as evidence proving this general authority for the well-qualified jurists is the aforesaid verse (No. ٤٤) of Surah al-Ma'idah (No. ٥). As for hadith, the best tradition that proves this issue is a :document of Imam al-Mahdi (may Allah hasten his advent) which he himself dictated

وَأَمَّا الْحَوَادِثُ الْوَاقِعَةُ

فَارْجِعُوا فِيهَا إِلَى رِوَاةِ حَدِيثِنَا، فَإِنَّهُمْ حُجَّتِي عَلَيْكُمْ

وَأَنَا حُجَّةُ اللَّهِ.

As for the events that shall take place in the future, you must refer them to the reporters of our traditions, for they are my proofs for you and I am the Proof of Almighty

(Allah.)

This tradition, pointing out 'the events that shall take place in the future', signifies the emerging issues that humanity is bound to encounter in the daily activities of life that will require a religious law to resolve them. In addition, the statement that the reporters of the traditions are the proofs of the Imam (a) for people has been concluded with the statement that the Imam (a) is the Proof of Almighty Allah for people. Of course, this is comprehensive and general. This significance can also be gauged from the traditions describing the qualities of judges. As has been previously discussed, judicial authority is considered to be one of the

---

.Al-hurr al-`Amili, Wasa'il al-Shi`ah, ۱۸:۱۰۱, H. ۹ --۱

.most important and crucial positions of the general authority

The discussion of this topic consummates the Holy Imams' (a) conception about the system of the virtuous community thus: the well-qualified jurist (mujtahid) must conclusively be the religious referential authority of the individuals of the (virtuous community, and such authority undertakes the tasks of the Imam (a

Among the many well-versed jurists, the religious referential authority can be appointed either through direct election by the masses made after investigating the required personal qualities—knowledgeability, decency, experience, competence, and others to which experienced people must testify—after which it becomes obligatory upon them to act upon the verdicts of that mujtahid; or, through indirect election by the masses who elect experienced individuals who in turn elect the general referential authority who then holds the authority of the Holy Imam. Such a process of election and voting cannot take place unless the masses possess the determination and freedom to vote in order to freely express their wills. As a practical example, well-versed scholars of the Islamic Republic of Iran elected the general referential authority and the Constitution of the country upheld their election. (1)

CHAPTER TWO: IDENTITY AND ITS ASPECTS

Point

Identity and Its Role .۱

Aspects of Identity .۲

Specifications of Identity .۳

p: ۵۷

Blank

p: 58

The identity of the virtuous community comprises the characteristics and features that distinguish the virtuous community from others, including title, origin, personal qualities, category, and rank

The Holy Imams of the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) took tremendous interest in the matter of identifying the character of the virtuous community and delineating its features because such identification brings about momentous consequences and results that reflect on the common behavior of the individuals of the virtuous community, contribute to shedding light on their goals and progression, and coordinate and organize the contents and purport of their rituals

Firstly, we can clearly conclude that distinguishing the identity and character of the virtuous community contributes greatly towards building the personality of the individuals of the virtuous community on the basis of each individual’s identifying strengths because it is natural for man to express his identity and endeavor to highlight it

Secondly, recognition of identity reveals the nature of one’s affiliations, intellectual, social and political

Thirdly, distinguishing identity establishes the foundations of the virtuous community and stresses close connections, mutual understanding and cooperation between the members of this community

Fourthly, when the essence and constituents of identity are superlative and powerful, it generates power and attracts and influences others. Hence, identity acts as the title and brilliant countenance of the virtuous community which encourages others to join it

The Holy Imams (‘a) outlined the identity of the virtuous community with a number of major aspects representing the message of Islam. Such aspects can be understood from the traditions in which the Imams talk to their followers about their own identities and the features of these demonstrated in the personalities of their followers. The Holy Imams (‘a) drew the attention of their followers to the following aspects:

Islam, the substance and goals of its message (1)

The essential feature identifying the virtuous community was propagating the concepts and terms of the Holy Qur'an and presenting its spiritual and moral content together with the goals of its message. This stems from the fact that the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) wanted the virtuous community to live within the Muslim community as part of it, undertaking responsibility, having an effect on it, and leaving no stone unturned to achieve the objectives of the system of the virtuous community. Moreover, the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) wanted the individuals of the virtuous community to act as good and righteous examples for the Muslim nation.

Historical Roots and Past Divine Messages (2)

The Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) confirmed the fact that the existence of the virtuous community was not accidental in the history of Islam being created by exceptional political circumstances which led to depriving the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) of the leadership of the Islamic government; rather, the virtuous community is a group that from its roots is an extension and goal of past divine messages, exactly like Islam which, as a religion, aspired to confirm its historical roots by verifying all past divine messages and connecting

.(with the call of Prophet Abraham (‘a

(Loyalty to the Ahl al–Bayt (‘a (۳)

The Ahl al–Bayt (‘a) built up in their followers profound loyalty, which included love, support, commitment, covenant, and affiliation to them politically, intellectually and in conduct, which was a distinctive feature differentiating them from other sects and .groups

They also instructed their followers to undertake the responsibilities of this affiliation and to patiently bear difficulties. Such superlative loyalty is necessary because the Ahl al–Bayt (‘a) represent the natural extension of the sealing of prophethood (through the Prophet Muhammad (s)), the survival of the divinely commissioned leadership (of the Holy Imams (‘a)), and the vicegerency of Almighty Allah on earth. They also represent the original line of Islam, which corresponds with the actual understanding of Islam and its sciences, as well as the actual revelation and interpretation of the .Holy Qur'an

Human Nature, Social Dignity, Respect and Honor (۴)

The Ahl al–Bayt (‘a) taught their followers that harmony with human nature, nobility in conduct and fear of God are the criterion of dignity, success and superiority in worldly life and in the sight of Almighty Allah, Who grants elevated ranks to whom He wishes. This aspect of identity is of prime importance because it imbues the personality with the capability of adjusting and coexisting with all humans in order to resist sieges and isolation imposed by political, social, economic and mentally demanding .circumstances

Specifications of Identity

Point

The previously mentioned aspects are obvious from a review of the specifications of identity as presented by the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) to their followers

1. Name

The Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) gave the name Shi`ah (partisans), mu'min (faithful believer), and muwali (loyalist) to the individuals of the virtuous community. The following traditions bespeak these names and titles

Abu-Basir has reported that Imam al-Baqir (‘a) said to those accompanying him

لِيَهْنُتُكُمْ

الْإِسْمُ.

Fitting for you is the name

Which name is that? May Allah accept me as ransom for you!" Abu-Basir asked. The Imam (‘a) answered الشَّيْعَةُ.

Shi`ah

"The people are using this name to dishonor us," one of the companions complained

The Imam (‘a) replied

(وَإِنَّ مِنْ شَيْعَتِهِ لِأَبْرَاهِيمَ)

(فَأَسْتَعَاثَهُ الَّذِي مِنْ شَيْعَتِهِ عَلَى الَّذِي مِنْ عَدُوِّهِ) فَلْيَهْنُتُكُمْ الْإِسْمُ.

Almighty Allah says)

in the Holy Qur'an,) "Most surely, Abraham was one of his (Noah's) followers Shi` ah).” (٣٧:٨٣) “He who was of his party)

”.Shi` ah) cried out to him for help against him who was of his enemies)

(So, fitting for you is the name. (٢٨:١٥)

p: ٤٢

Tafsir al-Qummi ٢:٢٢٣; al-Majlisi, Bihar al-Anwar ٤٨:١٢, H. ٣١ as quoted from the – –١
.previous reference book, yet with little difference

In this tradition, the Imam (‘a) connects the name of Shi`ah with its historical root, that is Prophet Abraham (‘a) who was one of the Shi`ah of Prophet Noah (‘a). He also infers the name from the Holy Qur'an

:Confirming this fact, Abu-Basir reported that he heard Imam al-Sadiq (‘a) saying

نَحْنُ أَهْلُ بَيْتِ الرَّحْمَةِ،

وَبَيْتِ النُّعْمَةِ، وَبَيْتِ الْبَرَكَهِ. وَنَحْنُ فِي الْأَرْضِ بُتْيَانٌ.

وَشِيعَتُنَا عُرَى الْإِسْلَامِ، وَمَا كَانَتْ دَعْوَةُ إِبْرَاهِيمَ إِلَّا لَنَا

إِبْلِيسَ فَقَالَ: {إِنَّ عِبَادِي لَيْسَ لَكَ عَلَيْهِمْ سُلْطَانٌ إِلَّا مَنِ اتَّبَعَكَ مِنَ الْغَاوِينَ}

We are the Household of mercy, the House of grace, and the House of blessing. In the earth, we are the structure and our Shi`ah are the handles of Islam. The prayer of Prophet) Abraham (‘a) was for none save us and our Shi`ah. Up to the Day of)

,Resurrection, Almighty Allah has excluded us from the sway of Iblis, saying “(Surely, as regards My servants, you have no authority over them. (۱۵:۴۲)”

In a previous chapter, we have cited how the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) treated the name, rafizi, which their enemies used for their followers. They (‘a) showed the historical root of this name, which was the protestation of righteous followers of Prophet Moses (‘a) against the children of Israel when they worshiped the calf and deserted Prophet (Aaron (‘a

As far as origin and “soil of creation” are concerned, the Shi`ah belong to select lines of descent, the most honorable lineages and the purest essences because they belong to the same “soil of creation” to which the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) belong

Abu-Dharr al-Ghifari is reported as saying: I saw the Holy Prophet (s) striking the shoulder of `Ali ibn Abi-Talib with his hand and saying

يَا عَلِيُّ؛ مَنْ أَحَبَّنَا

فَهُوَ الْعَرَبِيُّ، وَمَنْ أَبْغَضَنَا فَهُوَ الْعِلْجُ. شِيعَتُنَا أَهْلُ

O `Ali, whoever loves us

(those who are legitimately born. None is following the faith of (Prophet Abraham (‘a) except us and our Shi`ah, while all the others are outside that faith

Verily, Almighty Allah and His angels are demolishing the sins of our Shi`ah

On the authority of Imam `Ali (‘a), Al-harith has reported

Shaykh al-Mufid, al-Amali, pp. ١٤٩. However, in this reference book, the last – –١ sentence of the tradition is recorded in this form: “...in the same way as an axe demolishes a building.” The tradition is also recorded in Shaykh al-Tusi’s al-Amali, pp. ١٩٠–١٩١, H. ٣٢٢. Al-Majlisi, in Bihar al-Anwar ٤٨:٢٣, H. ٤١, has quoted this tradition from .the two earlier reference books

:the Holy Prophet (s) as saying

مَثَلِي مَثَلُ شَجَرِهِ؛ أَنَا

:Ibn `Abbas has reported that the Holy Prophet (s) said

Qualities .۳

As far as qualities of the individuals of the virtuous community are concerned, the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) described their followers with descriptions derived from the Holy Qur'an, such as salihun (righteous people), ulu'l-albab (men of excellent reason), awilya' allah (friends of Allah), musallun (performers of prayers), ashab al-yamin (companions of the right hand), khayr al-bariyyah (the best of creatures), and others

:Abu-Basir is reported to have quoted Imam al-Sadiq (‘a) as saying

وَقَدْ

ذَكَرَكُمْ اللَّهُ تَعَالَى بِقَوْلِهِ: «وَمَنْ يُطِعِ اللَّهَ وَالرَّسُولَ فَأُولَئِكَ مَعَ الَّذِينَ أَنْعَمَ اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِمْ مِنَ النَّبِيِّينَ وَالصِّدِّيقِينَ وَالشُّهَدَاءِ وَالصَّالِحِينَ وَحَسُنَ أُولَئِكَ رَفِيقًا» فَرَسٌ --وَلِ اللَّهِ فِي سِي

وَأَنْتُمْ--مُ «الصِّ--الْحُونَ.» وَأَنْتُمْ وَاللَّهُ شِيعَتُنَا.

Almighty Allah has mentioned you, saying, “Whoever obeys Allah and the Messenger, these are with those upon whom Allah has bestowed favors from among the prophets, the truthful, the martyrs, and the good. And goodly company they are! (۴:۶۹)” In this case, Allah’s Messenger represents the prophets’, and we represent ‘the truthful and the martyrs’ and you‘ represent ‘the good’. You are, by Allah, our Shi`ah

:The Imam ('a) has also said

لَقَدْ ذَكَرَكُمْ اللهُ فِي كِتَابِهِ حَيْثُ قَالَ: {هَلْ يَسْتَوِي الَّذِينَ يَعْلَمُونَ وَالَّذِينَ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ إِنَّمَا يَتَذَكَّرُ أُولُو الْأَلْبَابِ} فَنَحْنُ الَّذِينَ نَعْلَمُ، وَأَعْدَاؤُنَا الَّذِينَ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ. وَشِيعَتُنَا أُولُو الْأَلْبَابِ.

Almighty Allah has also mentioned you in His Book, saying, “Are those who know and those who do not know alike? Only the men of understanding are mindful. (۳۹:۹)” We represent ‘those who know’ and our enemies represent ‘those who do not know’ and our Shi` ah represent ‘the (men of understanding.’)

:Some jurisprudents have reported the following from Imam `Ali Amir al-Mu'minin (‘a

(أَلَا إِنَّ أَوْلِيَاءَ اللَّهِ لَا خَوْفٌ عَلَيْهِمْ وَلَا هُمْ يَحْزَنُونَ) أَتَدْرُونَ مَنْ أَوْلِيَاءُ اللَّهِ؟ هُمْ نَحْنُ
وَأَتْبَاعُنَا فَمَنْ تَبِعَنَا مِنْ بَعْدِهِمْ. طُوبَى لَنَا وَطُوبَى لَهُمْ

.will be ours and a better final state will be theirs

He was asked, “O Amir al-Mu'minin, what is the meaning of ‘a better final state will be theirs’? We and they are of the same state, are we not

:The Imam (‘a) answered

.٣٣ as quoted from the previous reference book

As far as the affiliation of the individuals of the virtuous community is concerned, the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) emphasize that these individuals are devoted to Almighty Allah, Islam, the Holy Prophet (s), and the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a), because they are actually part of the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) in affiliation and heredity, and the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) are the nearest to Almighty Allah, the Holy Prophet (s), and Islam on the basis of the following rule that is stated by the Holy Qur'an

إِنَّ أَوْلَى النَّاسِ بِإِبْرَاهِيمَ لَلَّذِينَ اتَّبَعُوهُ وَهَذَا النَّبِيُّ وَالَّذِينَ آمَنُوا وَاللَّهُ وَلِيُّ الْمُؤْمِنِينَ

Most surely, the nearest of people to Abraham are those who followed him and this Prophet and those (who believe. (٣:٦٨)

In addition, it has been uninterruptedly reported that the Holy Prophet (s) said about Salman of Persia سَلْمَانُ مِنَّا أَهْلَ الْبَيْتِ.

Salman belongs to us—the

Ahl al-Bayt

That the followers and the Shi`ah are adjuncts of the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) has also been borne out in numerous traditions that are reported from them, such as the following

:Umar ibn Yazid has been reported as saying that Imam al-Sadiq (‘a) said to him`

يَا بْنَ يَزِيدَا! أَنْتَ، وَاللَّهِ،

مِنَّا أَهْلَ الْبَيْتِ.

O Son of Yazid; by Allah I swear it; you are verily part of us—the Ahl al-Bayt

I (the reporter) asked, “May Allah accept me as ransom for you! Do you mean that I ”?am part of Muhammad’s family

p: ٧١

:The Imam answered

إي،

Yes! I swear it by Allah. You are part of Muhammad's Household themselves, `Umar. Have you not read Allah's Book saying, "Most surely, the nearest of people to Abraham are those who followed him and this Prophet and those who believe; and Allah is the guardian of the believers. (۳:۶۸)" Have you not read Allah's Book saying, "He

Whoever maintains allegiance to Muhammad’s Household and prefers them to all other people because of their relation to Allah’s Messenger, is considered one of Muhammad’s Household in the light of his status with them, but not one of the actual members of Muhammad’s Household; rather, he is one of them on the basis of maintaining allegiance to them and following them. This is the very judgment of Almighty Allah that He has declared in His Book, saying, “He

,amongst you that turns to them for friendship is of them.” (٥:٥١) Similarly Prophet Abraham (‘a) has stated (as quoted in the Holy Qur'an), “He who follows My

,ways is of me

”.and He that disobeys me, You are indeed Oft- forgiving, Most Merciful

Regarding the rank, merit, reward, status with Almighty Allah, and intellectual category that the followers of the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) deserve, the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) substantiate that the Shi`ah deserve the utmost in all these areas

Through these features and specifications, the identity of the faithful believer, who maintains true allegiance to Almighty Allah, the Holy Prophet (s), and the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a), can be defined as part of the general system that the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) set forth for individuals of the virtuous community to manage their affairs and delineate their

Relationship between the Virtuous Community and the Religious Referential Authority

The relationship between the individuals of the virtuous community and the religious referential authority is the basic organizational bond that takes charge of the affairs of these individuals because the religious authority represents the pivot while the individuals represent the foundation of this system

:The features of this relationship can be summarized in the following points

The representative of religious and political loyalty—the purport of the relationship (١) in the system of the virtuous community—is the righteous individual with all his general and perfective qualities, exhibiting decency, experience, courage, and the basic feature, reason, which leads to the capability of deducing religious laws from their sources. This is a point that differentiates the religious referential authority from the Prophet or an Imam. A Prophet or Imam is designated by name for his office, while a religious referential authority is designated by specifications and qualifications

This loyalty takes several forms at various levels: at the level of feelings like love, affection, and veneration; at the level of behavior and social conduct, such as respect and reverence; at the level of commitment and obligation, such as allegiance and covenant; or at the level of performance and practical conduct, including obeisance, compliance, support, listening to instructions, and submitting to commands

In order to thrash out this topic, we have to refer to the fact that a religious referential authority can be a referential

authority in the issuance of verdicts and the explication of religious duties; in adjudication and making judgments among disputant parties; or in management, social and political affairs where his orders must be carried out and his administration .accepted

All these responsibilities can be contained in one referential authority provided that he is qualified enough and able to undertake all of them. There can be more than one religious referential authority when proficiencies differ in their levels or when the general referential authority cannot undertake all these responsibilities at the same time or in the same region. In such cases, it becomes necessary to refer to the most skilled authority in a certain field—i.e., to refer to one authority in case of need of a religious answer about a certain issue, refer to another in case of judgment and to a third in social or political affairs—in a certain region. Such being the case, religious referential authority, as an office, can be individualized according to each well-qualified authority's competence, qualification, and sound experience

Islam has determined the criteria for worthiness in such a way that the qualities (۲) become the organizational scale for the virtuous community. These qualities include belief in Almighty Allah, the message of Islam and Imamate; piety; hard work; knowledge; and precedence in sacrifice. The organizational relationship of the virtuous community with the referential authority and leadership and the assessment .of individuals concerning the religious authority depend upon the above

The nature of this relationship is generally compulsory; that is, it is obligatory upon (۳) the individuals of the virtuous community to carry out the instructions and orders of the religious referential authority. Another feature is that each party must ,unavoidably undertake its own responsibilities carry out its duties, and retain all the rights which are connected to and inspired by .religious duties.(1) Hence, there is no alternative for either of the two parties

:This correlation can exist and be achieved through two converging activities (4)

The first is carried out by the religious referential authority who undertakes the divinely commanded responsibilities, including propagating religion, sanctifying it and .educating people

The second activity is carried out by the faithful believers who are required to undertake the mission of investigating the nominees for holding the office of the religious referential authority so as to arrive at the truth, choosing the most qualified scholar for this office and bonding with this most righteous and most reliable person (i.e. the most upright and virtuous mujtahid). Having reached the truth, the faithful .believers are then required to commit themselves morally and religiously to this bond

:Imam `Ali (a) has said

أَيُّهَا النَّاسُ، إِنَّ لِي
عَلَيْكُمْ حَقًّا، وَلَكُمْ عَلَيَّ حَقٌّ. فَأَمَّا حَقُّكُمْ عَلَيَّ
فَالنَّصِيحَةُ لَكُمْ، وَتَوْفِيرُ فِتْيَتِكُمْ عَلَيْكُمْ، وَتَعْلِيمُكُمْ
كَيْلًا تَجْهَلُوا، وَتَأْدِيبُكُمْ كَيْمًا تَعْلَمُوا. وَأَمَّا حَقِّي
عَلَيْكُمْ، فَالْوَفَاءُ بِالْبَيْعَةِ، وَالنَّصِيحَةُ فِي الْمَشْهَدِ
وَالْمَغِيبِ، وَالْإِجَابَةُ حِينَ أَدْعُوكُمْ، وَالطَّاعَةُ حِينَ أَمْرُكُمْ.

O people, I have a right over you and you have a right over me. As for your rights over me, they are to counsel you, pay you your dues fully, teach you so that you do not remain ignorant, and instruct you in the code of behavior that you must act upon. As for my rights over you, they are to fulfill the obligation of allegiance, give support whether present or absent, respond when I call upon you, and obey

This topic has been discussed in an independent thesis entitled the Relationship – ١ between the Islamic Leadership and the Muslim Community as Derived from Nahj al-Balaghah. This thesis has been published in an independent brochure .Nahj al-Balaghah, Sermon No. ٣٤ – –٢

To sum up, the religious referential authority (marji`) is required to undertake his religious, political, social, and juristic role, while the faithful believer (mu'min) is required to investigate whether the marji` meets the qualifications, terms, and regulations that must be enjoyed by the one who assumes this office so that the mu'min can realize the truth and take the exact stance that he is religiously required to take, on the basis of the indubitable Prophetic tradition which reads

مَنْ مَاتَ وَلَمْ يَعْرِفْ إِمَامَ

زَمَانِهِ مَاتَ مِيتَةً جَاهِلِيَّةً.

Whoever dies before

\(1\) recognizing the authority (i.e. Imam) of his time has died as a non-Muslim.

:Another tradition confirms

فَانظُرُوا عَلِمَكُم هَذَا

عَمَّنْ تَأْخُذُونَهُ.

You must then consider the \(2\) source from which you take your knowledge.

concerned, the individuals of the virtuous community have always identified their referential authority and religious leader to the extent that such recognition has become one of the general religious matters that characterize the followers of the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) who commit themselves to it. This is known as taqlid (i.e. reference to a well-qualified scholar to learn the religious verdicts or positions on various affairs of .life

It is however not necessary for the referential authority and the religious leader to get to know all the individuals of the community, since he can undertake his responsibilities and duties towards the virtuous community without knowing each and .every individual in person

We can now make out the basic differences between the system of the virtuous community and other standard party organizations, in which loyalty is usually given to the organization not the righteous individual and privileges are given according to activities within the organization not according to the actual qualifications of the members. Moreover, the activities of such organizations are maintained through the undertakings of the founders to gain new members, while in the system of the virtuous community, the matter is the opposite—the faithful members of the virtuous community are required to investigate the validity of the leader and elect the one .most qualified and appropriate for this office

Another difference is that sometimes the leadership has to be revealed and sometimes concealed, while in the system of the virtuous community the leadership .must be fully recognized by all the individuals

Thus the organizational scene in ordinary parties, when aiming to form an all-inclusive structure from within, is quite the opposite of the organizational scene in the system of the virtuous community established by the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) (the system of the religious referential authority)

The rules for establishment of any party inside the system of the virtuous community will be discussed under the title of ‘establishment

Point

The Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) established the limits and content of the relationship between the religious leadership and the nation after clarifying the significance of their authority and Imamate in the sphere of the virtuous community and the general sphere of their followers. They then embarked on organizing their followers by means of marking out .the boundaries of the relationship between their followers and themselves

They presented and confirmed the following two forms of relationships, which were .required simultaneously, and declared that they complemented one another

Direct Connection

The first form of relationship is a direct connection of individuals of the virtuous community with the Holy Imams of the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) and with the religious leadership by means of meetings, visits, correspondence, listening to their instructions and directives, undergoing the difficulties of journeys to reach them and taking advantage of possible opportunities to meet with them at times of .congregational gathering, such as the hajj season

The Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) paid much attention to such means of connection; therefore, they used to send letters, use messengers, and write precepts involving general .instructions for their Shi`ah and followers

A large number of traditions and texts can be observed focusing on this course and concentrating on using this form and style in order to embody the relationship between the leadership and the people. Other traditions imply that the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) .and their Shi`ah used to practice this type of relationship with dedication

In this respect, there are many reported texts entailing that the acme of hajj is to (meet and visit the Holy Imams (‘a).

Through an authentic chain of authority, Shaykh al-Kulayni has reported Imam
:Muhammad al-Baqir (‘a) as saying

إِنَّمَا أَمْرَ النَّاسِ أَنْ

يَأْتُوا هَذِهِ الْأَحْجَارَ فَيَطَّوَّفُوا بِهَا ثُمَّ يَأْتُونَا

فَيُخْبِرُونَا بِوِلَايَتِهِمْ، وَيَعْرِضُوا عَلَيْنَا نَصْرَهُمْ.

Actually, people have been ordered to come to these stones and circumambulate them and then come to us

\(1\) to show their loyalty to us and offer their support for us.

:Jabir has reported Imam al-Baqir (‘a) as saying

تَمَامُ الْحَجِّ لِقَاءَ

الْإِمَامِ.

The acme of hajj is to

\(2\) visit the Imam.

Yahya ibn Yasar has reported that he and his companions once went on hajj and then
:visited Imam al-Sadiq (‘a) who said to them

حَاجَّ بَيْتِ اللَّهِ وَرُؤِيَ

قَبْرِ نَبِيِّهِ، صَلَّى اللَّهُ عَلَيْهِ وَآلِهِ، وَشِيعَةَ آلِ مُحَمَّدٍ،

O pilgrims of Almighty

Allah's House, visitors of His Prophet's tomb, and partisans (Shi`ah) of Dharir al-Muharibi is reported to have said that he once said to Imam al-Sadiq (a), "In

Dharir replied, "It is His saying, "Then, let them complete {ثُمَّ لِيَقْضُوا تَفَنَّهُمْ} لِقَاءِ الْإِمَامِ، {وَلْيُؤْفُوا نُذُورَهُمْ} تِلْكَ الْمَنَاسِكُ.

Completion of the rites is

.to meet the Imam, and performing of the vows is to do the rituals

Abdullah ibn Sinan said: When I heard this, I came to Imam al-Sadiq (‘a) and asked`
:him for the interpretation of this holy verse. He (‘a) answered

{ثُمَّ لِيَقْضُوا تَفَنَّهُمْ} أَخَذُ الشَّارِبِ وَقَصُّ الْأَظْفَرِ وَمَا شَابَهُ

.the hair of your mustache, to trim your nails, and the like

I said, “May Allah accept me as your ransom! Dharih al-Muharibi has told me that you

:The Imam (‘a) replied

صَدَقَ ذَرِيحٌ

:Imam al-Sadiq (‘a) is also reported to have said

إِذَا حَجَّ أَحَدُكُمْ

فَلْيُخْتِمِ حَجَّهُ بِنِيَارَتِنَا، لِأَنَّ ذَلِكَ مِنْ تَمَامِ الْحَجِّ.

In addition to these narrations, there are others encouraging visiting the Holy Imams
(a) during their lifetimes and after their death

Muhammad ibn Sinan has reported on the authority of Muhammad ibn `Ali that the (Holy Prophet (s) said to Imam `Ali (a يا

عَلِيٌّ، مَنْ زَارَنِي فِي حَيَاتِي أَوْ بَعْدَ مَمَاتِي أَوْ زَارَكَ فِي
حَيَاتِكَ أَوْ بَعْدَ مَمَاتِكَ أَوْ زَارَ ابْنَيْكَ فِي حَيَاتِهِمَا أَوْ
بَعْدَ مَمَاتِهِمَا ضَمِنْتُ لَهُ يَوْمَ الْقِيَامَةِ أَنْ أُخَلِّصَهُ مِنْ
أَهْوَالِهَا وَشَدَائِدِهَا حَتَّى أَصِيرَهُ مَعِيَ فِي دَرَجَتِي.

O `Ali, whoever visits me in my lifetime or after my death or visits you in your lifetime or after your death or visits your two sons in their lifetimes or after their death, I guarantee that I shall save him from the horrors and tribulations of the Day of Resurrection such that I bring (him up to my rank. (1)

Other traditions that are reported from the Ahl al-Bayt (a) assert that they are in wait for and in expectation of their Shi`ah to visit them

:Ali ibn `Abd al-`Aziz has reported that he heard Imam al-Sadiq (a) saying`

وَاللَّهِ، إِنِّي لِأَحِبُّ رِيحَكُمْ وَأَرْوَا حُكْمَكُمْ
وَرُؤُوسَيْتُمْ وَزِيَارَتَكُمْ، وَإِنِّي لَعَلَى دِينِ اللَّهِ وَدِينِ
مَلَائِكَتِهِ؛ فَأَعِينُونِي عَلَى ذَلِكَ بَوْرَعٍ. أَنَا فِي الْمَدِينَةِ
بِمَنْزِلَةِ الشَّعْرَةِ، أَتَقَلِّقُ حَتَّى أَرَى الرَّجُلَ مِنْكُمْ

I swear, I do love your fragrance and your souls and I love meeting you on your visits to me. I am verily following the religion of Allah and of His angels, so help me continue this way by means of piety that you show. In al-Madinah, I live like a hair. I keep on shaking until I see one of you and feel comforted by his presence.

Confirming this course, some traditions indicate that the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) ordered their followers to wait until they would have an opportunity to meet them in the case where they (i.e. the followers) were in doubt concerning opposing narrations reported to them from their Imams

In the last part of the famous accepted tradition of ` Umar ibn hanzalah, the Imam (‘a) instructed him saying

إِذَا كَانَ ذَلِكْ، فَأَرْجُهُ

حَتَّى تَلْقَى إِمَامَكَ، فَإِنَّ الْوُقُوفَ عِنْدَ الشُّبُهَاتِ خَيْرٌ مِنَ

الْإِفْتِحَامِ فِي الْهَلَكَاتِ.

If such (doubt) takes place, you must suspend it until you meet your Imam. Verily, to stop at dubious matters is better than to engage oneself in matters that bring about (perdition).

This is one of the distinctive features of the system that the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) founded for the virtuous community. Organizations, including the military and the secret service, depend upon the sequence of ranks in their connections with the members of their parties, and political or religious leaders of such organizations hide themselves behind curtains or closed doors. On the other hand, the religious and political leaders in the Ahl al-Bayt’s system insisted on direct connections or meetings with the individuals of this community. However, such connection must be made at an appropriate and wide open level within limits imposed for security, unless there is an exceptional situation such as the leader being imprisoned, besieged, or hidden

Deputy System

The second form of relationship is represented by delegating trustworthy (representatives (wakil) to the various regions in which followers of the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a live, instructing the followers to refer to these representatives (or deputies) to receive the instructions of the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) in the case that it is difficult to contact the Holy Imams (‘a) directly. This method was especially employed after the area in which followers lived had expanded

.Al-hurr al-` Amili, Wasa'il al-Shi` ah ۱۸:۷۶, H. ۱ --۱

These deputies (who exercised authority for the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a)) played various roles like updating religious laws, conveying political and social conditions, passing on instructions and ethical advice, collecting authorized funds and duties, solving disputations and conflicts that took place, or undertaking certain missions and duties that were connected to Imamate, such as custody of mortmain (i.e. waqf—they supervised the development of property for charitable or religious use) and guardianship of those underage who had no financial supporter. Some of these deputies used to undertake all these missions while others specialized in certain fields

This system seems to have existed, although restrictedly, in the various ages of the Holy Imams (‘a); however, it manifested itself plainly in the age of Imam al-Sadiq (‘a) through the famous personalities whom the Imam (‘a) nominated to do various activities—in the field of jurisprudence as well as other fields. This has been previously discussed in the first chapter under the title ‘Issuance of Verdicts

In the age of Imam al-Kazim (‘a), this system expanded, as is demonstrated by the development of the incident of the al-Waqifah faction<sup>(1)</sup> whose members had been the deputies

Al-Waqifah (literally, those who suspend or cut short) is a faction including those – ۱ who cut short the Imamate with Imam Musa ibn Ja`far al-Kazim (‘a) and did not believe in its extension to the following Imams. This name (i.e. waqifah) might also be given to those who cut short the Imamate with other Imams (‘a). However, the general sense of this name refers to those who cut short the Imamate with Imam al-Kazim (‘a). Although there were many reasons for the emergence of this faction, we will mention only three of them: (١) They aspired for funds and gains which some deputies who had direct, albeit fairly secret, connections with Imam al-Kazim (‘a) used to levy. These funds, from khumus (a one-fifth tax imposed on profits one time only), were paid by the Shi`ah expansively during the age of Imam al-Kazim (‘a)—a topic that will be discussed in the volume entitled Economic System of the Virtuous Community. (٢) The ample political movement of Imam al-Kazim (‘a) and the political changes in the `Abbasid dynasty at the time Harun al-Rashid came to power made many of the individuals of the virtuous community believe that Imam al-Kazim (‘a) would certainly be the Imam who would ‘undertake the Matter’ (i.e. he would be the expected Imam whom the Holy Prophet (s) had predicted to fill the earth with justice), so they lived in a state of waiting and expectation that the Imam would do so. However, the mysterious and surreptitious martyrdom of Imam al-Kazim (‘a) in prison brought to surface good grounds to believe in such claim. (٣) Imam `Ali ibn Musa al-Riza (‘a), Imam al-Kazim’s son and heir, had not yet had a male child to succeed him in Imamate, while the Shi`ah believe that each Imam must be succeeded by his male child up to the twelfth Imam. Seizing this opportunity, the suspenders of Imamate propagated their false claims. However, Imam Muhammad al-Jawad (‘a) was born a relatively long time after the Imamate of Imam al-Riza (‘a). We therefore observe that Imam al-Riza (‘a) was able to almost put an end to this faction through his own .(activities, especially after the birth of Imam al-Jawad (‘a

.of Imam al-Kazim (‘a) and seized the funds of the religious levies

p: ۹۵

In the ages of the following Imams, the deputy system became so permanent that the general sense of this name ‘wakil’ came to express the very sense that entails exercising authority on behalf of the Holy Imams (‘a). In the Minor Occultation Age, this name took its perfect form when the Four Emissaries(۱) undertook a mission more far-reaching than mere deputies. This mission was the general deputation of .the Awaited Imam—may Allah hasten his advent—during the Minor Occultation Age

A deep investigation of the personalities of these Four Emissaries proves that the basic feature on the strength of which a certain person was designated was complete trustworthiness along with capability to undertake and continue the responsibility. Apart from this quality, a designated nominee had to be foremost in knowledge and social conduct. Some persons who lived at the same time as the Four Emissaries were matchlessly well-known for their knowledge and virtue, as proven by the heritage that they left. One of these is Shaykh Muhammad ibn Ya`qub al-Kulayni who is considered to be one of the reformists in the early third century. There were also other persons who enjoyed prominent positions with the Emissaries who had full trust in them to the extent that these persons were deputed to their offices. Nevertheless, .this office was given to those who possessed the highest level of these qualities

Bringing this fact up, Shaykh al-Tusi in his book, Kitab al-Ghaybah, has reported `Ali :ibn Bilal ibn Mu`awiyah al-Muhallabi as saying

The Four Emissaries are `Uthman ibn Sa`id al-`Umari, Abu-Ja`far Muhammad ibn -۱
`Uthman ibn Sa`id, Abu'l-Qasim al-husayn ibn Rawh an Nubakhti, Abu'l-hasan `Ali
.ibn Muhammad al-Samari

Our mentors said: We had had no doubt at all that if anything happened to Abu-Ja`far Muhammad ibn `Uthman al-`Umari, none would take his office except Ja`far ibn Muhammad ibn Mattil or his father. Abu-Ja`far used to spend most of his time in Ja`far's house to the extent that he, in the last years of his lifetime, would not eat any food except that which was cooked in the house of Ja`far ibn Ahmad ibn Mattil and his father. Hence, our mentors had no doubt at all that if anything happened to Abu-Ja`far, he would certainly designate Ja`far to the office of deputy. However, when Abu-Ja`far passed away and Abu'l-Qasim al-husayn ibn Rawh was chosen for this office, our companions accepted the matter without objection. They then treated the new emissary in the same way they did Abu-Ja`far. As for Ja`far ibn Ahmad ibn Mattil, he put himself at the disposal of Abu'l-Qasim as he did with Abu-Ja`far until he \(passed away.\)

This narration refers to the aforementioned fact and, at the same time, reveals the supreme level of sincerity and piety that characterized the personalities of Ja`far ibn Ahmad ibn Mattil and his father

Organizing the internal relationship of the virtuous community<sup>(1)</sup> comes second in importance; therefore, the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) endeavored to establish these relationships on fixed and clear-cut bases. Generally, this aspect is considered an important feature in the organizational framework of any group or community. The only way to perfect the structure of the virtuous community and to build it on clear-cut foundations that are capable of encountering, enduring, and acclimatizing various circumstances is to identify the nature of these relationships and make clear the responsibilities, duties, outcomes, consequences, and form of these relationships.

The Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) did actually themselves identify the content, rights, and form of these relationships, which can be seen in the following points

Content of the Relationship

The Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) affirmed that the core of the relationship among the individuals of the virtuous community is the relationship of belief in Almighty Allah and in the message of Islam and loyalty to the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a). In other words, this relationship is the same mutual relationship between two faithful believers, as cited by the Holy Qur'an

More details about the system of relationships among Muslims and the believers, – – along with its foundations, bases, regulations, and laws, will be cited in the sixth book of this series. Details of the superstructure of this system will also be cited. Therefore, we will only refer to the general outlines of this system in this chapter

وَالْمُؤْمِنُونَ وَالْمُؤْمِنَاتُ بَعْضُهُمْ أَوْلِيَاءُ بَعْضٍ

As for the believing men and the believing women, they (are guardians of each other. (٩:٧١)

However, according to the Ahl al-Bayt's teachings, faith must be perfect—a point that characterizes the virtuous community from other groups and communities. Such perfection can be attained only when belief in the divinely commissioned leadership of the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) and loyalty to them in the capacity of their being the leaders of the Muslim nation as designated by Almighty Allah is attached to the belief in Almighty (Allah and His Prophet (s

In its content, the mutual relationship among the individuals of the virtuous community is not mere faith-based and cordial commitment; rather, it extends to the feelings and emotions in the inner self so that it is characterized by a sense of mutual affection and love for the sake of Almighty Allah and, at the same time, for other believers.

In his book of al-Kafi, Shaykh al-Kulayni has reported through an authentic chain of authority that Abu-`Ubaydah al-hadhaha' reported Imam al-Sadiq (‘a) as saying

مَنْ

أَحَبَّ لِلَّهِ، وَأَبْغَضَ لِلَّهِ، وَأَعْطَى لِلَّهِ، فَهُوَ كَمَنْ كَمَلَ إِي-مَانُهُ.

He who loves, hates, and gives for the sake of Allah

\(1\) actually enjoys perfect faith.

:a`id al-A`raj has reported Imam al-Sadiq (‘a) as saying

مِنْ أَوْثِقِ عُرَى الْإِي-مَانِ أَنْ تُحِبَّ فِي اللَّهِ،

وَتُبْغِضَ فِي اللَّهِ، وَتُعْطَى فِي اللَّهِ، وَتَمْنَعَ فِي اللَّهِ.

,One of the firmest handles of faith is to love, hate give and withhold exclusively for the sake of Almighty Allah.

.Al-hurr al-` Amili, Wasa'il al-Shi` ah, ۱۱:۴۳۱, H. ۲ – -۲

Moreover, authentic traditions read that faith and religion are in fact nothing but this love.

In his book of al-Mahasin, al-Barqi, through an authentic chain of authority, reported that Fuzayl ibn Yasar asked Imam al-Sadiq (‘a) whether to love and to hate for Allah’s sake is part of faith.

The Imam (‘a) answered:

وَهَلِ الْإِيمَانُ إِلَّا الْحُبُّ وَالكُورَةُ؟

Is true faith anything

?other than such love and hate

Then, the Imam (‘a) cited the following Qur'anic verse to confirm his words:

وَلَكِنَّ اللَّهَ حَبَّبَ إِلَيْكُمُ الْإِيمَانَ وَزَيَّنَهُ فِي قُلُوبِكُمْ وَكَرَّهَ إِلَيْكُمُ الْكُفْرَ وَالْفُسُوقَ وَالْعِصْيَانَ أُولَئِكَ هُمُ الرَّاشِدُونَ

Allah has endeared the faith to you and has made it seemly in your hearts, and He has made hateful to you unbelief and transgression and disobedience; these it is that are the \(1\) \(49:7\) followers of a right way.

According to another authentic report, Imam al-Baqir (‘a) states that this love must be based on belief in Almighty Allah, His Prophet (s), and the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) and it must (also be based on love and fondness for the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a

Rights of Relationship

The relationship among the individuals of the virtuous community is a relationship of reciprocal rights, responsibilities, obligations, and duties towards one another among the faithful believers in particular and Muslims in

:general. These rights can be summed up as follows

Mutual Support: Imam Ja`far al-Sadiq (‘a) on the authority of his fathers has reported
:the Holy Prophet (s) as saying

مَنْ سَمِعَ رَجُلًا يُنَادِي يَا social solidarity: It is obligatory upon each Muslim to conceal the flaws of his brother—(in-faith, to meet his needs for food, and to help him in his livelihood. (2)

:Abu-Basir has reported Imam al-Baqir (‘a) as saying

وَلَيْتُنِي أَعُولَ أَهْلِ بَيْتٍ
مِنَ الْمُسْلِمِينَ، أَشْبَعُ جُوعَتَهُمْ وَأَكْسُو عَوْرَتَهُمْ وَأَكْفُو
وَجُوهَهُمْ عَنِ النَّاسِ أَحَبُّ إِلَيَّ مِنْ أَنْ أَحْجَّ حِجَّةً وَحِجَّةً... حَتَّىٰ إِنْتَهَىٰ إِلَىٰ عَشْرٍ... وَمِثْلَهَا وَمِثْلَهَا...

Al-Kha<sup>(۴)</sup>ab al-Kufi and Mus`ab ibn `Abdullah have reported that Sadir al-Sayrafi visited Imam al-Sadiq (‘a) when a group of his companions were with him. The Imam : (‘a) said to Sadir

Most surely, we never order you to carry out an unfair matter; rather, we always order you to be pious, be pious, be pious and to treat your brethren-in-faith the same way you treat yourselves. Verily, the true saints of Allah have been always deemed weak and few in number since Almighty Allah created (Prophet) Adam

فَإِنَّهُ لَكَ ظَهْرٌ، إِذَا غَابَ فَأَحْفَظْهُ فِي غَيْبَتِهِ، وَإِذَا شَهِدَ
فَزُرَّهُ، وَأَجَلَّهُ وَأَكْرَمَهُ، فَإِنَّهُ مِنْكَ وَأَنْتَ مِنْهُ، فَإِنْ
كَانَ عَلَيْكَ عَاتِبًا فَلَا تُفَارِقْهُ حَتَّى تَسْأَلَ سَمِيحَتَهُ، وَإِنْ
أَصَابَهُ خَيْرٌ فَاحْمِدِ اللَّهَ، وَإِنْ ابْتُلِيَ فَأَغْضُدْهُ، وَإِنْ
تَمَحَّلَ لَهُ فَأَعِنِّهِ، وَإِذَا قَالَ الرَّجُلُ لِأَخِيهِ: أَفُّ،
إِنْقَطَعَ مَا بَيْنَهُمَا مِنَ الْوِلَايَةِ، وَإِذَا قَالَ: أَنْتَ عَدُوِّي،
كَفَرَ أَحَدُهُمَا، فَإِذَا اتَّهَمَهُ إِثْمَاتَ الْإِيمَانِ فِي قَلْبِهِ كَمَا يُنْمَاتُ الْمَلْحُ فِي الْمَاءِ.

The right of one Muslim over another is that he must not eat his full while the other is starving; he must not quench his thirst while the other is thirsty; and he must not dress himself while the other is naked. How great then the right of one Muslim over another! Love for your Muslim brother what you love for yourself. If you need something, you should ask it from him, and if he needs something from you, you should give it to him. Do not deprive him of any good thing lest he deprives you of the same. Be his support, for he is your support. You should defend him when he is absent and visit, respect, and honor him when he is present, because he is part of you and you are part of him. If he has words of blame for you, do not leave him before you ask his forgiveness. If he gains something good, then thank Almighty Allah for it, and if a tribulation befalls him, support him. If he is troubled, help him. If one says to one's brother-in-faith, "ugh!" then their friendship has ruptured, and if one says, "You are my enemy!" then one of them has abandoned faith, and if one accuses one's brother-in-faith of something one's faith will dissolve from one's heart in the same way as salt dissolves

This mutual relationship must take a specific form in social and political arenas. For that reason, we can see that the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) presented a certain natural formula to govern these relationships. This special formula was the authorization of holding special meetings that included the individuals of the virtuous community in particular. Having instructed their followers to hold as many meetings and assemblies as possible, the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) advised them to dedicate these meetings to discussing various affairs, including both public and private affairs, as well as doctrinal, cultural and social issues.

Muhammad ibn `Ali ibn al-husayn has reported Imam al-Sadiq (‘a) as asking Fuzayl, “Do you regularly gather and mention us

Fuzayl answered, “Yes, we do

External Relations with Other Groups

The identification of the type and nature of relations between a certain group and other external groups and communities is very important. To apply this to the individuals of the virtuous community, it is important to single out the nature of their relations with other groups, including: (a) Muslims in general, (b) enemies of the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a), (c) enemies of the followers of the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a), (d) despotic ruling authorities, and (e) enemies of Islam, including polytheists, Christians, Jews and Dhimmis<sup>(1)</sup> that were hostile to Islam. The Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) identified the character of the relationships required towards each of these categories

As a general requirement, the individuals of the virtuous community are instructed to coexist with all Muslims; to cooperate, support, and try to maintain equal terms with them in common affairs related to interests of the Muslim nation and the common doctrines of Islam; to renounce the enemies of Almighty Allah, Islam, and the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a); and to address the hostility of their enemies. At the same time, however, they are required to protect themselves from the vices and aggression of other groups and avoid engaging in intense disputations with them (as will be discussed in the coming book on the Security System

They are also instructed to avoid unjust ruling authorities and refrain from cooperating with them. As for heretic, evil, and wicked people, the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) instructed their followers to not only boycott them but also resist them under certain conditions and circumstances

Regarding their relationship with the general population of Muslims, the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) confirmed abiding by the principle of coexistence and even taking the initiative to .establish good relations based on firm foundations

According to an authentic tradition, Shaykh al-Kulayni has reported Mu`awiyah ibn Wahab to have said that he, once, asked Imam al-Sadiq (‘a), “What should be the ”?nature of our relations with our people and with those whom we meet

:The Imam (‘a) answered

Regarding relations with the anti-Shi`ah (Nawasib) and other enemies of the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) who perpetrate their hostility either purposefully or by ignoring the existence of the Imams, the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) instructed their followers to renounce such groups in their hearts while at the same time being courteous to them in order to be saved from their evil and avoid their harm and aggression

These instructions can be concluded in the traditions that were reported about the principle of taqiyyah, which will be cited in the coming book, Security System of the :Virtuous Community. However, let us cite two traditions only

Regarding relations with the heretic, the faithless, and their likes, the Holy Imams (‘a) instructed their followers to stay away from and resist this category of people. The same applies to atheists, polytheists, and Christians and Jews hostile to Islam

An authentic tradition that is reported from Abu-hamzah al-Thamali holds that Imam :` Ali ibn al-husayn Zayn al-` Abidin (‘a), in a long discourse, said

إِيَّاكُمْ وَصُحْبَهُ الْعَاصِينَ

The Holy Imams (‘a) also conveyed to their followers the necessity of staying at the borders of the Islamic state so as to defend it against the invasions of polytheists and anti-Islam militants

Muhammad ibn Muslim and Zurarah have reported Imam al-Baqir and Imam al-Sadiq (‘a) as saying

الرِّبَاطُ ثَلَاثَةٌ أَيَّامٍ،
وَأَكْثَرُهُ أَرْبَعُونَ يَوْمًا، فَإِذَا جَاوَزَ ذَلِكَ فَهُوَ جِهَادٌ.

Ribat (guarding the borders) is three days at least and forty days as a maximum. If it exceeds

\(1\) this period, it is then jihad.

In spite of this situation, the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) granted their followers the opportunity to make use of polytheists, when necessary, in order to take refuge in the territories that are under their domination so as to avoid pursuit and persecution when such territories can grant them security against persecution which Muslim territories cannot hammad al-Samandi has reported that he said to Imam al-Sadiq (‘a), “I usually travel to the cities of the polytheists, but some of our companions claim that if I die in these

:hammad answered affirmatively, so the Imam asked again

فَإِذَا كُنْتَ فِي هَذِهِ
الْمُدُنِ، مُدُنِ الْإِسْلَامِ، تَذَكَّرُ أَمْرَنَا وَتَدْعُو إِلَيْهِ؟

When you live in the

?territories of Muslims, can you mention our faith and invite people to it

:The Imam then said

Regarding the relationship with the Dhimmis, the Holy Imams (‘a) persistently instructed their followers to treat this category of people with care, mercy, and justice based on the teachings of Islam

Muhammad ibn Abi-hamzah has reported the following on the authority of a man who

In an earlier chapter (General Policies), we have referred to the details of some of these topics and we will refer to others in the following volumes (Security System and (the System of Social Relations

Concerning the main point of this topic, there are three forms of relationships that the virtuous community has with other groups and communities

First Form: Coexistence, openness, and cooperation. This must be the attitude adopted with Muslims in general and with Dhimmis (With Dhimmis these characteristics must come together with caution against negative reactions

Second Form: Renunciation along with dissimulation. This attitude is adopted with the persistent and ignorant enemies of the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) and the enemies of the virtuous community in an attempt to defend the individuals of the virtuous community on the one hand and maintain unity of the Muslim nation on the other

Third Form: Resistance and renunciation. This approach should be adopted against the atheists, the unjust rulers, and the factions of heresy and deviation

.More light will be shed on this topic in a later volume of this series

CHAPTER FOUR: POLITICAL TRENDS AND FOUNDATIONS

Point

Prelude .۱

(Political Trends during the Ages of the Holy Imams (‘a .۲

Political Policies and Foundations .۳

p: ۱۱۷

p: 118

The policies and starting points in the general system of the virtuous community embody the fundamental political and social constituents that make up the political and social framework within which the virtuous community functions and on the basis of which it can adopt a stance in all corresponding events and situations

Any group that intends to move forward with accurate and purposeful steps that correspond with its faith and slogans and achieve its goals along the path of perfection must first of all adopt general, fixed policies according to which it can move forward and discontinue. It must also adopt a number of fundamental principles to achieve its goals and act according to a criterion which distinguishes true from false features to be adopted for its movement. These fundamental principles are the distinctive features of a certain group or community

The fundamental principles of the religion of Islam are clearly belief in Almighty Allah and His Oneness; profession of the Holy Prophet Muhammad's message of Islam and Almighty Allah's commands; and belief in the Hereafter and ensuing matters, such as settlement of accounts, judgment, reward, and punishment—which constitute the general doctrinal, intellectual, and ethical basis of a Muslim individual. As a second step, these principles play an independent role in the actions of the Muslim individual

However, the political and social reality involves details that require more identification and clearer delineation. In such cases, advantages are confused with disadvantages, personal views vary to a great extent, and slogans intertwine, making it critical to pinpoint the political and social frame—especially when we take into consideration the fact that there are various political parties and factions in Muslim communities—through which accurate positions can be assumed and distinctions be made between true and false views or right and wrong mottos and claims. Each party lays claim to being Muslim, raises slogans of adherence to Islam and attempts to justify its ideas and activities on the basis of texts from the Holy Qur'an and Holy Sunnah or on the basis of the supreme interests of Islam

Under such conditions, the important role of the religious and political referential authority surfaces, because he is the most qualified and the most appropriate to specify the actual political attitudes towards secondary issues of both the Muslim nation and the virtuous community. Of course, such an authority must possess the faculty of inference in the fields of jurisprudence and policy, be pious and devout and have political and social experience

Under this title, we will refer to diverse political trends that existed during the periods of the Holy Imams (‘a) requiring clarification and a clear-cut position

Power-Seeking Trend

The one and only aim of the power-seeking trend was to come to power in order to gain personal goals, personal profit, esteem, authority, more income and satiation of man’s natural inclination for supremacy, primacy and material desires

Obvious examples on this trend can be noticed in the mutinous movement of Talhah, Zubayr, and ‘A’ishah against Imam ‘Ali, the Commander of the Faithful (‘a), in al-Basrah and in the rebellion of the Umayyad and the ‘Abbasid dynasties in general, as well as in some external conflicts against these dynasties, such as the uprisings of ‘Abdullah ibn al-Zubayr,<sup>(1)</sup>

Abdullah ibn al-Zubayr ibn al-‘Awwam, of the tribe of Quraysh and the clan of ‘Asad, had the kunyah (i.e. epithet) Abu-Bakr, which was the kunyah of his maternal grandfather. His mother, Asma’, the daughter of Abu-Bakr, emigrated (to al-Madinah) while she was pregnant and gave birth to ‘Abdullah. He participated in an expedition to Africa with ‘Abdullah ibn Abi-Sarh and killed the commander of the Roman army; namely, Georges, in AH ۶۴. Having taken advantage of the public grudge against the Umayyad ruling authorities after the martyrdom of Imam husayn (‘a) and the event of al-harrah, ‘Abdullah ibn al-Zubayr declared a mass insurrection in Makkah and the groups of the Khawarij, the escapees from al-Madinah, and others joined his revolt. The Umayyad ruling authority sent its forces, under the command of husayn ibn Numayr al-Sakuni, to besiege him in the holy city of Makkah. They struck the Holy Ka`bah with manjaniq (a weapon carrying stony-balls that are thrown on strongholds and fortresses) and burnt it down. These acts infuriated the Muslims and ‘Abdullah ibn al-Zubayr gained more support and aid. At the same time as the situation attained its climax, the royal house declared the death of Yazid ibn Mu`awiyah. As a result, pressure on `Abdullah ibn al-Zubayr decreased, granting him an opportunity to declare himself the caliph (i.e. ruler; vicegerent of the Holy Prophet (s)). The peoples of Egypt, Hijaz, Yemen, Iraq, and Khurasan (northern Persia) swore allegiance to him, but the people of Sham (currently Syria, Jordan, Lebanon, and Palestine) ho paid homage to Marwan ibn al-hakam. `Abdullah ibn al-Zubayr declared al-Madinah as the center of his sovereignty and remained in power as caliph until `Abd al-Malik ibn Marwan held the leadership of the Umayyad rule. In AH ٧٢, the Umayyad ruler (i.e. `Abd al-Malik) ordered an army, under the command of Hajjaj ibn Yusuf al-Thaqafi, to suppress `Abdullah ibn al-Zubayr's revolt, so the latter moved to Makkah, but Hajjaj followed him there and a war that lasted for six months and seventeen nights flared up in the center of Makkah. This war ended when `Abdullah ibn al-Zubayr was killed in AH ٧٣ after his supporters gave him up so terribly and surrendered themselves to Hajjaj in huge groups, one of which included about ten thousand persons. Among those who left `Abdullah and joined Hajjaj were the sons of Hamzah and Habib. As a consequence, Hijaz came under Umayyad dominion once more. Abd al-Rahman ibn al-Ash`ath ibn Qays al-Kindi belonged to the lineage of the ` -۱ kings of Kindah. The governor of Iraq, hajjaj, appointed him as the commander of a military operation against the Turkish king Rutabil, who ruled the territories beyond Sajistan. Hence, `Abd al-Rahman invaded some parts of these territories, seized some strongholds, and took over some of the spoils. He then wrote a letter to hajjaj informing him of these events and suggesting that he would not enter the lands of Rutabil without examining the approaches and exit routes of these lands. However, hajjaj accused him of weakness and failure and ordered him to continue the takeover of those lands. `Abd al-Rahman, then discussed hajjaj's orders with his companions who disapproved of them and agreed on forsaking obedience to hajjaj. Hence, they swore allegiance to `Abd al-Rahman that they would depose hajjaj and throw him out of Iraq. Some of them drew attention to the fact that if they deposed hajjaj it would mean opposing `Abd al-Malik ibn Marwan because the former was appointed by the latter, so they agreed on deposing `Abd al-Malik, too. In AH ۸۱, `Abd al-Rahman ibn al-Ash`ath entered al-Basrah where all the people, including important personalities like the aged chiefs and the famous reciters of the Holy Qur'an, swore allegiance to him in deposing hajjaj and `Abd al-Malik ibn Marwan. When he was informed, hajjaj wrote a letter to `Abd al-Malik informing him about `Abd al-Rahman's mutiny and asking for more troops to fight against him. In Muharram AH ۸۲, the two armies met in a place called al-Zawiyah where they fought a violent battle. In this clash, `Abd al-Rahman ibn al-Ash`ath overcame the troops of the Umayyad ruling authorities, defeating the tribes of Quraysh and Thaqif who ran away and joined hajjaj. In the last days of Muharram AH ۸۳, the two armies met again to fight, but this time hajjaj was the victor. After his defeat, `Abd al-Rahman retreated towards Kufah, but hajjaj chased him and a battle took place in an area near Kufah called Dayr al-Jamajim. In this battle, hajjaj overcame him and forced `Abd al-Rahman to leave for Basrah. hajjaj chased him again and fought against him in a place called Maskan where he defeated him a second time. This new defeat forced `Abd al-Rahman to retreat to Sajistan and join Rutabil. In AH ٨٥, hajjaj wrote a threatening letter to Rutabil asking him to arrest and surrender `Abd al-Rahman ibn al-Ash`ath to him. Consequently, Rutabil arrested `Abd al-Rahman and sent him to hajjaj. As soon as he had `Abd al-Rahman in custody, hajjaj executed him and sent his head to `Abd al-Malik ibn Marwan. tendencies and the influence on the goals of these movements, gaining power was the most important objective of these power-seekers who took action and gained positions in obedience to this objective. Of course, there were other issues which directed these power-seekers and their supporters to seize the most appropriate .opportunity to act

Chaotic Trend

The second trend, characterized by disorganization, rejected the current political conditions on account of certain policies of the ruling authority that were disapproved of by a certain group or sect for various reasons. One reason was religious or human deterrents when a group or sect was exposed to oppression or persecution. Another reason was excess by the ruling authority in going beyond religious boundaries or criteria according to the belief of a specific group or sect. In addition, personal interests, ignorance, and naivety sometimes played a role in the emergence of such rejection. In short, the general characteristic of this chaotic trend was absence of a clear-cut revolutionary program, since it adopted rejection as the basis of its political movement and searched for points of weakness to strike a chord of conflict with the .ruling authority or other political trends

The best example of a chaotic trend was the Khawarij who seized all opportunities possible to act against the ruling authority, especially when this would cause political conditions to worsen and the rejecting movements to increase.

For instance, the Khawarij raised the slogan of 'Judgment is Allah's alone' against Imam `Ali ('a) and against the Umayyad and `Abbasid dynasties thereafter.

Giving a general assessment of their political movement Imam `Ali ('a) used to describe them and their slogan as follows:

كَلِمَةٌ حَقٌّ يُرَادُ بِهَا

بَاطِلٌ. نَعَمْ، إِنَّهُ لَا حُكْمَ إِلَّا لِلَّهِ، وَلَكِنَّ هَؤُلَاءِ

يَقُولُونَ: لَا إِمْرَةَ إِلَّا لِلَّهِ. وَإِنَّهُ لَا بُدَّ لِلنَّاسِ مِنْ

أَمِيرٍ بَرٍّ أَوْ فَاجِرٍ.

The sentence is true but what they mean by it is false. It is true that judgment lies with none but

Allah, but these people say that the function of governance is only for (Allah. The fact is that there is no escape for people from good or bad rulers.)

Imam `Ali ('a) also prohibited his Shi`ah and followers to fight against the Khawarij to the benefit of the Umayyads. He thus said:

لَا تُقَاتِلُوا الْخَوَارِجَ

بَعْدِي، فَلَيْسَ مَنْ طَلَبَ الْحَقَّ فَأَخْطَأَهُ كَمَنْ طَلَبَ الْبَاطِلَ

فَأَذْرَكَهُ.

Do not fight the Khawarij

\(who seeks wrong and finds it.\)

.Nahj al-Balaghah, Sermon No. ۴۰ -- ۱

.Nahj al-Balaghah, Sermon No. ۶۱ -- ۲

:He (‘a) predicted that the Khawarij would finally turn into thieves and robbers

كَلَّا وَاللَّهِ، إِنَّهُمْ نُطِفُ فِي أَصْلَابِ الرِّجَالِ،
وَقَرَارَاتِ النِّسَاءِ، كُلَّمَا نَجَمَ مِنْهُمْ قَرْنٌ قُطِعَ، حَتَّى يَكُونَ آخِرُهُمْ لُصُوصًا سَلَّابِينَ.

.By Allah, no! Not yet

They still exist in the loins of men and wombs of women. Whenever a chief would appear from among them, he would be cut down until the last of them

\(1\) would turn into thieves and robbers.

Other examples of such chaotic trends were the movements of the Qaramitah (one of the factions of the Khawarij) and the Zinj, some of whom also sought personal interests and tried to make use of general rejection of the ruling authority in order to achieve those interests

Hypocritical Trend

The third trend was a destructive and hypocritical movement that pretended to abide by Islam and care for its higher interests including intellectual, cultural, and social development, but the spiritual and mental status of the representatives of this trend was far away from all that because they lacked religiousness, faith, and sincerity

Their one and only goal was to snare Islam and Muslims and destroy the infrastructure of Muslim society

Examples of such trends can be seen in the political movements of the Zanadiqah (miscreants), the Ghulat (exaggerators), the Nawasib (the anti-Shi`ah), some dubious Esoteric (Batiniyyah) movements, and some wicked scholars who tried to trick Muslims through their constant transference (in loyalty) to different political trends or by sneaking into governmental positions

Despite the gross damage that this trend caused Islam, its movement and existence lacked any real worth. However, offices of the ruling authorities, interest-seeking conflicts, and abhorrent political conditions did this trend a great favor when they allowed it to penetrate and impact the masses. Actually, this trend used to live on the margin of other movements. It make use of their weakness and mistakes, especially during the Umayyad reign. As a result, this trend could not withstand or maintain its independent form and appearance; rather, it continuously changed and took various forms that were colored by the current conditions in both political or intellectual .developments

Reformative Trend

The forth trend was in reaction to the corruption and deviation that was erupting in the Islamic world and among the caliphate (i.e. leadership) and ruling authorities. This trend consistently attempted to resist deviation, reform corruption and openly renounce immoral conditions by calling people towards Almighty Allah and Islam through either the (divinely instructed) method of wisdom and excellent explication, or .the method of sacrifice and uprising

This trend was the closest to the movement of the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a). However, some .inaccurate views have been witnessed in it

The best example of this trend was the Talibite (i.e. descendants of Abu-Talib) and `Alawid (i.e. descendants of Imam `Ali (‘a)) movements, such as the movement of Zayd ibn `Ali, his son Yahya, and husayn ibn `Ali of Fakhkh (known as Sahib Fakhkh) as well as the movements of Ahmad ibn hanbal (the founder of the hanbaliyyah .jurisprudential school) and many others

It can be observed that some of those who adopted of this trend won the support of the Holy Imams (‘a) who either expressed their approval or, at least, acknowledged them for the principles upon which they based their movements. Nevertheless, the Holy Imams (‘a) would not contribute personally to such movements in the main and would not instruct their followers to respond to these movements openly. In other cases they did not even permit such movements

This means that the Holy Imams of the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) believed in the legal validity of the principles on which these movements were started and expected they would positively impact the Islamic state in general. On the other hand, when these movements were not comprehensive and revolutionary uprisings characterized by good planning, finality and requirements necessary for their success, the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) deemed it unnecessary to require every individual of the Muslim community to play a role in it

Revolutionary Trend

The revolutionary trend was based on preferring the most important to the less important of the higher interests of Islam and advantages to disadvantages. Hence, before starting an uprising a comparison was also necessary between the corrupt and the most corrupt, and enduring the corrupt and rising against it in order to avoid the most corrupt

A political movement here was not merely the process of raising slogans—even though they were right—or an ill-conceived campaign without knowledge of conditions, context and outcome. Nor was it a genuine and sincere sentimental passion or an expression of the righteous and noble feelings inside man; rather, the Islamic political movement was an assessment of a process of social change towards the best, spiritually and materially, and based on belief in Almighty Allah and on the true and genuine principles and doctrines of Islam. Furthermore, it depended upon a thorough objective investigation of reality and a full trust in Almighty Allah for other-worldly aid, divine support, and capability of assessing the future along with the .outcome and consequences

The Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) presented the foundations for a political movement aimed at achieving successful, sought after political change. The attitude towards secondary issues and policies could direct the political movement and prepare guidelines for it based on the following starting-points

(Loyalty to the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a [1])

The foremost fundamental constituent in this political movement is unconditional belief in the (divinely commissioned) leadership, wilayah, of the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) as religious and political leadership which includes identifying religious rulings that had been conveyed by the Holy Prophet (s), identifying befitting attitudes to emerging new and future events, and distinguishing the true from the false

Absolute loyalty to the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) and deep love and fondness for them would be considered among the major sources of true guidance and salvation in this world as well as the afterlife. This love is such that a spiritual and sentimental devotion to the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) naturally evolves bringing about a patterning after their exemplary models of behavior, manners, obedience to Almighty Allah, piety, and high degree of abstinence from all forbidden acts

:From this premise, we can conclude the following

First: The Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) laid much stress on the role of their divinely commissioned leadership in building the Muslim society and establishing justice and morality. This point has been mentioned in many of their traditions, some of which have been cited previously. The following

:however, is another tradition of the same purport

:Tariq ibn Shihab has reported Imam `Ali (a) as saying

الإِمَامُ دَلِيلٌ لِلْقَاصِدِينَ،
وَمَنَارٌ لِلْمُهْتَدِينَ، وَسَبِيلٌ لِلسَّالِكِينَ، وَشَمْسٌ مُشْرِقَةٌ فِي
قُلُوبِ الْعَارِفِينَ. وَلَا يَتَّبِعُهُ سَبَبٌ لِلنَّجَاهِ، وَطَاعَتُهُ

الْحَرَامِ. فَهِيَ مَرْتَبَةٌ لَا يَنَالُهَا إِلَّا مَنْ اخْتَارَهُ اللهُ
وَقَدَّمَ، وَوَلَّاهُ وَحَكَّمَهُ. فَالْوَلَايَةُ هِيَ حِفْظُ الثُّغُورِ،

They maintained that one who loves them must eventually repent and return to Almighty Allah and the sinful among those who love them would undergo a penalty in this worldly life and chastisement in the grave (barzakh) or the hereafter although with final alleviation. He must not then doubt Paradise being his final abode. Verily, love for my Household entails twenty features—ten in the life of the world and ten in the hereafter

The features of this worldly life are: (١) asceticism, aspiration to work, (٣) religious abstinence, (٤) inclination for (٢) worship, (٥) repentance before death, (٦) pleasure in night worship, (٧) absence of envy for that which is possessed by others, (٨) observance of commands and prohibitions of Almighty Allah, (٩) aversion for this world, and (١٠) generosity

Features on the Day of Resurrection include: (١) the person's Record of Deeds will not be opened for settling his account, (٢) he will not be called to weigh his good deeds against his wrongdoings, (٣) he will be given his Record of Deeds in his right hand, an acquittal from hellfire will be recorded for him, (٥) his face will be (٤) brightened, (٦) he will be dressed in garments of Paradise, (٧) he will be granted the right to intercede for ten individuals of his relatives, (٨) Almighty Allah will look at him with mercy, (٩) a crown of Paradise will be placed on his head, and (١٠) he will be allowed to enter Paradise without being

Our

Shi`ah are the people of piety, diligence, loyalty and honesty. They are also the people of asceticism and worship. They offer fifty-one units of prayer in a single day and night. They pass their nights in worship and their days in fasting

They purify their wealth, perform the pilgrimage to the House of God, and

Our Shi`ah include only those who meet the needs of each other for the sake of their loyalty to our leadership, love each other for the sake of our pleasure, and exchange visits for the sake of proclaiming our affairs. They do not oppress when they are

.۴۶ as quoted from the previous reference book

Ka`bah, love for the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) and loyalty to them represents one of the major pivots on which all Muslims agree unanimously because the Holy Qur'an has affirmed their purity and the obligation of bearing love for them and keeping good relations with them, saying

قُلْ لَا أَسْأَلُكُمْ عَلَيْهِ أَجْرًا إِلَّا الْمَوَدَّةَ فِي الْقُرْبَى

Say: I do not ask of you

(any reward for it but love for my near relatives. (۴۲:۲۳)

In conclusion, love for and loyalty to the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) is one of the basic features of Islamic unity and the firm link between the virtuous community and the other individuals of the Muslim nation

On account of the Ahl al-Bayt’s tireless efforts to establish this course, the Muslim nation now unanimously agrees on love for the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) in spite of multiple attempts exerted throughout history to confront them, draw Muslims away from them, and separate their followers from them

(Renunciation of the Enemies of Allah and the Enemies of the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) [۲]

Another aspect of the political process outlined by the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) is that it is not sufficient only to identify the political trend, show loyalty and love for the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) and believe in their divinely designated leadership; rather, it is necessary in addition to abide by the course and policy of renouncing the enemies of Almighty Allah, Islam, and the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a

Anchored in this fact, the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) are known for their animosity towards wrongdoers, forbidding any sort of cooperation with them and resisting them through various means and methods uninfluenced by personal benefit and restricted interests. This political profile sketches out the nature of the relationship of the virtuous community with

:repressive and deviant ruling regimes and is represented through two main trends

The First Trend is civil opposition, which denotes the minimum political attitude against such ruling regimes

The Second Trend is religiously supported war (jihad) in which various political, propagative, and military activities are carried out characterized by readiness for self-sacrifice and martyrdom

Choosing one of these two trends depends on (١) the actual identification of the circumstances and capabilities of the virtuous community, (٢) the identification of the scope of deviation and injustice that is being practiced by the ruling authorities towards the people and Islam, and (٣) the extent of the impact and change that can be made by this activity on the actuality of the Muslim nation

The political position of renouncing the enemies of the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) is based on the principle that to hate and provoke the hostility of the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) is unbelief (kufr), because it is in evident opposition to the Holy Qur'an that has openly stated this reality. There are many traditions that show hatred of the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) is kufr

Equilibrium in Interests and Priorities [٣]

As directed by the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a), a true political movement must be according to a precise hierarchy of priorities,<sup>(١)</sup> i.e., the interest of the Muslim nation and

p: ١٣٨

A list of priorities has been displayed and discussed in the second book of this series –١ and also in our book entitled ‘al-wihdah al-islamiyyah min manzur al-thaqalayn, (Islamic Unity from the Perspective of the Two Weighty Things—i.e. the Holy Qur'an and the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a

Islamic faith must always precede the private interests and advantages of the virtuous community in particular and all private interests in general.

This political trend signifies one aspect of taqiyyah in the approach of the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) where it means to give up some personal practices and advantages in order to save the general interests and unity of Muslims such that these activities be restricted and given the shape of higher interests to avoid the total suppression and damage of the nation. This will be demonstrated in the volume dealing with the security system of the virtuous community where the issue of taqiyyah will be further discussed.

This sort of conduct was a unique phenomenon in the history of the virtuous community from the beginning of the period of Islam after the Holy Prophet (s), as is inferred from Imam `Ali’s posture towards the three caliphs because, although he knew he was the rightful holder of leadership of the Islamic state (a fact that he stated openly in his famous sermon called al-Shaqshaqiyyah (No. ۳ in Nahj al-Balaghah) as well as on other occasions), he abided by this political trend which he himself explained on many occasions, including the following:

وَوَاللَّهِ، لَأَسْلَمَنَّ مَا

سَلِمَتْ أُمُورُ الْمُسْلِمِينَ وَلَمْ يَكُنْ فِيهَا جَوْرٌ إِلَّا عَلَيَّ خَاصَّةً.

By Allah, so long as the affairs of Muslims remain intact and there is no oppression perpetrated except (upon me, I shall keep quiet.)<sup>(۱)</sup>

In addition, it can be observed that Imam `Ali (‘a) corresponded with the general political movements of the three caliphs and would advise and support them for the

p: ۱۳۹

.sake of the general interests of Muslims

The same applies to the state of affairs of Imam hasan (‘a) in connection with Mu`awiyah when he signed a truce in order to maintain the power of the Islamic state and save the blood of Muslims, especially the virtuous among them, from being shed .and also to maintain the survival of the virtuous community

At the same time, many of Imam hasan’s elite companions insisted that he renounce such a truce and enter armed confrontation with Mu`awiyah that would lead to martyrdom. This position was later taken by his brother, Imam husayn (‘a), not with .Mu`awiyah but in his conflict with Yazid due to various changes in the circumstances

The impact of this third political trend can be also discerned in the conduct of the other Holy Imams (‘a), such as al-Sadiq, al-Kazim, and al-Riza—peace be upon them—who had sufficient opportunities to ignite expansive revolutions against the deviant rulers but refrained from such acts because of the higher interests of Islam taking priority over their private interests and a thorough comprehension of the current .political situation

The same trend also applied to leading scholars of the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a), especially in the current age, shown in the positions taken by Shi`ite religious scholars towards the Ottoman Empire when it was exposed to the crusades of the West and their standpoints on present issues of the Muslim world. Under such conditions, the followers of the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) stood along with other Muslims to defend the Ottoman empire which had itself treated the Shi`ah unjustly and been deviant in many of its practices and laws. The one and only reason for such support was that this empire raised the slogan of Islam and represented the Muslim Nation against the opponents .of Islam

The next principle on which the political trend of the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) is founded is the maintenance of the structure of Muslim society and the firm social ties that must increase among Muslims, such as mutual love, affection and respect which contribute to the unity of Muslims and create strong alliances among the individuals of the Muslim nation.

The features of this unchangeable political trend can be traced in the narrations that are reported from the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) emphasizing the need of this aspect in their political and social movement as a whole.

It is possible to make out the points indicating this trend in the following instructions of the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a):

The virtuous community is required to coexist and interact with the other Muslims (١) in a broad and perfective unity and is not permitted to live in isolation within Muslim society because the individuals of the virtuous community are in constant need of exchanging services with others.

In Usul al-Kafi, Shaykh al-Kulayni has reported through an authenticated chain of authority that Murazim reported Imam al-Sadiq (‘a) as saying

إِنَّهُ لَا بُدَّ لَكُمْ مِنَ

النَّاسِ. إِنَّ أَحَدًا لَا يَسْتَعِينِي عَنِ النَّاسِ حَيَاتَهُ، وَالنَّاسُ

لَا بُدَّ لِبَعْضِهِمْ مِنْ بَعْضٍ.

Verily, you cannot escape dealing with people. No one can dispense with others throughout their lifetime since people are in an indispensable need of each other. \(١\)

:hudhayfah ibn Mansur has reported that he heard Imam al-Sadiq (‘a) saying

---

.Shaykh al-Kulayni, Usul al-Kafi ٢:٦٣٥, H. ١ -- ١

مَنْ كَفَّ يَدَهُ عَنِ النَّاسِ

فَأَيْدِيهَا يَكْفُ عَنْهُمْ يَدًا وَاحِدَةً وَيَكْفُونَ عَنْهُ أَيْدِيًا

كَثِيرَةً.

Whoever refrains from reaching out to help others will have surely stopped one hand (his own) from helping (others, while many hands will refrain from reaching out to him. (1)

According to this fact, one of the basic approaches of the enemies in the course of opposing the virtuous community was their attempt to isolate this community from (Muslim society. (2)

The Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) stressed abiding by the manners of good association as (2) prescribed by Islam in order to strengthen the pillars of Muslim society and their social ties by visiting the sick, attending funeral ceremonies, and paying attention to sentimental and emotional aspects of life

:Husham al-Kindi has reported that he heard Imam al-Sadiq (‘a) say

إِيَّاكُمْ أَنْ تَعْمَلُوا عَمَلًا

نُعَيِّرُ بِهِ! فَإِنَّ وَلَدَ الشُّوْءِ يُعَيِّرُ وَالِدَهُ بِعَمَلِهِ.

التَّقِيَّةِ.

Avoid committing any act

due to which we may be disgraced. Verily, an immoral son brings disgrace to his father because of his deeds. Be good for the sake of those to whom you devotedly belong and do not be bad examples against them. Build good relationships with them, visit their sick, attend their funeral ceremonies and let them not precede you in performing any act of decency because you are worthier than them in such acts. By Allah I swear, Almighty Allah has never been worshipped through a matter more appreciated by Him than concealment—dissimulation

The Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) instructed their followers through a set of rules and regulations (۳) determined for social relations to be committed to pledges, covenants, and commercial contracts that they concluded with other Muslims so that these commitments would act as solid ethical and legal bases for their relations with others

:Imam `Ali (‘a) is reported to have said

إِنَّ الْعُهُودَ قَلَائِدُ فِي
الْأَعْنَاقِ إِلَى يَوْمِ الْقِيَامَةِ؛ فَمَنْ وَصَلَهَا وَصَلَهُ اللَّهُ،

.Verily, pledges are necklaces worn around the neck up to the Day of Resurrection

Therefore, whoever fulfills their pledges will gain proximity with Almighty

Allah, whoever breaches them will be rejected by Him and if one underestimates their importance, a suit shall be brought against him before the One Who has affirmed the fulfillment of pledges and commanded His

(۱) creatures to adhere to them.

:Imam `Ali (‘a) is also reported to have said

لَا تَغْدُرَنَّ
بِعَهْدِكَ، وَلَا تَخْفَرَنَّ ذِمَّتَكَ، وَلَا تَحْتَلْ عِدْوَكَ، فَقَدْ

(of pledge are to cheat one’s friend and to break one’s covenant.)

The Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) urged their followers to maintain high standards of conduct (٤) among people at both individual and collective levels so that they would become leading examples for the people and leave an estimable impact on them in the fields of guidance and concord. In this respect, Shaykh al-Kulayni has reported through an authentic chain of authority that Safwan ibn Yahya reported Abu-Usamah Zayd al-Shahham as saying that Imam al-Sadiq (‘a) said to him

إِقْرَأْ عَلَيَّ مَنْ تَرَى أَنَّهُ يُطِيعُنِي مِنْهُمْ وَيَأْخُذُ

We conclude that the policy of maintaining Islamic unity signifies an unchangeable and major principle in the political trend of the virtuous community

The Role of the Nation in Political Change [5]

The fifth principle on which the political trend of the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) is founded is their assertion that the Muslim nation must play a considerable role in the process of changing political conditions, either by acting directly or contributing to create a process of change or by monitoring and observing the progress of this process, its outcome and results. To summarize this approach, the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) believe that the nation is the tool of the process of change; therefore, it is necessary to mobilize and change the public psychologically and spiritually so that they become capable of bringing about that change. At the same time, the nation is both the subject and the ,object of that process of change

.Shaykh al-Kulayni, al-Kafi ٢:٦٣٥, H. ٣ - -١

and the sought objective of this process is to guide people towards Almighty Allah and
.the right path which leads certainly to attainment of divine perfection

:An investigation of the following points gives us a clear understanding of this view

The concept of the Holy Imams of the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) about the leadership of (۱) Muslims is that Imamate is a divinely designated position, in the sense that an Imam is assigned on the strength of a nomination made by the Holy Prophet or the preceding Imam. Notwithstanding, we find that in actual practice the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a)—after having been removed from this divinely designated position because of political circumstances that Muslims encountered immediately after the Holy Prophet’s .demise—emphasized the people’s role in the processes of political change

It is evident that Imam `Ali (‘a) became Caliph as the result of a direct election of Muslims living in al-Madinah, while Abu-Bakr claimed the position as a result of election by some people who held a (private) meeting at saqifah of Banu-Sa`idah, `Umar held the position due to direct nomination by one person—Abu-Bakr, and `Uthman came to the position as a result of the vote of four persons out of six persons that `Umar had named to choose the following caliph (without requesting the opinion of other Muslims on the issue).<sup>(۱)</sup>

In this section, we do not intend to discuss whether these restricted elections were –۱ right or unjustified; rather, we only want to refer to the point that Imam `Ali (‘a) himself had not agreed to hold the position of caliphate without direct election by the people. Referring to this election, Imam `Ali (‘a) says in his famous sermon known as al-Shaqshaqiyyah: فَمَا رَاعِنِي إِلَّا- وَالنَّاسُ إِلَيَّ كَعُزْفِ الضَّبِيعِ، يَنْشَالُونَ عَلَيَّ مِنْ كُلِّ جَانِبٍ، حَتَّى لَقَدْتُ وُطِيءَ الْحَسَيْنَانَ، وَشُقَّ عَطْفَايَ، مُجْتَمِعِينَ حَوْلِي كَرَبِيضَةِ الْغَنَمِ. فَلَمَّا نَهَضْتُ بِالْأَمْرِ نَكَثَتْ طَائِفَةٌ، وَمَرَقَتْ أُخْرَى، وَقَسَيْطَ آخَرُونَ. At that moment, nothing took me by surprise like the crowd of people rushing towards me. They advanced towards me from every side like the mane of the hyena so much so that hasan and husayn were getting crushed and both shoulders of my garment were torn. They collected around me like a herd of sheep and goats. When I took up the reins of government, one party broke away and another turned disobedient while the ...rest began acting wrongfully

The same thing applies to the rulers of the Umayyad and `Abbasid dynasties who .totally deprived the nation of its role in a direct election or even consultation

All this took place against explicit divine wording (nass) and in spite of the slogan that was raised by the followers of the School of Consultation (shura). Apparently, this slogan lacked any substance and was raised just to revoke the divine and Prophetic texts on designating Imam `Ali and his descendants (‘a) as the leaders of the Muslim .nation

It is also clear that the Holy Imams of the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) in general political situations used to take the public view into consideration, as shown in Imam `Ali’s stance to the question of arbitration immediately after the Siffin War even though he had originally not supported the validity of this situation. Nevertheless, the Imam (‘a) based his stance on the general viewpoint of his army and declared it after discussion with the \(Khawarij.\)

In Nahj al-Balaghah, Sermon No. ١٢٧, Imam `Ali (‘a) says: Your own group – ١ unanimously suggested the names of these two men and we took the pledge from them that they would not exceed the Qur'an but they deviated from it and abandoned ...the right way although both of them were conversant with it

The same thing can be said about Imam hasan's truce with Mu`awiyah and Imam husayn's open rejection of Yazid's demands after being certain that the people of Iraq unanimously agreed with him in this matter

The Ahl al-Bayt (a) adopted a policy that admitted multiple political parties and (۲) opposition even if those parties were in the wrong and lacked any legal or actual justification. This policy was obvious in the general setting of Imam `Ali (a) who did not take any suppressive procedures against his political opponents as long as they did not use a weapon or power to face him politically. The most obvious example of this policy was Imam `Ali's attitude towards the mutinous movements of Talhah and al-Zubayr and of the Khawarij after the issue of arbitration—when they isolated themselves from the Muslim community and refrained from carrying out their general duties towards society—as well as many other persons who objected to the Imam's policy of allowing various sorts of opposing political activities

As has been discussed in the first chapter of this book, the Ahl al-Bayt (a) (۳) established an exclusive method of choosing a judge or a referential authority in the issue of issuing religious verdicts. This method then developed into the system of religious referential authority (marji` iyyah) by which a religious authority was elected by the people through natural and direct voting for a nominee that met the requirements of the office. In this system too, the two processes of electing the most qualified person and the people getting to know him grew in the nation so gradually that it became the norm in

.all issues

The same method is applied while choosing a deputy of the referential authority—a method that takes form by means of gradual approval of the people, familiarity with
.and consent for that person

The Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) paid very special attention to the weak, poor, and needy (٤)
Muslims in general, as well as the lower class of the Muslim society, such as non-Arabs, slaves, and others who later on represented the vast majority of the Muslim community. The Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) were famed for taking good care of these social classes and depending on them such that some individuals of (the tribe of) Quraysh protested against Imam `Ali’s manners towards the non-Arab Muslims who they used to call ‘the red-faced’, as mentioned in their famous complaint to Imam `Ali (‘a),
”.“Those red-faced ones preoccupy you more than we do

The majority of the Muslim community, these lower-classed people, bore much love for the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) as a natural result of the care that was shown for them

This extraordinary attention and care for these classes can be observed in the following section of Imam `Ali’s famous Epistle to Malik al-Ashtar, the governor of :Egypt

اللَّهُ اللَّهُ فِي الطَّبَقِ

السُّفْلَى مِنَ الَّذِينَ لَا حِيلَةَ لَهُمْ وَالْمَسَاكِينَ

The Role of the Nation in the System of the Virtuous Community

The following points summarize the role that can be played by the nation in the :general system of the virtuous community

The public play the role of selecting and identifying the Islamic leadership in the (۱) Age of Occultation. In the periods of the Holy Prophet (s) and Imams (‘a), the leadership of the Muslim community is designated directly by Almighty Allah while, in the Age of Occultation, this position must be held by the most qualified religious referential authority (namely, marji` ) who is designated by Almighty Allah, too, but in the light of meeting the requirements and qualifications that authorize holding this position, as declared by the Ahl-Bayt (‘a). However, the role of the nation in this respect is to decide on the person who best \(meets all these requirements and qualifications.\)

The nation is responsible for choosing the civil administration of the Muslim ( ۲ ) community. There are two aspects of social activity. One is the application of Islamic laws to the actions of the nation in general and of the virtuous community in particular to lead them to perfection through laws and regulations that must be practiced by the authority. The other aspect is related to the administration of private worldly affairs of the people and must be decided by the people themselves. This aspect includes the areas of permissibility in the religious code of Islamic law (i.e. issues that are determined to be permissible: ja’iz) in its all-comprehensive significance which covers issues that are determined to be recommended (mustahabb), disapproved of (makruh), or allowed (mubah). These areas of affairs have been left for man to choose for himself whether to perform them or not ometimes, this permissibility requires a social order to stop contradiction of personal wills or to put different interests, desires, and inclinations in accord. When this takes place, the administration of these affairs is left to

Further discussions of this question (i.e. the role of the nation in the general system –۱ of the virtuous community) have been cited in my book of al-hukm al-islami bayna al-nazariyyah wa’l-tatbiq (Islamic Government; Theory and Application) ۱۷۲–۱۷۹ people to do what best fits their desires and achieves their interests according to their .personal experiences

Because the office of management cannot be held by everyone, a special group from the community may select the most qualified person for this office. In constitutional
.terms this body is called a municipality council

Legality of such a management council can be achieved through sanction by the supreme religious authority or where majority selection is unanimously supported by Muslims in general. Compliance becomes binding after such unanimity, as is indicated by considerable traditions of the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a), such as the Holy Prophet’s following
:instruction in his Farewell Sermon

ثَلَاثٌ لَا يَغْلُ عَلَيْنَهُنَّ
قَلْبُ إِمْرِيٍّ مُسْلِمٍ: إِخْلَاصُ الْعَمَلِ لِلَّهِ، وَالنَّصِيحَةُ لِأَيِّمِهِ الْمُسْلِمِينَ، وَاللُّزُومُ لِجَمَاعَتِهِمْ.

The heart of a real Muslim must always stay true to the following three matters: (١) sincerity in deeds

,that are intended for Almighty Allah, (٢) loyalty to the leaders of Muslims
(٣) abiding by unanimity. (١)

The public may give advisory opinions to the leadership, since such advice (٣) demonstrates true interest by both in the general welfare of the community. A need for such consultation is necessary to achieve the highest social standards; however, this system is not necessary in the case of the leadership of the Infallible and divinely-(directed Imams (‘a

This common interest embodies a good ground for confirming and consolidating the relationship between the leadership and the nation, as is indicated by the following

.Shaykh al-Kulayni, al-Kafi ١:٤٠٣-٤٠٤, H. ١, ٢ -- ١

فَبِمَا رَحْمَةٍ مِنَ اللَّهِ لِنْتَ لَهُمْ وَلَوْ كُنْتَ فَظًا غَلِيظَ الْقَلْبِ لَانفَضُّوا مِنْ حَوْلِكَ فَاعْفُ عَنْهُمْ وَاسْتَغْفِرْ لَهُمْ وَشَاوِرْهُمْ فِي الْأَمْرِ فَإِذَا عَزَمْتَ فَتَوَكَّلْ عَلَى اللَّهِ إِنَّ اللَّهَ يُحِبُّ الْمُتَوَكِّلِينَ

Thus it is due to mercy

from Allah that you deal with them gently, and had you been rough or hard hearted, they would certainly have dispersed from around you; pardon them ,therefore and ask pardon for them, and take counsel with them in the affair but when you resolve a matter, then place your trust in Allah. Surely, Allah (loves those who put their trust in Him. (٣:١٥٩)

Although the Holy Prophet (s) did not require consultation in order to realize the reality of a situation, consultation had a considerable impact on the relationship and psychological and spiritual connection between the leadership and the public. This common interest contributes to educating the public on undertaking responsibility, playing a role in general issues, realizing the actual circumstances of issues and .becoming familiar with facts and approaches to various issues of Muslims

In the case of the religious authority that is selected on the basis of election after meeting the qualifications, the consultation of the nation contributes significantly in discerning the accurate attitudes towards the issues involved. In the light of this fact, texts from the Holy Qur'an and the Holy Sunnah emphasize the significance of consultation and mutual counseling in the individual and social lives of the Muslims.<sup>(١)</sup>

The following Qur'anic text is Further discussions of this question have been cited in my book of al-hukm al-islami – bayna al-nazariyyah wa'l-tatbiq (Islamic Government; Theory and Application); Chapter: Constitution System, a Genuine System, pp. ١١٣–١٣٧

:one example

وَأَمْرُهُمْ شُورَى بَيْنَهُمْ وَمِمَّا رَزَقْنَاهُمْ يُنفِقُونَ and their rule is...

(to take counsel among themselves. (٤٢:٣٨

The public is required to supervise and assess the level of procedures that are (٤) taken by the leadership or the selected administrative body. Such supervision can be classified into two aspects

First, supervision of the qualities in the leadership or the religious authority that authorize him to hold this office—knowledge, piety, and excellent management—and the observed scope of harmony between his conduct and these qualifications

second, supervision of the quality of procedures and conformity with the totality of unequivocal laws of religion and with what the public needs from the leadership to achieve their desires and interests

Indications of this special role of the public can be pointed out in the traditions about enjoining the right and forbidding evil, such as the famous speech of Imam husayn (a), recalling his grandfather, the Holy Prophet (s), as saying

مَنْ رَأَى

سُلْطَانًا جَائِرًا مُسْتَحِلًّا لِحُرَامِ اللَّهِ تَاكِنًا لِعَهْدِهِ

مُخَالَفًا لِسُنَّةِ رَسُولِ اللَّهِ يَعْمَلُ فِي عِبَادِ اللَّهِ بِالْإِثْمِ

وَالْعُدْوَانَ فَلَمْ يُعَيِّرْ عَلَيْهِ بِفِعْلٍ وَلَا قَوْلٍ، كَانَ حَقًّا

عَلَى اللَّهِ أَنْ يُدْخِلَهُ مَدْخَلَهُ.

If one realizes that an unjust ruler is violating the prohibitions of Allah, breaching his pledge with Him, opposing the traditions of His Messenger (s), and treating His servants with wrongdoing and aggression, but that person does not try to change that injustice by a deed or a word, Allah will surely associate him

\(with that ruler.\)

Muhammad ibn Jarir al-Tabari, Tarikh al-Umam wa'l-Muluk (known as Tarikh al- – ١

The public can practice supervision either directly, through constitutional means, or through civil organizations such as the press, political parties and other establishments that grant freedom of expressing personal views

The public are required to support, refer to and act sincerely towards the religious (۵) leadership. This aspect can be understood from traditions like the following

A. Texts that reveal the obligation of obedience to the religious leadership

يَا أَيُّهَا الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا أَطِيعُوا اللَّهَ وَأَطِيعُوا الرَّسُولَ وَأُولَى الْأَمْرِ مِنْكُمْ فَإِنْ تَنَازَعْتُمْ فِي شَيْءٍ فَرُدُّوهُ إِلَى اللَّهِ وَالرَّسُولِ إِنْ كُنْتُمْ تُؤْمِنُونَ بِاللَّهِ وَالْيَوْمِ الْآخِرِ ذَلِكَ خَيْرٌ وَأَحْسَنُ تَأْوِيلًا

O you who believe! Obey

Allah and obey the Messenger and those in authority from among you; then, if you quarrel about anything, refer it to Allah and the Messenger if you believe in Allah and the Last Day; this is better and more suitable in the (end. (۴:۵۹)

B. Texts that reveal the obligation of swearing allegiance to the Imam and the obligation of recognizing the Imam of one's age, such as the following traditions

مَنْ مَاتَ وَلَمْ يَعْرِفْ إِمَامًا

زَمَانِهِ مَاتَ مِيتَةً جَاهِلِيَّةً.

Whoever dies before recognizing the authority (i.e. Imam) of his time has died as non-Muslim

مَنْ مَاتَ وَلَيْسَ فِي

عُنُقِهِ بَيْعَةُ مَاتَ مِيتَةً جَاهِلِيَّةً.

Whoever dies without \(paying homage \(to an Imam\) has died as a non-Muslim.\)

.The references of these two traditions have been previously cited in this book –۱

C. Texts that reveal the obligation of giving advisory opinion to the leaders of Muslims, such as the previously mentioned tradition of the Holy Prophet (s) about the three things that must find no place in the heart of a true Muslim

Observation of Regulations and Standards [٦]

Point

The sixth principle on which the political trend of the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a) is founded is their emphasis on Islamic regulations and standards in the process of building a virtuous community and making political changes. Such regulations and standards can monitor the features of change and the scope of its progress. The Holy Qur'an has emphatically displayed a set of distinctive features and qualities of true perfection to be the criterion of preference among Muslims

First of all, belief in Almighty Allah and following true guidance are the basis of all distinctive features that the Holy Qur'an shows, because unless there is belief in Almighty Allah, one's file is absolutely sealed, no matter how excellent his distinctive features are. Declaring this fact, the Holy Qur'an states

وَالَّذِينَ كَفَرُوا أَعْمَالُهُمْ كَسَرَابٍ بِقِيَعِهِ يَتَحَسَّبُ بِهَا الظَّمَانُ مَاءً حَتَّىٰ إِذَا جَاءَهُ لَمْ يَجِدْهُ شَيْئًا وَوَجَدَ اللَّهَ عِنْدَهُ فَوَفَّاهُ حِسَابَهُ وَاللَّهُ سَرِيعُ الْحِسَابِ

.As for those who disbelieve their deeds are like a mirage in a desert, which the thirsty man deems to be water. When he comes to it, he finds it to be naught, but he finds Allah is there to pay back to him his reckoning in full. Allah is quick in reckoning

(٢٤:٣٩)

:Let us now refer to a summary of these distinctive features

Piety and Abstinence from Violating Prohibitions of Allah (١)

The Holy Qur'an has highlighted the role of these two features in the process of :change and also in discriminating and preferring one Muslim over another

إِنَّ أَكْرَمَكُمْ عِنْدَ اللَّهِ أَتْقَاكُمْ

Surely, the most honorable

(of you with Allah is the most pious of you. (٤٩:١٣)

Knowledgeability (٢)

Knowledgeability in this regard stands for the recognition of Almighty Allah and the familiarity with the facts of this universe, religion, divine revelation, religious code of .Islamic laws and the divinely ordained provisions

In the previous chapter of the cultural aspect of the virtuous community, we found that the Ahl al-Bayt (‘a), through their school and followers, ensured a special interest in knowledge of various types depending on the significance that the Holy Qur'an has :given to it, as revealed in the following texts

قُلْ هَلْ يَسْتَوِي الَّذِينَ يَعْلَمُونَ وَالَّذِينَ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ؟

Say: Are those who know

(and those who do not know alike? (٣٩:٩)

يَرْفَعُ اللَّهُ الَّذِينَ آمَنُوا مِنْكُمْ وَالَّذِينَ أُوتُوا الْعِلْمَ دَرَجَاتٍ

Allah will exalt those of (you who believe, and those who are given knowledge, in high degrees. (٥٨:١١)

Struggle, Self-Sacrifice, Exertion of Efforts, Spending and Charity for the Sake of Almighty (٣)

Allah

No human community can ever attain perfection and achieve its goal by any means other than hardship, toil, distress, affliction, and sacrifice. Confirming this fact, the

:Holy Qur'an states

أَمْ حَسِبْتُمْ أَنْ تُدْخَلُوا الْجَنَّةَ وَلَمَّا يَأْتِكُمْ مَثَلُ الَّذِينَ خَلَوْا مِنْ قَبْلِكُمْ مَسَّتْهُمُ الْبَأْسَاءُ وَالضَّرَّاءُ وَزُلْزِلُوا حَتَّى يَقُولَ الرَّسُولُ وَالَّذِينَ
آمَنُوا مَعَهُ مَتَى نَصُرُ اللَّهُ أَلَا إِنَّ نَصْرَ اللَّهِ قَرِيبٌ

Do you think that you would enter Paradise while yet the state of those who have passed away before you has not come upon you. Distress and affliction befell them and they were

,shaken violently so that the Messenger and those who believed with him said

.When will the help of Allah come?” Now, surely, the help of Allah is nigh“

(۲:۲۱۴)

The Holy Qur'an has also determined jihad (used in its common sense meaning the exertion of all possible effort) to be one of the features that discriminates people because it is a phenomenon capable of perennial practice with definite outcomes and
:purports

فَضَّلَ اللَّهُ الْمُجَاهِدِينَ بِأَمْوَالِهِمْ وَأَنْفُسِهِمْ عَلَى الْقَاعِدِينَ دَرَجَةً

And Allah has preferred those who strive and fight by a (great reward, above those who hold back. (۴:۹۵)

Actual Freedom (۴)

Actual freedom entails freewill and choice independent of inner pressures—such as desires, inclinations, and lusts—and external pressures, such as fear of tyrannical rulers, delusions, and myths. One who possesses this quality will definitely be free in .choosing the correct path realized by one’s reason and knowledge

This genuine freedom embodies one of the features of individuals and societies due
:to which a society is preferred over another

ضَرَبَ اللَّهُ مَثَلًا عَبْدًا مَمْلُوكًا لَا يَقْدِرُ عَلَى شَيْءٍ وَمَنْ رَزَقْنَاهُ مِنَّا رِزْقًا حَسَنًا فَهُوَ يُنْفِقُ مِنْهُ سِرًّا وَجَهْرًا هَلْ يَسْتَوُونَ الْحَمِيدُ لِلَّهِ بَلْ أَكْثَرُهُمْ لَا يَعْلَمُونَ

Allah sets forth a parable: consider a slave, the property of another, who has no power over anything and one whom We have granted from Ourselves a goodly sustenance such tha he spends from it secretly and openly. Are the two alike? All praise is (due to Allah! Nay, most of them do not know. (١٦:٧٥)

p: ١٥٩

Comprehension of peoples' equality and justice (Δ)

Another distinctive feature by which one is preferred to another is having the belief that all people are equal and treating them all with justice and fairness because they are from the same origin and are equal in rights, duties and responsibilities, without any discrimination on the basis of sex, color, blood, lineage or kinship. Privileges that are granted are according to one's deeds, hard work and deference. In the previously .cited point, we referred to the Holy Qur'an's criterion of preference, piety

The aforesaid features compose the philosophy advocated by the Ahl al-Bayt ('a) in the process of social change as well as the criterion of its actual progress and development. The Ahl al-Bayt ('a) also followed a fixed outline in their policy towards .human society and in their endeavors to construct a virtuous community Advancement in physical sciences and civil advancement in the essential means of life, including the means that facilitate life styles, are also important according to the Ahl al-Bayt ('a). However, it is necessary to pursue advancement only if it contributes to the achievement of these criteria or has some bearing on it. Sometimes, advancement becomes contingent upon and owes its existence and development to .these criteria
